Orioles trade Charley White

Deal with Braves nets pitcher, 33

The Baltimore Orioles, who two weeks ago tendered an out right release to Seldel Paige, announced Wednesday that they had traded Charley White, a pitcher, to Milwaukee, thus reducing their colored training camp personnel to one.

White, an outstanding performer with the San Antonio farm club last year, was sent to the Braves in exchange for Vern Bickford, a veteran right handed pitcher. The Orioles also dispatched an undisclosed amount of cash to Milwaukee to complete the transaction.

The trading of White left only Jehosie Heard, a southpaw pitcher bought from the Pacific Coast League in midwinter, for the trip to the Yuma, Ariz., spring training base of the Birds.

In a talk with the AFRO last week, general manager Art Ehlers said that White, though not on the Oriole varsity roster, would be in camp with Heard and that they were the only two colored aspirants due in Yuma.

Impressed With Browns

White batted .124 with the Texas League Missions last year, driving in 46 runs. He was sent to the San Antonio club by the St. Louis Browns after making an impressive showing in the Brownie spring camp at San Bernadino.

In 1950 and '51, White played with Toronto of the International League.

Bickford, for whom the rookie catcher was traded, won two and lost five for the second-place Braves last year. He is 33 years old. White is 23.

Bassett kayos French champion

MARSEILLES—Percy Bassett moved a step closer to a feather-weight title shot at Sandy Saddler here Sunday by knocking out Mohammed Chickaoui in three rounds.

The Philadelphian recognized as French champion while 126-pound king Saddler is in the armed forces, floored Chickaoui twice in the third, the second time for the full count. The latter is a North African who won the French featherweight championship by knocking out Ray Grasi last year.

Injury-riddled Bears

An injury-stricken but determined Morgan State College quintet will essay a comeback against the Loyola College Greyhounds when the two teams meet tonight (Friday) in an 8 p.m. game in the E. P. Hurt Gymnasium.

The two teams will meet for the third successive year in what has come to be called the annual Lincoln Day Classic. The series was inaugurated on the evening of the dedication of the Hurt gym in 1952.

With Loyola a two-time winner, Morgan faces the difficult job of breaking their losing streak with several relatives out of shape.

Gardner, Wells Out

The Morgan squad will be forced to operate without the services of Les Gardner, high scoring ace of Newark, N. J., who's been out of play with a broken foot for the past month. Lester (Deke) Wells, benched several weeks ago by a torn ligament, and Charles McMillan, who's handicapped by a weak finger, injured earlier this week.

Coach Marse Hill, however is rallying his squad around high-scoring Ernie Garrett, co-captain George Williams, Raymond (Spider) Murphy, and Gerald Shaw.

He has some surprises for Loyola in several junior varsity men who've been elevated to the varsity and who've done well in their first games.

Loyola's Joel Hittleman, who worried Morgan last year, will have to be reckoned with again this year. Garrett and Hittleman are two of the highest scoring collegiate stars in the State and their meeting should be interesting.

Women To Play

An afternoon game at 3:30 on Friday will pit Morgan's women rugers against Goucher College's distaff basket shooters.

The Morgan basketball squad meets Virginia State Saturday in a night game and closes out the season here February 20 against Lincoln University of Pennsylvania.

Press book of Bullets available to cage fans

A 16-page press-radio-and tele-vision guide covering the Baltimore Bullets is available for the asking by dropping a line to either John MacLean or Joe Chase at radio station WCBM or WAAM-TV.

The booklet contains a history of the Bullets and profile of coach Clair Bee, as well as profiles of all the players on the Baltimore club. Various season records and Bullet players' records by seasons from 1947 on are also included in the book.

The Gunther Brewing Company, which sponsors the Bullet broadcasts and telecasts is giving the booklet away to the general public in an effort to further assist in stimulating attendance at Baltimore Bullet games.

B'nai B'rith is sponsoring the Bullet game with Boston tomorrow (Saturday) night, at the Coliseum. Other home games for the Bullets will be on February 17th, 20th, 24th 27th and March 3rd, 6th, 10th, which is to be sponsored by the Frontiers club and 13th.

Amateur ring meet slated

State tourney to open on Monday

One of the most colorful ring tournaments in local history is expected to unfold here when some 140 young boxers mix it up in the annual Maryland State Amateur boxing tournament.

The first round of competition will get under way at 8:30 p.m., Monday and the finals will be staged the following Monday in the Baltimore Coliseum.

Ten Weight Classes

Action will be the keynote as the youngsters battle for the championships in ten weight classes in both the open and novice divisions.

The leather swingers will come from many of the tight clubs throughout the city and adjacent areas. Four such organizations as the Police Boys' Club, the Y.M.H.A., the Ring side A. C. the Y.M.C.A., The Silber A. C. and the Baltimore A. C.

Navy, Coast Guard Entered

Also to be presented will be the U.S. Navy and the Coast Guard.

Probably one of the most colorful fighters to don trunks for the tournament will be Edward Kreiner, a yeoman in the Navy, who hails from the Waverly section of Baltimore. Eddie holds the amazing number of 37 ring titles in the service, including the All Navy and Marine championship. He will fight in the 125 pound class.

Al Flora and Jimmy Lazzati, tourney directors, hope to fill the Coliseum on both nights for the encouragement of the youthful gladiators.

In Memoriams 1

BUTLER—In loving memory of our husband and father, ALEXANDER, who passed away, February 13, 1953.
He would not want the ones he loved,
To grieve for him today.
We must not say that he is dead,
For he is just away.
Away upon a Heavenly journey,
To a land that is bright and fair
And though we all do miss him so,
We know he's happy there.
Our memories of him will bring
New comfort every day.
As we recall he is not dead.
For he is just away.
Loving Wife, ELLA
Daughters, LILLIAN B. REID and RUTH A. CAMPBELL
Son-in-law, CHARLES A. REID

CAMPHOR—In memory of our mother, MARY, who passed away February 12, 1949 and father, HOWARD, passed away January 23, 1941:
Some but not to be forgotten
While life and memory last;
And memories of him will bring
And the happy days long past.
Somewhere above this troubled world
Safe beyond all grief and care
Our mother and father rest in Heavenly peace
God grant someday we meet them there.
THE FAMILY AND GRANDCHILDREN.

HOLMES—In loving memory of our daughter, granddaughter and niece, EVELYN HILDA, who passed away February 13, 1953.
Today our heart is heavy,
Our thoughts are all of them,
O, how I miss you Evelyn
dear
None but God knows in Heaven
can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But no, it isn't true,
For twelve long months have passed dear,
And our hearts still ache for you.
For somewhere above this troubled world
Safe beyond all grief and care
Our Daughter, Granddaughter and Niece
Rest in Heavenly peace.
God grant someday we'll meet her there
Loving Mother, FRANCES
Grandmother, HATTIE
Aunt, ESTELLA

KELSON—In sad but loving memory of our dear ones, RUPERT H. and HAZEL P., who departed this life seven years ago, respectively, February 4th and 8th, 1947:
No one knows the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
For the grief that's borne in silence
Is the sorrow we love so well.
THE DEVOTED FAMILY.

SMITH—In loving memory of our dear mother, CATHERINE LEE SMITH, who passed away February 7, 1945:
"TO MY MOTHER"
When your mother breathes her last farewell
The sister means more than tongue can tell.
The world seems quite another place
Without the smile of mother's face
The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of the one who once sat there.
God made lots of beautiful things,
Sunset and roses and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare.
Love is loving and more true
Of all God's gifts, the one most dear
A mother is to you.
Loving Daughters,
AGNES SIMMS, MAMIE CHASE
Sons, SAMUEL, CHARLES, HERBERT and REV. CARLTON SMITH.

WILLIAMS—A tribute of love to the memory of our son, WILLIAM WILLIAMS, who passed away July 9, 1915; beloved mother, ISABELLA SORRELL WILLIAMS, who passed away January 13, 1932:
In the land of God's tomorrow
Lies a city secure and fair
Beyond life's golden sunset;
Our Father and Mother await us there.
It's a place of wondrous beauty
Where they know no grief or fears
Where God Himself in tenderness
Shall wipe away all tears.
So we rejoice in knowing
That our Father and Mother have peace
In that land of God's tomorrow
Where His blessings never cease.
Children, MAE GERTRUDE LEE
MRS. MINNIE FRANCES
MRS. HERANTINA WILLIAMS
MR. GEORGE WILLIAMS

YOUNG—In loving remembrance of my beloved husband, CHARLES A., who passed away February 14, 1948:
Days of sadness still come o'er me
Tears in silence often flow.
Memory keeps him ever near me
Though he left me six years ago.
Loving Wife,
ANNIE YOUNG
