HOW THEY DID IT IN WORCESTER.

Eleven Libel Suits Filed Against Snow Hill Editor and Politician.

Eleven suits for libel and two for assault and battery are to date the growth of the local political campaign in Worcester county.

Nine of the libel suits were docketed last week. Milton L. Veasey, William E. Lankford, Democrats, and Dr. R. Lee Hall, an ardent Roosevelt Progressive, are the plaintiffs, and George W. Truitt, Bull Moose nominee for Congress last year and treasurer of the People's party this year; Chester C. Holloway, editor of a local newspaper called The People, incorporated, publishers, are the defendants.

These latest suits are the outgrowth of a publication by Truitt in Holloway's newspaper of a statement by Truitt that during last week Dr. Hall proposed to contract that if Truitt would deliver 50 to 100 People's Party votes to the local Democratic candidate; Messrs. Veasey and Lankford would deliver the same number of Democratic votes to the Republican State candidates, and would give $500 in cash to Truitt.

The publication further charged that last Thursday night was fixed as the time when Dr. Hall was to pay $250 to Truitt to "start the boys to work," but Dr. Hall failed to keep the engagement.

Dr. Hall published a sworn denial of the charge, and Messrs. Veasey and Lankford also denied under oath any connection with the alleged negotations.

James S. Scarborough, People's party candidate for judge of Orphans' Court, and his son, Frank Scarborough, have been sued by William Ayres, of Girdletree, for damages for alleged assault and battery, growing out of a political discussion. Holloway and his newspaper have been sued for libel by Samuel M. Atkinson, who was charged in a news item with having electioneered with whiskey in Atkinson's district.

State Insurance Rate Pared.

The State Industrial Accident commission yesterday announced that the State Insurance Fund, which it conducts, would reduce its rates 15 per cent, on November 1. That will make the fund's rates 25 per cent. lower that those of the casualty insurance companies with which it competes, for the initial rates of the fund were fixed at 10 per cent. less than those of the companies.

Under the Workmen's Compensation tion act, employers who compensation compelled to carry insurance upon their employes. They may carry such insurance themselves, if they employ a large number of men and have sufficient financial responsibility; they may carry it in casualty companies or in mutual companies, or they may carry it in the Insurance Fund, which is conducted by the commission. Since the inauguration of the fund last November the commission has been greatly pleased with its progress and some of the members are inclined to believe in time it will carry a great portion of all the employers' insurance. Edbert S. Montell, superintendent of the fund, believes that the reduction of 15 per cent. in the rates will do much to increase the fund's busiess. The fund has accumulated a reserve of $45,000.

Free Until 1916.

Have you subscribed yet for the Youth's Companion for 1916? Now is the time to do it, if you are not already a subscriber, for you will get all the issue for the remaining weeks of 1915 free from the time your subscription with $2.00 is received.

The fifty-two issues of 1916 will be crowded with good reading for young and old. Reading that is entertaining, but not "wishy-washy." Reading that leaves you, when you lay the paper down, better informed, with keener aspirations, with a broader outlook on life. The Companion is a good paper to tie to if you have a growing family—and for general reading, as Justice Brewer once said, no other is necessary.

If you wish to know more of the brilliant list of contributors, from our ex-Presidents down, who will write for the new volume in 1916, and if you wish to know something of the new stories for 1916, let us send you free the Forecast for 1916.

Every new subscriber who sends $2 00 for 1916 will receive, in addition to this year's free issues, The Companion Home Calendar for 1916.

Rock Hall Items.

On Wednesday night of this week the young men of this town entertained many of their friends at a match stick party. The following were among those present: Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Rodney, Misses Beulah Kendall, Lizzie Kendall, Louise Ashley, Fredia Ashley, Mary Pippin, Mary Jacobs, Alice Kendall, Annie Rodney, Delma Saulsbury, Myrtle Shreck and Messrs. Harry Wagner, Vickers Moffett, Elmer Kendall, Marvin Rodney, Millard Gibson, Milard Sherck, Howard Jones, Edgar Glenn, Hynson Jones, Allen Sewell, Frank Sewell, Melvin Kendall James Cannan, Graham Joiner, Carville Hersch, Maxwell Jacobs, Walter Harris, Dan McCane, Charlie Jones.

The Patrons Club of the Rock Hall High School presented a fine victrola and a choice selection of educational records to the primary department of this school.

Lucky Baldwin and the Chicago Whirlwind wrestled in the Mechanics Hall last Saturday night to quite a nice audience of the sporting class of Rock Hall. The match was pulled off according to regulation rules and was much enjoyed by all who attended.

On the 18th of this month the pupils of the Rock Hall High School will hold an entertainment in the Mechanics' Hall. These pupils have become quite famous in the dramatic line, and if this entertainment measures up with those of the past, it will be very interesting.

George Mowery, of Philadelphia, the young man who put the steel ceiling in the new school, finished up the job last Thursday in great style. A very pretty design was used and adds very much to the already attractive building.

M. T. Miller has another of his famous sales on for the balance of this month.

Mrs. Addie Satterfield had a bad fall in the front of their home on Main street, Saturday evening, injuring her knee very badly.

Joseph Downey, Jr., is working in the Rock Hall Bank in the place of Miss Davis, who fractured her ankle a few days ago.

The Boy Scouts of this town have an order from the National Headquarters of Boy Scouts, in New York, for a large order of fire-making apparatus without matches, to be sold to Scouts throughout the United States. The boys get their material from the nearby woods, where they have their country headquarters. Last August these scouts entertained the members of Troop 66, of Baltimore, in camp at their cabin in the Hunting Field Woods.

Citizens Elect Postmaster.

Levi R. Bowen, junior editor of the Delaware Ledger, will be the next postmaster of Newark, succeeding J. W. Brown, who died suddenly several weeks ago and whose term would have expired next December. Mr. Bowen also will have the distinction of being the only person who was ever elected postmaster in Delaware.

The choice was made at a special election, held on Saturday, by the Democrats of the Newark postoffice district, which takes in some sections of White Clay Creek, Pencader and Mill Creek hundreds. There were three candidates in the field and a spirited contest had been waged for two weeks. The other two candidates were T. Rosehy McMullen and former Representative Andrew L. Fisher. Mr. Bowen received 177 votes, Mr. McMullen, 138, and Mr. Fisher, 98.
