IN THE CHURCHES.

Chestertown M. E Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Nov. 7, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class; 7 to 8 P. M., Epworth League song service and short sermon by the pastor. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening 7.30. All invited.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, November 7, and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.; Sunday school 2.30 P. M.; Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The handsome new Starr Methodist Protestant Church, Baltimore, was opened for worship last Sunday with elaborate services. Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Conference, preached the opening sermon. Many of the oldest ministers of the conference were seated in the pulpit or in the audience. The church, of which Rev. Dr. George M. Haddaway has been pastor for 14 years, is situated in Walbrook. It cost $50,000 and is built of gray Beaver Dam granite and the interior is finished in mission style. The floor is covered with a handsome plush carpet, and the pews are in keeping with the other decorations. The new $10,000 pipe organ was used for the first time. The dedication services will be held to-morrow (Sunday) morning and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College. The church property is one of the costliest and handsomest in the denomination, and Rev. Dr. Haddaway and his people are justly proud of their achievement.

Beginning with next Sunday, Rev. Mr. Clews will preach a series of sermons in the Presbyterian churches of Georgetown, Kennedyville and Worton. These sermons will be highly edifying and extremely instructive, as well as deeply interesting. We are living in an age when all sermons should embrace those qualities as well as be soul satisfying. The series referred to will include all of these features. They are entitled, "The Ages." They all show God's hand in the history of men and of nations. They will also show man's attitude to and his dealings with God. Beginning with the first verse of Genesis, Mr. Clews will take his congregation through the Bible to the last verse of Revelation in the following order: 1, The Age of Innocense; 2, The Age of Conscience; 3, The Age of Anarchy; 4, The Age of the Patriarchs; 5, The Age of Law; 6, The Age of Grace; 7, The Age of Christ's Second Advent; 8, The Age of the Millenium.

Rev. R. A. Davison, of Falls Church, Va., was elected moderator of the Synod [illegible]ltimore in annual session at the [illegible]byterian Church in Washington [illegible] week. Mr. Davison, who has been a member of the synod for 23 years and a minister for half a century, succeeds Rev. Beattie Wylie, of New Castle, retiring. Rev. J. R. Milligan, of St. Georges, was elected permanent clerk. The synod, comprising the Presbyteries of Baltimore, New Castle and Washington, were received by President Wilson on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. E. D. Stone, pastor of the M. P. church at Hampden, has congregations that fill every available space in his large church. He has received 97 members since Conference. His Bible class is so large that it must meet in sections. They could not all get into the house at the same time.

The next session of the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant churches will be held in May, 1916, in Zanesville, Ohio.

Revival services will begin at St. James M. P. Church to-morrow, Sunday. The pastor Rev. H. B. Jester, will be assisted for ten days by Rev. E. L. Bunce, of Marion, Md.

Splendid Rally Day and Harvest Home services were held in St. James M. P. Church last Sunday, a fine program of music and recitations was given and the chancel and pulpit were banked with an abundance of the products of the fields and forest. Six barrels of provisions and vegetables were collected. Three were sent to the W. C. T. U. Kindergarten school in Baltimore, and three to the Aged People's Home in Westminster. The Collection was also large.
