The Proper Course

Information of Priceless Value to Every Chestertown Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Chestertown citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

S. F. Robinson, stationary engineer, Front St., Chestertown, says: "Besides having trouble from my bladder, I also suffered from backache. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and attended with pain. Doan's Kidneys Pills were the best kidney medicine I ever used, giving me great relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Robinson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

LAID 343 EGGS IN 343 DAYS

Pennsylvania Rival to Lady Eglantine Vouched For by Owner.

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 8.—With his pet Minorca hen, Queen Elizabeth, W. S. Geremeyer claims to have beaten the world's egg-laying record recently established by Lady Eglantine at Delaware college. Queen Elizabeth, he asserts, laid 343 eggs in 343 consecutive days. The best Lady Eglantine did is put at 314 eggs in 365 days. Geremeyer and his wife certify to the correctness of this count. Queen Elizabeth is said to have begun laying on November 4, 1914, and stopped on October 13, 1915, laying an egg a day during that time. Two other fowls of the same brood are said to have laid 328 eggs in the same time.

Queen Elizabeth is a small bird of Black Minorca strain with a trace of Rhode Island Red and weighs about four pounds.

If Maryland Will Vote Dry.

If Maryland will close her 2,700 saloons, the people of the State will go a long step toward the millennium.

If Maryland will vote dry, the people of the State will save at least $25,000,000 annually. This sum will go a long way toward making good the deficit in the State's finances.

If Maryland will vote dry, a thousand of her boys will be saved each year from contracting the drink habit.

If Maryland will vote dry, 2700 sources of temptation will be shut up.

If Maryland will vote dry, it will bring comfort and happiness and a decent chance to 25,000 boys and girls.

If Maryland will vote dry, it will mean a clean State, clean politics, and clean manhood.

If Maryland will vote dry, it will mean happy homes, contented wives and healthy children for many thousands now discontented, unhappy and sick.

If Maryland will vote dry, thousands of men who now loaf and are a care upon their families will become self-supporting and respectable.

If Maryland will vote dry, the efficiency of her working men will be increased 50 per cent.

Let's try it.

Two Hundred and Fifty Stories

And every story a good one. They are entertaining, but that is not all you can say about them. You know there is hardly a periodical published that is not full of time-wasting stories, but not a single story in The Youth's Companion is a time waster. Take the stories of C. A. Stephens. It would be hard to pick out one from which you cannot learn something useful and yet entertaining.

Some of the Companion stories refresh your knowledge of geography; some tell you the mysteries of chemistry, some reveal the secrets of forestry and of general farming. They cover a wide range. They are chosen with an eye to the possible likings of every member of a Companion family—stories of vigorous action and stirring adventure for boys, stories of college life and domestic vicissitudes for girls, stories that range all the way from sheer drollery to deep seriousness for men and women. There are no stories quite like those in The Companion.

If you are not familiar with The Companion as it is to-day, let us send you sample copies and the forecast for 1916.

New subscribers who send $2.00 for 1916 will receive free a copy of The Companion Home Calendar for 1916, in addition to all the remaining 1915 issues from the time the subscription is received.

Miss Corn Weds Mr. Cobb.—Miss Margaret Corn was married to Stanley Cobb at the home of the bride's parents, at El Passo, Texas, on Oct. 30th. The marriage license clerk at the court house refused to issue the license, thinking it was a joke. When he convinced the clerk that it was on the level, Cobb shelled out for the lincense.

MARYLAND EDUCATORS TO MEET.

School Commissioners and County Superintendents Meet Next Week.

The Association of Public School Commissioners of Maryland will meet at the Maryland State Normal School, Towson, Md., on Thursday and Friday, November 18th and 19th. The County Superintendents will hold their session at the Hotel Rennert, on Wednesday, November 17th.

The subjects to be discussed by the commissioners will be as follows: "Music in the Public Schools" by M. J. Woodford; "The Future of the Rural Schools," by Isaac L. Price; "A Better System for Providing School Revenues," by Cyrus P. Flook; "The Present Status of Teacher Training in Maryland," by John O. Spencer; "What Shall be the Next Step in School Betterment," by Wm. J. Holloway; "Modern School Buildings," by D. Fletcher B. Doesslar. Discussions will follow.

The New Normal School Building will be dedicated on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. A special program will be rendered.

The superintendents at their meeting will have the following subjects: President's report, by W. H. Dashiel; "Are We Ready to Increase the Minimum Requirements for Teachers?" by Dr. Samuel Garner; "Girls' Home Demonstration Clubs in Rural Communities," by Miss Katherine A. Pritchett; "How Should the Federal Government Aid the States in Providing Means for Vocational Training," by Albert S. Cook; "How Can Night Schools be Utilized to Prepare for Society and to Eradicate Illiteracy?" by Charles J. Koch; "What the County Superintendents Can do to Beautify and Make Sanitary the School Plant," by E. S. Burroughs; "Where Should the Emphasis be Placed in the Plan of Instruction of the New Maryland State Normal School?" by Nicholas Orem. Each topic will be followed by discussion. A luncheon will succeed the literary exercises.

DR. E. C. RIVERS LEFT $170,000.

Former Baltimorean's Estate Inventoried in Denver.

Dr. Edmund C. Rivers, a former Baltimorean, late of Denver, Col., who was drowned in Barr Lake on October 24, left an estate valued at $170,000, according to the petition for the appointment of an administrator filed there on Tuesday by Arthur D. Rivers, a brother.

Of this amount at least $120,000 is personalty, including an insurance policy for $18,000. The realty consists of five lots in the business section of Denver, a small piece of trackage property and a 160-acre farm in Adams county, Colorado. The City Bank and Trust Company was appointed administrator. The heirs are the following brothers and sisters: Arthur D. and Lily L. Rivers, of Baltimore; Wilfred J. Rivers, of Eastover, S. C., and Mrs. Julia M. Tyler, of Fredericksburg, Va.

All roads will lead to Baltimore next week, when the farmers, grangers, and school authorities will occupy the center of the stage.
