THE HUB STORES :: MILLINGTON, MD.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Mrs. Wm. H. Blakeney had the misfortune to fall down stairs at the home of Mr. James W. Lambert the latter part of last week and fractured her collarbone and wrist. Mrs. Blakeney is well advanced in years, which makes the injury all the more painful. She is resting comfortably under the care of Dr. H. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Mamie Dodd is visiting her granddaughter, little Miss Wheatley, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheatley, in Baltimore.

Mrs. S. E. Rollison, one of our oldest lady residents, celebrated her 90th birthday last Friday. Mrs. Rollison is enjoying excellent health, and is remarkable for one of her age. She was the recipient of remembrances and cards from numerous friends who wish for her many more returns of the day.

Miss Marghuerita Dodd has accepted a position as teacher in the public school at Taylor's Island, Dorchester county, and left for the work on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, of Philadelphia, have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Brown, on Queen street during the week.

Mr. Webster Hague has accepted a lucrative position in Philadelphia and will leave the firm of Graham & Thomas, where he has been an efficient salesman, December 1. We regret to lose Mr. Hague from our midst. He is a splendid young gentleman, and a credit to our community. His many friends here wish him success in his new field. He will be connected with the Simmons Hardware Co. Mr. Fay Corey, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Corey, takes Mr. Hague's place.

Miss Christine Lowe, of Baltimore, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles R. Twilley, during the week.

More of the alumni of Washington College were present at the Washington-St. John's foot-ball game on Saturday than usually attend commencement. We were glad to see so many of the boys, and hope they will return for the next commencement.

Mr. W. Russell Wheatley has been transferred from Rome, New York, to Niagara. Mr. Wheatley is engaged as telegraph operator.

Mr. John Collins will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his brother, Mr. Richard H. Collins, in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hodgkins will remove to the Horn house.

Miss Rebecca Davis has been home this week because of sickness.

Mrs. M. L. Tarbutton, of Crumpton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith on High street.

Miss Daisy Barnes, Mrs. Earle Barnes and son, Allen, have returned from a visit to friends in Wilmington and Philadelphia.

Mr. J. B. Burchinel has been quite sick at his home on Kent Circle.

Misses Merle White and Helen Collins have returned from a visit to relatives in Wilmington and Philadelphia.

Mrs. S. E. Beaston has removed from Locust Grove to Chestertown and will reside with Mrs. Garrett Foxwell on Washington avenue.

Mr. Jewell Armstrong is spending the week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Fred S. Russell and daughter, Margaret, spent last week in Baltimore.

Miss Alice Dewberry returned from the hospital in Baltimore where she has been cofined for a month or more. She is much improved in health.

Chestertown High Wins Debate.

Miss Evelyn Russell and Mr. Elmer Tarbutton, representing the graduating class of the Chestertown High School, accompanied by a number of eleventh grade rooters, went to Centreville last Friday evening to engage in debate with representatives of the High School of that town. The question for debate was:

"Resolved, That Hannibal was a greater military leader than Napoleon." Miss Russell and Mr. Tarbutton acquitted themselves with honor and won the debate by a unanimous vote of the judges. They argued the affirmative side of the question. An interesting musical and literary program was also rendered. Following the exercises the visitors were entertained by the Centreville students at the soda water fountain. The contest will be repeated in Chestertown shortly and Misses Jean Stokes and Helen Russell will represent the Chestertown High.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

The wedding of Mr. Leonard Chapman Needles, of Chestertown, to Miss Florence Madella Esterly, of Findley, Ohio, daughter of Mrs. George H. Ways, will take place at Findley on Wednesday, Nov. 24, at the home of the bride. Mr. Needles is a well-known and prosperous young painter of Chestertown, who will go in business for himself in the spring, while the bride is [illegible]ttractive [illegible] lady of Findley, [illegible] their arrival here [illegible] house.

Report of the Auditing Committee OF KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND.

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners for Kent County:

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed January, 1904, we having been appointed auditors for Kent county, beg leave to state we have examined the books, accounts, vouchers and papers of the office of the County Commissioners, Treasurer, Board of School Commissioners and Trustees of Almshouse, and submit the following report as shown in the following exhibits:

EXHIBITS

In order that the succeeding Auditing Committee, as well as the general public, may understand the work done by the auditors, we wish to state that we have compared the assessment books of the county with the tax books of the Treasurer and verified them. We have traced each bill presented, through the books of the County Commissioners, to Treasurer, to the checks returned. We have left in the Commissioners' office a list of orders and certificates which have not been paid.

You will also see the exhibits showing expenditures for 1914-15 made the amount $109,352.72, while the Treasurer's expenditures are $115,415.56. The former is made up of Orders and Certificates for 1914-15, while the latter is made up of Orders of 1914-15 and paid, and Certificates of 1913-14 paid in 1914-15.

In the general Fund, Kent County Savings Bank, there is shown a balance of $4,644.57 and the Millington Bank $347.79, making a total of $4,992.36.

The Board found it necessary to borrow $14,000 (which sum is not yet paid) in order to pay the teachers' salaries and an old indebtedness of $6,000.00; so that instead of an actual balance of $4,992.36 there is an apparent deficit of $9,007.64, but at the end of the fiscal year there was due from the County Commissioners $1,000 and from Queen Anne's, the tuition for Queen Anne's pupils $630, thus making a total still due of $1,630. This amount deducted from $9,007.64 leaves an actual deficit of $7,377.64.

We hereby certify that we have examined the foregoing report of Jefferson L. Smyth, Secretary and Treasurer of Kent County School Board, and vouchers upon which it is based and find it correct.
