LOCAL MATTERS

Engagement Announced.—Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter announces the engagement of her daughter, Nellie, to Mr. A. L. Sterling, formerly with Mr. M. A. Toulson, but now a representatvie of a large wholesale Drug firm in Baltimore. The wedding will take place in the early winter.

Shipping Game by Parcels Post.—As there seems to be some doubt on the part of some people about the law regarding the shipment of game by Parcels Post, we are advised that such shipment is permissable when game is intented as a gift, but not when it is shipped for sale. It may be shipped out of the county or state as a gift, but not otherwise. And it is a great deal cheaper to ship by Parcels Post than by express.

Corn Club Boys Entertained.—Forty Maryland Corn Club Boys, who are winners in county contests for 1915, are being royally entertained in Baltimore yesterday and to-day, by the business men of that city. These boys, representing 300 boys enrolled in the Corn Club Work of the State, are in the city in connection with the Maryland Week Exhibition at the Fifth Regiment Armory. They arrived in company with the County Demonstration Agents, who have supervised their work throughout the year. Headquarters of the boy prize winners during their stay are at the Emerson Hotel, where they are being entertained as guests of the Maryland State Bankers' Association.

The St. Michaels postoffice, Alexander Radcliffe, postmaster, was robbed Monday night and $100 in money and from $3500 to $4000 worth of stamps were stolen. The yeggmen went to the railroad station and secured the motor hand-car on which they made their escape. When they reached Dover bridge going toward Preston they ran the car into the open draw and overboard, and made good their escape.

A slight fire at the home of Mr. Walter T. Pippin on Washington avenue last Monday evening caused considerable excitement but slight damage. A nickel lamp set fire to a hat box which ignited the portieres. Mrs. Pippin's hat, gloves, a pair of shoes, and the portieres were burned. The fire alarm attracted a big crowd, but Mr. Alywn M. Culp, a neighbor, extinguished the blaze with his fire extinguisher before the fire company arrived.

At the close of business Nov. 10th, 1915, the Third National Bank of Chestertown reached the highwater mark in its successful career. It shows total resources amounting to $901,089.58, which places the institution among the the strongest country banks in the State. Its deposits total the splendid sum of $740,0[illegible]17 with a surplus and undivided pr[illegible] amount of $56,642.74. The wise and conservative business methods procured by the bank, together with the courtesy and prompt attention of the bank officials, makes it a safe depository for the wealth of our prosperous county.

With Our Advertisers.

The attention of our readers is called to the fact that the Baltimore firm of Likes, Berwanger & Co. is being dissolved. For many, many years this old reliable firm has catered to the needs of the men of this community, and now their high-grade stock can be had at sacrifice prices. See their announcement in this issue.

Edward M. Morris, the talented young pianist who will be heard in recital at Lyceum Theatre on Monday evening Nov. 22, is truly a prodigy of exceptional ability. Although still in his teens he has a musical career that is worthy of a much older artist. He may well be classed as a real Peabody product. Three years ago he won the grand piano offered as a prize to the best senior piano student of the Conservatory. Two years ago Mr. Morris won the coveted Peabody diploma and his graduating recital created the utmost enthusiasm. He has the enviable distinction of having been selected last season as soloist with two of America's greatest orchestral organizations, the Boston Symphony and the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestras.

No Need to Hunt for the Latest Styles---You'll Find Them Here!

The first few days of this "cold snap" made heavy demads on our stock of Underwear. Nevertheless, the stock is still varied and interesting enough to assure you a satisfactory choice.

"Union Suits," medium or heavy weights, color natural and Balbriggan. Price $1.00 to $2.50.

Anything you want in 2-piece garments, either medium or heavy---39c to $1.50 per garment.

THIS is the time—and this the place to buy the famous Bradley Sweaters. Not exactly a sale, but an introductory event to acquaint you with these splendid knitwear values. We have just received a full assortment of these garments and for this occasion are making a special display for this week.

BRADLEY Sweaters are fashioned throughout of best grade pure dye yarns—doubly reinforced at all points of strain—pockets with non-tearing welt-tops—button-holes that won't fringe or tear. Keep their style, shape and warmth for years. All colors, weights, sizes, designs for everybody—old and young. An early call assures wide range for selection.

Ralston Smiles

We have no patience with a shoe that will not nearly ALWAYS do. The half-and-half sort are a pest—there are no varied grades of "BEST."

When Ralston-shod, you need not fear, that they might strike some folks as "queer." In office, on the links—a stroll—they always seem to make a goal.

You may be dining with a pal—or spooning with some fellow's gal: you may be sitting in a show, or where the stylish gentry go—no matter—RALSTONS are "in place"—the vogue and leading ev'ry race. With proper pride, you look 'em o'er, as friends and strangers have before. You say the while:—"they're pretty fit—there's not a single doubt of it."

A Moral here for Mr. Man, who tries some other sort of plan. Why not a shoe of sterling worth, th' peer of any line on earth. Then—be ye home or ANYWHERE, your shoes need never cause you care.

RALSTON SHOES

Look well for ANY occasion
—at work or at play.
