Unusual Showing of Suits & Coats

Styles of Suits and Coats this season are very pleasing to the customer.

The Fur-Trimmed Garments are much in evidence and all are buttoned high to the neck. This makes the light weight, fine quality Suits, found exclusively at Jefferson's, all the more desirable. It is really a pleasure for us to sell these Suits and Coats made by STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER, Philadelphia, and we know it will be a satisfaction for you to own them. We freely guarantee them in every respect.

Our stock is quite complete now for the rush which this cooler weather will bring on and we invite you to inspect our line before buying elsewhere. Competent judges of material and workmanship tell us that our prices are much more attractive than city prices.

We have some specials that are being sold at much reduced prices. One lot of this season's Black Coats at $5.00 each.

Fine Shoes a Specialty

Why Do We Sell J. & K. Boots?

Because they please more women than any others we can buy.

Women are shrewd buyers—not easily deceived. Why shouldn't we make friends by selling the best—instead of making enemies by carrying inferior goods.

J. & K. Boots are built on principle—and honest principle—and harmonize well with the golden rule idea on which our establishment is conducted.

Courteous, attentive service will be given you. We have a new and better line of CHILDREN'S SHOES.

Fall and Winter Hats

HOSPITAL DEDICATED.

Handsome Building at Easton Opened on Tuesday With Imposing Ceremonies.

The handsome new hospital at Easton was dedicated on Tuesday at 2 o'clock, when prominent physicians and laymen of Maryland made addresses and the building afterwards was thrown open to the inspection of the public.

F. G. Wrighson, president of the board, presided during the ceremony, which was opened with an invocation by Bishop Adams. Addresses were made by Dr. Charles P. Noble, founder of Kensington Hospital, Philadelphia; T. Alan Goldsborough, of Caroline county; J. H. C. Legg, of Queen Annes; Mrs. Elizabeth Scanlon Noble, former superintendent of Kensington Hospital; Dr. A. C. Harrison, of Mercy Hospital, Baltimore; Dr. Joseph C. Bloodgood, of Johns Hopkins, and Dr. Edward R. Trippe, of Easton. The Rev. W. L. White, pastor of Ebenezer M. E. Church, pronounced the benediction.

Dr. and Mrs. Noble, who made addresses at the dedication, are guests at the Bell Cottage, College Hill. The building is a handsome three-story structure built of pressed brick with tan stone trimmings. It is situated on a beautiful lot on the outskirts of the town and will be fitted up with all the latest and most modern appliances. It is entirely complete except the furnishings, and the directors will gladly accept donations of sheeting, pillow cases, table cloths, etc. The building is an ornament to the town and a credit to the enterprise of one of the Eastern Shore's most progressive towns. What a pity that the people of Chestertown won't arise to the necessity of such a building. There is a crying need for such a building here, and it is such a reflection upon the town to see other towns on the Shore accepting this great oppor unity and Chestertown sitting still.

Attention is called to the change of time of service at Kennedyville. From now until spring the service will commence at 2 30 instead of 3 o'clock. The sermons on "The Ages," which Mr. Clews is preaching, are growing in interest and many are the pleasing remarks which he hears. This is very gratifying and a source of inspiration to him. On account of revival services being held in the Union Church, Worton, there was no service in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening.

A large audience attended the Union Thanksgiving services in the M. E. Church on Thursday morning. Rev. Frank S. Cain, pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Kemp Bordley rendered a beautiful violin solo.

Special Thanksgiving services were held in Emmanuel P. E. Church on Thursday morning, Rev. Dr. H. B Martin, officiating.
