The Chestertown Transcript.

VOL. LV—NO. 28. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1915 $1.00 PER ANNUM

To the Public of Kent County and the Patrons of the

THIRD NATIONAL BANK

of Chesterrown, Md.

One of the evidences of the fact that a bank which is solvent and growing, progressive and wide-a-wake to the needs of the people is the fact that it is of good to the community it serves.

The Third National Bank desires to announce that it measures far beyond the highest standard in this respect of any bank in the county and far surpasses its nearest competitor.

In June we paid interest on Savings Deposits.....$10,236.72
In December we paid interest on Savings Deposits..... 11,208.09

Total amount paid our Savings Depositors in 1915....$21,444.81

What better evidence do you wish than this to show that this bank, out of its earnings, has divided among its Savings Depositors such a great sum of money?

We now have in the Savings Department of this bank on which we are paying FOUR PER CENT.. $594,166.70.

We solicit your banking business.

Very respectfully,

The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

LEWIS—HOLLAND.

A marriage of great interest to the younger social set of Salisbury was solemnized on Thursday of last week when Miss Katherine Holland Toadvine, the daughter of Ex-Judge and Mrs. E. Stanley Toadvine became the bride of Thomas H. Lewis, Jr., of Salisbury. The wedding was at high noon and took place at the home of the bride. In accordance with the wishes of the bride, there were no attendants, the wedding being very private, and in addition to the immediate family there were none present but those who attended the wedding of Ex-Judge and Mrs. Toadvine, the parents of the bride which occurred twenty six years ago, Thursday being the anniversary. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, father of the groom, and who is President of the Western Maryland College officiated. They were married in the library, tastefully decorated with [illegible] and white chrysanthemums. The bride was handsomely attired in [illegible] eling gown, with hat and gloves and wore a bouquet of white [illegible]. A reception was held at [illegible] for those present, after which the happy young couple motored to [illegible]phia, and will spend their honeymoon in northern cities. On Wednesday evening Judge and Mrs. Toadvine gave a dinner in honor of the bride. Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. T. H. Lewis of Westminster, former class mates of Miss [illegible] of the Ogontz School, Miss [illegible] Crump, Pittsburg, Pa., Agnes [illegible] Minneapolis, Minn., and Esta [illegible] Syracause, N. Y. The bride, who is one of the most popular young ladies of this city, received many handsome and taseful gifts, comprising art, glass, colonial design furniture and handsome silverware. Upon the return of the young couple from their honeymoon they will reside on Park Ave., Salisbury.

Corn Shellers!
We bring this very necessary implement to your attention again. We have the small Sheller that fastens on a box and separates cobs and corn for $1.50, then a one-hole Sheller at $4.00; and we can supply the largest Sheller made on short notice. We have a specialty in Shellers, and it is our two-hole Roller Bearing Sheller, with cleaner and separator. Has fly wheel for hand use and belt wheel if power is required. Last year we sold 14 of these Shellers. Have them in stock now, and if you are even thinking of having use for a Sheller of this type, come and see it.
Feed Mills!
We have sold so many "NEW HOLLAND" Feed Mills, and have been selling them for so many years, it seem hardly necessary for us to do more than to call your attention to the fact that we carry them in stock. When we say there is no better Mill made, we know it cannot be successfully contradicted. Even our competitors admit it is the best Mill on the market. We have one 6-inch plate as low as $12.00, and then the 6½-inch and 8-inch sizes are here ready for your order.
Yours to serve,
