Worton Grange Notes.

Worton Grange, although not often heard from, is one of the most interesting in the county. It holds its weekly meetings every Monday night, and each one is unusually interesting and inspiring. With a corps of officers hard to beat, this grange is closing out a very pleasant and profitable year. Next Monday night the officers for the coming year will be elected, and a good attendance is particularly desired, and all who have not been attending as regularly as they might had better be on hand to defend himself or he will surely find himself with an office. So lookout. Our Worthy Master B. F. Rash and wife were in attendance at the State Grange in Salisbury this week. It is to be regretted that more of our members could not attend this meeting as it is sure to be very helpful. This Grange is preparing a play entitled, "Mrs. Briggs, of the Poultry Yard," to be given before Xmas. If you want a good laugh don't forget this play as it will give you nearly two hours of constant laughing and make you enjoy your Xmas better. Date later.

POMONA GRANGE.

The Pomona Grange met in the new school building at Kennedyville, Saturday, Nov. 13. Quite a large number from each subordinate grange were in attendance. Massey, we missed you. The morning session was devoted to regular business. After a most bountious noon feast, served by the Kennedyville ladies, the afternoon session opened with the election of officers for 1916. Quite a few had resignation speeches prepared, but none were delivered excepting by Bro. Edgar Pennington. It was beautifully delivered and very pathetic, and was accepted by re-electing Bro. Pennington for his fifth year as Sec. of Pomona Grange. The following officers were elected for 1916: Master, Bro. Wm. G. Smyth; Overseer, Bro. A. L. Beaston; Lecturer, Sister Emma Corey; Chaplain, Bro. B. F. Rash; Secretary, Bro. Edgar Pennington; Treasurer, Bro. J. W. Urie; Steward, Bro. J. Leonard Price; Asst. Steward, Bro. Harry Redmile; Lady Asst. Steward, Mrs. Alta Price; Ceres, Sister Lizzie Smyth; Pomona, Sister Blanch Loller, Flora, Sister Hannah Moore; Gatekeeper, Bro. Holt Woodall; Press Cor., Sister Clara L. Williams.

These grangers will please make an especial effort to be present at the next Pomona meeting which will be held in Worton Hall in Jan'y. As the installation will take place before dinner they will likewise make an extra especial effort to be in time for the morning session.

The Lecturer now took charge of the program and the visitors were admitted. After several discussions Little Miss Mildred Fletcher gave us a recitation. It was much applauded. Her mother gave the encore. Both were thoroughly enjoyed. The male quartette of Kennedyville gave several delightful selections. After a supper equally as enjoying as dinner, Mrs. Acca Crew drilled her team for giving the fifth degree at the State Grange meeting in Salisbury on Dec. 7.

FAIRLEE GRANGE.

Fairlee Grange held a special meeting on November 24th. H. S. Startt read the Garner in his usual inimitable style and a good program rendered. After a sumptuous supper several of the sisters gave a play entitled, "The Burglar Alarm," which was well acted and very much enjoyed by a large number.

On Wednesday, Dec. 1st, the singing school was organized with 30 members present, Mrs. [illegible]an Hudson being our instructor. Any one wishing to join will please see Miss Linda Morris. Singing school will meet on Wednesday evenings at 6.30 and hold one hour before grange.

The following officers were elected for 1916: Worthy Master, M. P. Lee; Overseer, E. J. Watson; Steward, Tilghman Hudson; Lecturer, Emma Corey; Asst. Steward, Wm. Walter Morris; Chaplain, John P. Nicholson; Treasurer, Wm. T. Nicholson; Secretary, Linda Morris, Financial Secretary, Lizzie Smyth; Lady Asst. Steward, Pricie Watson; Ceres, Ida H. Lee; Pomona, Ada Startt; Flora, May S. Francis; Press Correspondent, Acca V. Crew.

STILL POND GRANGE.

The regular meeting of the Still Pond Grange was held in the grange room on Saturday afternoon. The following officers were elected for 1916: Worthy master, Harvey B. Moore; overseer, Leonard Price; steward, Wilmer Ford; lecturer, Lillie D. Kelley; asst. steward, Albert Jervis; chaplain, Sewell S. Hepbron; treasurer, Ella D. Pennington secretary, Arthur L. Harris; lady asst. steward, Harriet Nichols; ceres, Hannah L. Moore; pomona, Alta Price; flora Katie Fogwell; pianist, Evelyn Harris. The next meeting of the grange will be held Saturday, December 11th, at 2.30 P. M. On December 18th the business meeting will be called at three o'clock. At five o'clock a turkey supper with all its trimmings will be given, and to which all members of the grange are invited. After supper the newly elected officers will be installed, followed by the Christmas program.

Kennedyville Items.

Mr. C. E. Cornelius came near having a serious accident when his horse ran away with him one morning last week. It became frightened as he crossed the railroad and ran into a post on the porch of the store occupied by Mr. G. W. Dempsey, but we are glad to note Mr. Cornelius was not hurt in the least. The buggy and harness were damaged very much, but beyond that and the tearing down of the porch post no damage was done.

Quite a number of the members of Kennedyville Grange No. 24, attended the meeting of the Maryland State Grange in Salisbury this week.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet at the parsonage on Friday, Dec. 17th, 7.30 P. M. All are invited to be present.

Mrs. E. T. Othoson is visiting friends in the monumental city.

Dr. and Mrs. James W. Urie and family accompanied by Misses Mary and Anna Wiltbanks, motored to Baltimore on Friday last.

Mrs. Wm. S. Hurlock and daughter, Ada, spent the week-end in Baltimore.

Mrs. John D. McCabe spent a part of the past week in Philadelphia.

Mr. Paul Boggs, who was moved to his home here from Delaware suffering with typhoid fever, we are glad to know is very much improved.

Revival services will begin in the Methodist Protestant Church here on Sunday, Jan. 2.

Mrs. L. A. Pennington and daughter, Dorothy, have returned home after a pleasant visit to her mother, in Harrisonburg, Va.

Mrs. Frank C. Miller returned a few days ago from a pleasant stay with relatives and friends in Frederick county.

Messrs. Chas. Crew, Chas. Nickerson and Harry Meredith spent the week-end at their respective homes.

[illegible]gular services will be held in [illegible]dist Protestant Church on Sunday next. Sunday school 9.30 A. M., preaching 10.30 A. M. Christian [illegible]
