CHICK WEBB CENTER

The Chick Webb sports jamboree featured James Taylor and his "Hurculeon" weightlifters Monday. Included in his troupe were Bob and Buzz plus Stanley Patterson.

They demonstrated weight lifting feats such as the military press, two hand snatch — 180 pounds; one arm snatch — 100 pounds; round arm pull - over— 200 pounds and the squat clean — 225 pounds event.

Also the continental clean and jerk — 280 pounds; bench press — 210 pounds; behind the neck press — 150 pounds; and dead weight lift of 425 pounds.

Among the spectators were: Robert Austin, John Williams, Augustus Coporal, Nelson Buckson, Clarence Atkinson, Ruby Brown, Bernard Low, Arthur Hall, James Harris, Lester Johnson, George Guest, Johnny Williams, Marlene Waters and Eunice Walker.

On March 17 a "Kite Derby" will be held at the (Somerset) playground. Persons interested in the event are asked to contact group leaders for further information.

The Charm Club at Webb held a "Splash Party" Thursday. Among those present were:

Thomasine Boyd, Eddie Gresham, Carl Chapman, Carolyn Thompson, William Howard, Carlton Leverett, Douglass Thompson, Shirley Collen, Sherman Desmond, Jean Collen, Carol Matthews, Marion Grant, George Sutton, Shirley Grant and Theodore Brazen.

Also, Ruth Floyd, Alex Crockett, Theresa Atkinson, Sylvia Bailey, Doris Jones, Mary Gresham, George Benjamin, Barbara Boyd, Elizabeth Brown, Clarence Atkinson, and Aaron Pittman.

Mrs. Annabelle Ruffin is supervisor of the club. T. M. Garrison served as life guard at the party.

CHERRY HILL CENTER

Marion Oaks, father of six boys, won the 1954 Father-Son award recently. The prize was given to the father present with the largest number of sons at the Father - Son banquet. Mr. Oaks received a plaque.

The Modernette Girls' club held a club supper as a part of its regular meeting Monday. The group made plans for a carnival. The Modernettes recently completed crocheted collars for their sweaters.

The Senior Teens and Young Adults of the Cherry Hill community center are now using new regulation size billard tables.

Lessons for beginners are held on Friday 2-3 p.m. Emphasis is placed on position at tables, shooting, follow through in strokes and protection of equipment.

"Que Tips" are given during the regular sessions. The games are governed by rules edited by the Billiard Congress of America.

EASTERWOOD CENTER

Easterwood defeated Cloverdale in a table tennis match 4-1 Friday at Easterwood Park.

George Day, Easterwood Midget champion, defeated Donald Garner of Cloverdale, 21-8, 21-12. Theodore Epps of Easterwood defeated Artlett Cartleet of Cloverdale. Their match went three sets.

Epps won his matches by the scores of 21-13 and 21-11. Cartleet was on top in the 21-11 set.

In the third single, Clinton Fay of Easterwood defeated Ralph Dixon of Cloverdale in straight sets 21-20, 21-17. Easterwood and Cloverdale divided the doubles.

In the first contest, Donald Gardner and Thomas Smith of Cloverdale hung two defeats on their Easterwood opponents, Bernard Taliferro and Patrick Scott. Scores were 21-13 and 21-17.

In the second doubles Steve Foster and Floyd Brown of Easterwood scored a surprise victory over Ralph Dixon and Gardner of Cloverdale. Their winning scores were 21-20, 21-14.

Easterwood won its second table tennis match, downing Gilmor Recreation Center 3-2. The victors were pressed to the limit in every game with the last game deciding the match.

In the singles Robert Jackson of Gilmor defeated Teddy Epps of Easterwood 2-0. Clinton Fay, Easterwood, defeated Richard Jones of Gilmor 2-1.

In the doubles: Stephen Foster and Richard Campbell of Easterwood defeated Lawrence Hopkins. Honkins also defeated Robert Jackson of Gilmor 2-0. Robert Jackson and Richard Jones of Gilmor defeated James McKnight and Bernard Taliferro of Easterwood 2-1.

LEXINGTON CENTER

A "Hard Luck Party" was the theme for the regular monthly co-ed night, at Lexington Thursday. Misses Annette Hill, Alverta Roques, and Richard Roques received prizes for telling the group the most outstanding hard luck story.

The winning team in the "Soup Line Relay" consisted of Alice Carpenter, Delores Oliver, Dolores Jones, Norman Warren, Alvert Roques, Jean Bennett, Annette Hill and Rosalie Lawson.

The team also won over the boys in the "Bread Line Relay." Prizes were awarded to Lee Jackson and Roby Oday in the "Pot of Gold Hunt."

Featured dances conducted were a multilocation dance, the Mexican Shuffle, the bunny hop and square dancing.

EAST BALTIMORE LEAGUE

Surprises and upsets marked the beginning of the last round of league play in the East Baltimore circuit.

The previously undefeated Ramblers had their record and hopes of an unbeaten season shattered by the Bullets.

The Bullet crew turned back the Ramblers 36 to 33.

In the second game of the Intermediate League schedule, Linden Pharmacy, the undefeated of the season, registered its first victory in league play by soldly trounce the All-Stars 32 to 15.

Junior League

In the Junior League four (4) games were played. The games produced an upset by the Explorers who have improved steadily during the season.

The Explorers were still seeking their first victory. And, fortunately for the Scorpions, the Explorers tasted victory by a score of 34-to 33 in a close game.

Two nights later the same Explorers electrified the spectators with a dazzling exhibition while losing a close one to the All-Stars 44 to 42.

In other games the Rockets defeated the All-Stars 42-31 and also defeated the Scorpions two nights later, 51 to 41 to retain their unbeaten record.

Midget Basketball

The final games were played in the Somerset Midget league with the Ravens winning.

The heroes of the evening were the courageous Somerset Sharks.

This midget five lost a double header. The first game went to the champion and undefeated Ravens, 34-37. The next contest was closer with the Shack Shack beating the Sharks for the first time, 32-33.

Whitehurst drops close match to Willie James

By HERB MANGRUM

Bert Whitehurst, Maryland's 189-pound heavyweight boxing champion, placed his ring career on the line against Willie James Thurday at the Coliseum and lost.

In a close bout that found ring officials using the point system of scoring for the first time, the 23-year-old Morgan College grad lost the fight he wanted to win most.

The defeat was the third in the three-year-ring career of Whitehurst. For James, the victory was his second over the loser and his 10th win in 19 starts.

SCORED KO

Last year in Boston James scored a technical knockout over Whitehurst in the third round. The first loss in the losers career was administered by Gene Jones last December.

Although matched on even terms in weight, James had the edge on Whitehurst in height and reach, and used it to good advantage.

The bout was so close that Referee Benny Goldstein scored 96 points for James and 95 for Whitehurst. Judge Jimmy Jones scored 97-94 in favor of James, and Judge Eddie Leonard called a 94-94 draw.

Whitehurst 189

Whitehurst weighed in at 189 pounds and James at 204½ prior to the ten-round go.

Whitehurst won the opening round with a series of sharp blows to the head of his opponent. In the second however James tied his opponent up and followed through with two sharp blows to the head.

Whitehurst jabbed and weaved his way through the next three rounds but at the end of the fourth was visibly shaken by a flurry of short rights.

The loser best exhibited his wares in the sixth and ninth rounds. In the ninth he shook James twice with hard lefts to the head then shifted to a body attack.

Slowed Pace

Although both men slowed their pace considerably in the tenth Whitehurst managed to win that also.

In scoring a victory, James who ranks 15th on the fight circuit moved a step nearer the big time.

Prior to the bout it was the opinion of the loser's handlers, that if Whitehurst lost the fight, his career would suffer serious setback. Just how serious the setback could be no one would say.

Speculation

There was some speculation that if the bottom should fall out of his ring career Whitehurst would turn his attention to medical school.

Preceeding the main event four bouts were presented by Promoter Benny Trotta.

In the opener Paul Kostopoulous won a four-round decision from Jerome Gray. In the second event Tony Cealno scored a first-round knockout over Jimmy Curtis in 1:15.

In the two remaining bouts Welby Wiley in the second round of their scheduled six-rounder.

More than 1,500 fans witnessed the bout and paid a gross gate of $2,500. The fight card was the first in Baltimore in over four months.

'Nailed him first,' Jones tells AFRO

BROOKLYN, N.Y.—"I nailed him before he nailed me," was the way that Ralph (Tiger) Jones summed up his 10th round technical knockout over Bobby Dykes at Eastern Parkway arena, Monday night.

"He started to throw his right hand and I caught him with a short right and that was it," Jones told the AFRO.

Admitting that he wasn't much of a boxer, Jones before he broke his thumb August 26, during a fight with Kid Gavilan believes he has added power now.

Chip Removed

"I had a chip removed from my elbow during the layoff," he revealed, "which permits me to throw a straight right now.

"Before the operation I had to throw looping rights, which them," he said.

"I took my time in order to solve Dykes' style and hoped that he would wear himself out. He tried to make me the starter breathing hard in the fourth round and figured I could catch him before it was over.

"He didn't have much of a punch so I didn't fear getting knocked out. It was merely a question of getting inside of his long arms to get a good shot at him," Tiger remarked.

Early in the bout Jones asserted that he complained to referee Jack Watson about Dykes slapping him with an open glove.

24 boxers battle in Service tourney

Middle Atlantic championships attract 2,500 fans at Ft. Myer

FORT MYER, Va.—The fourth annual Middle Atlantic Inter-Service Athletic Conference boxing tournament got under way here Monday night with 16 bouts before 2,500 fans.

Of the 32 contestants appearing on the first night of the six-night tournament 24 were colored.

Pvt. William Stewart (82nd Airborne, Ft. Bragg) won a TKO over CSSN Albert Redlind, (Amphibious Forces, Little Creek, Va.) in 2:56 of the first round.

Private Stewart, 22, from Charlotte, N.C., is a graduate of Piata Price High school and attended North Carolina A. and T. For two years he was a member of the boxing team.

The third match saw hard-hitting Sgt. Leon Upshur (82nd Airborne) knock out SN Hector Maldando (Amphibious Forces) in 2:40 of the first round with a terrific right hand to the jaw. Sgt. Upshur comes from Willow Grove, Pa., and was the division champ in the Ft. Bragg tournament in 1951 and '52.

Decision

A newcomer to the military flatic field, Pvt. James E. Mc Donan (Ft. Lee) dropped a close decision to Cpl. Ernest Dawson (Cherry Point Marines), although suffering a cut nose to start the third round.

Private McDowan, Memphis, Tenn., is a graduate of the Booker T. High school there, while Corporal Dawson, lives in Pensacola, Fla.

Allen Scores KO

SA Ray Allen (Naval Receiving Station, Washington, D.C.) kayoed Pfc. Donald Davis (Camp Lejeune, N.C.), in 2:50 of the second round with a two-fisted attack that brought the crowd to its feet for the first time.

SA Allen is a native of Washington, D.C., and attended Armstrong High school. He has fought in three Golden Gloves tournaments, 1951, '53, and '54 and the All-Navy tournament in 1953, where he was runner-up in his division. His record is 46 wins, 19 by KO and five setbacks.

Private Davis hails from Wilmington, Calif. and is a graduate of Compton Junior college. He won the lightweight champion ship at Camp Lejeune, N.C. and was runner-up in the Charlotte, N.C. Golden Gloves in 1954.

Cpl. Charles Peeples (Ft. Eustis), after playing a waiting game, dropped a split decision to Pvt. Roland Dalbarro (82nd Airborne). Corporal Peeples, with a record of 19 wins including nine KO's and two defeats, suffered a cut under his left eye from the peppering jab of his left-handed foe. His home is in Jacksonville, Fla.

Suffers Cut

Camp Lejeune's Pfc. Randolph Horne and Pvt. Johnny Fears, of Ft. McNair, D.C., fought a bloody battle for three rounds with a split decision going to Horne, former D.C. Golden Gloves welterweight champ.

Both boys drew blood, Fears suffering a cut in the mouth in the initial round and Horne receiving a bloody nose in the second round. Fears hails from Marion, Ind. and has fought in several tournaments including the Chicago Golden Gloves in 1948, '49 and '50. He also was in the 1950 Olympic tryouts.

Cpl. Leonard Thomas (82nd Airborne) won a split decision from SN George Bauer (Amphibious) in what was another of the night's thrillers. Cpl. Thomas is from Newark, N.J. and won the Newark Golden Gloves title in 1950. He has been fighting four years and has a record of 12 wins against four losses.

Loses In 40 Seconds

Pfc. Eugene Fagson (Cherry Point Marines) ran into a devastating left hook thrown by his opponent, SN Warren Peterson, last year's D.C. Golden Gloves titleholder, now stationed at Washington's Naval Receiving Station, and was counted out in 40 seconds of the first round.

Fayson, although only 17 years old, won the 1943 Golden Gloves title in Gary, Ind. and the 1944 Golden Gloves title in Jacksonville, Fla.

Cpl. Joseph Davis (Camp Lejeune) stopped Cpl. Robert Miles (Camp Pickett) in 2:40 of the second round.

Pvt. Davis, 19, won this tournament title last year, and captured the Atlantic Fleet title and the 1953 Northern Ohio Golden Gloves No. 1 spot. In 1952 he was runner-up in both the New York Golden Gloves and Metropolitan AAU. Just week he had won a tournament in the Eastern Golden Gloves tournament in Madison Square Garden.

Shows Good Jab

GMI Frank Buckman (Amphibious) demonstrated a cork-ing jab to outpoint scrappy Pvt Jess Moss (Ft. Eustis). GMI Buckman, a welterweight, boasts a record of 74 wins in 81 bouts including 28 knockouts. He lives at 212 Raleigh rd., Rocky Mount, N.C.

Private Moss came in with a record of 24 wins against five defeats and has been fighting since 1947 when he took part in the Pennsylvania AAU tournament and the Police AA.

Pfc. Richard Hill (Camp Lejeune) outpointed Jesse Davenport (Ft. Lee) in a battle of left jabs. Pfc. Hill came in with 71 wins against six setbacks. He is a native of Brooklyn, N.Y. and a frequent winner at Delaware State college.

The six-foot, 165-pounder, last week won the Eastern Golden Gloves lightweight finals. In 1950 Hill was Metropolitan AAU champion of NYC, while in '51 he was runner-up in the N.Y. Golden Gloves. Coming back strong in '52, Pfc. Hill regained his title and this year won the North Carolina Golden Gloves title—COVINGTON.

Jones stops Dykes in tenth

BROOKLYN — In a rip roaring scrap at Eastern Parkway arena, Ralph (Tiger) Jones, in a display of sharp punching, stopped Bobby Dykes in 2:12 of the tenth round, Monday night.

Jones, who has been out of action since Aug. 26 when he broke his thumb during a bout with Kid Gavilan, was taking a shellacking at the hands of Dykes from the third through the seventh round.

Club golf pro to give demonstration at Y

Andy Gibson, Maryland Country Club golf pro, will give a demonstration on the fundamentals of golf Monday at 8:15 p.m. at the Druid Hill YMCA. The public is invited to attend the demonstration.
