hy Do We Sell J. & K. Boots?

Because they please more women than any others we can buy.

Women are shrewd buyers—not easily deceived. Why shouldn't we make friends by selling the best—instead of making enemies by carrying inferior goods.

J. & K. Boots are built on principle—and honest principle—and harmonize well with the golden rule idea on which our establishment is conducted.

Courteous, attentive service will be given you. We have a new and better line of CHILDREN'S SHOES.

Fall and Winter Hats

The Kent County Pomona Grange held of Quarterly, p on in the assembly
Smith, of Fairlee, Master of Pomona Grange, presided, and all business was speedily transacted which occupied the attention of all during the morning session. At 12 o'clock noon an invitation was extended to all to come up in the hall of Mr. Joseph H. Weer, where they found spread in an appetizing way those things for which Kent county is famous. The Grange was called to order again at 2 P. M., when election of officers were held and necessary committees appointed, after which the doors were thrown open and friends invited to attend the lecture hour, which was a delightful occasion and much enjoyed by all, at the close of which supper was served to all. At 7.30 the Grange was opened again and quite a number were initiated in the fifth degree. Thus ended a delightful day with nothing to mar the pleasure of anyone who attended.

An agreement was reached one day last week between the school building committee and the contractor, whereby the building was handed over, and now just as soon as the commissioners have the toilets and water put in the building it will be ready for permanent occupancy.

Miss Nellie Othoson spent a few days with relatives at Middletown, Del.

, Rash, of Worton, with Revs. H. B. ester, of Hanesville, and E. L. Bu , of Marion Station, Md., were callers at the M. P. parsonage on Friday last.

Mrs. James Cain was called to Centreville on Saturday last on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Minner.

At the recent Boy's Corn Contest, held at the Centreville Fair last week, Arthur Potts, son of Mr. Bud Potts, of Rich Neck, Queen Annes, won second prize for the county, his yield for the acre being 100 bushels and 56 lbs. Young Potts had the best yield of any grower in Rich Neck, and besides having the honor to represent his county at the Baltimore show, he was awarded a fine Guernsey bull calf by Miss Sue Williams, of Queenstown. Queen Annes county is represented by six boys at Maryland Week, while Kent county hasn't a boy representative. What a reflection upon Kent county?

Owing to the heavy wind on Monday afternoon the Tolchester boat was unable to land at Tolchester, and passengers were landed at Betterton.
