Morgan tracksters end indoor season

BALTIMORE — Morgan State College thinclads close out the current indoor season Saturday, competing in the N. Y. Knights of Columbus Meet at New York's Madison Square Garden.

In the final event of the New York race, Morgan's mile relay quartet will be pitted against three of the fastest teams in the East—Colgate, Manhattan, and Princeton.

Herman Wade, of Pittsburgh, Pa., Otis Johnson of Philadelphia, Pa., Jimmy Rogers of British Guiana, S.A., and Josh Culbreath of Norristown, Pa., will run for Morgan.

They've been clocked at 3:18.2 twice this year—for the best indoor time a Morgan mile relay group has ever done.

Ken Kave, Washington, D.C., sophomore, who beat our Harrison Dillard in the 60-yard dash March 6 in the N.Y. Pioneer Club Meet, and Ed Waters, Baltimore, Md., sophomore, are entered in the' invitational 60-yard dash.

Dennis To Jump

George Dennis, the Atlantic City freshman who copped the South Atlantic Association's high jump title here recently, will compete in this event. The meet will mark Dennis' debut for Morgan off home territory and his date.

After taking the South Atlantic high jump title, setting a new 6 ft. 6¾ in. record, Dennis tied with Vic Fritts of North Carolina in the high jump here March 5 in the 175th Regiment-South Atlantic Association Track and Field Championships. Both cleared 6 ft. 4 in.

Coach Eddie Hurt will accompany the team when it leaves here Saturday morning.

Pirates sign Cardozo grad

Bob Long latest to crash o.b.

FT. PIERCE, Fla.—Washington's (D.C.) Cardozo High school has contributed another player to organized baseball, it was learned this week.

Robert (Bob) Long, a pitcher on the 1949-51 Clerk nines, has been signed to a farm contract by the Pittsburgh Pirates. He will report to the Brunswick (Ga.) club on March 3.

Long, 21 years old, is a 6-foot-2 righthander weighing 200 pounds.

He was a teammate at Cardozo of Maurice (Sonny) Willis, now a member of the St. Paul Saints, of the Brooklyn Dodger organization—LACY.

Harold Johnson defeats Andrews

CHICAGO — Harold Johnson, the leading contender for the light heavyweight crown, whipped Paul Andrews the hard way in a 10-round bout here Wednesday night.

Johnson walked into a right hand thrown by Andrews to get floored for the nine-count in the first round.

In the fourth round, the 24-year-old Andrews had the slim crowd of 940 howling for blood when he tagged the touted Johnson flush on the jaw.

Johnson Hangs On

All of the ring cunning at Johnson's command was utilized in the fifth to keep him from being belted with Andrews' sneaky right hand.

Gaining composure as the fight wore on, Johnson came into his own in the 10th round to smash Andrews with combination shots.

The 10th round rally saved the fight for Johnson.

At that Judge Franklin McAdams saw it a 92-93 draw, while Judge Johnson Bray called it 94 to 90, and referee Frank Gilmer 94-90, in favor of Johnson.

Johnson weighed 176 and Andrews, who lost the third time out of 26 starts, scaled 179.

Johnson defeated Ezzard Charles in 1952 and Nino Valdes in 1952. He is angling for a summer bout with Archie Moore for the light heavyweight title.

SPRING IN SIGHT — A sure sign of warmer weather is the appearance of "Billy Bock" announcing that National Bohemian bock beer is now available. Welcoming Billy (Johnny Gumarek) on a visit to the AFRO building is James D. Williams of the city department. Accompanying Gumarek are company sales representative.

National bock returns to town

The calender says that spring is right around the corner but bock beer is already here.

by the National Brewing Co.

The annual debut of the dark brew was announced this week which sent "Billy Bock" riding through town in a shining convertible to announce the event.

The sight of Billy (really an enterprising young man dressed in a goat's costume) brought cheer to the hearts of Baltimoreans who know that every spring they can enjoy the unique taste to be found in National's bock beer.

Started In Germany

Bock beer is thought to have originated in the German city of Einbeck whose name is confused with "ein Bock" a goat, hence the idea of using a goat to announce that the brew is available.

Bock is brewed in the winter for consumption in the spring. It is a heavier beer, similar in color to the Munich type, with a slightly sweet malt flavor and a more pronounced hop taste than regular pale beer.

Whatever the technical explanation for bock beer, one thing is certain, spring and National Bock go hand in hand.

Ignore Contract Clause

Although a city commissioner had it pointed out to him that there was a no - segregation clause in the new ten-year lease the Washington club had signed for use of the park, "we decided to ignore that kind of clause on advise of counsel."

He went on to say that dissatisfaction with the presence of the Cubans in the training camp had been "simmering for a few days" among the city's white residents.

Winter Park, a town of 5,000, has 2,000 colored citizens, most of them orange pickers, according to Chief Mann.

Dodgers send D.C. youth to Triple-A farm club

VERO BEACH, Fla. — Former Washington high school pitcher Maurice (Sonny) Willis has been assigned to St. Paul, of the American Association.

Announcement of the promotion of the ex-Cardozo High school righthander was made Monday night by Brooklyn vice-president, Fresco Thompson.

Thompson is director of the Dodgers farm system. He disclosed that Willis had been ordered to report to St. Paul manager Clay Bryant immediately.

Cardozo Grad

He played the 1951-52 seasons at Hormel, N.Y., and went to Pueblo, and later Miami, for the last year's campaign. He finished 1953 with a .287 average as a shortstop-second baseman.

If as a golfer you feel that you must swing out from the top of your backswing, you are in all probability a slicer.
The only way to acquire that perpendicular arc which will enable you to hit the ball with a slight inside-out clubhead action, is to get that feeling of pulling your hands down.
Players who are bent and loose in their approach kill their chances for a good swing before they start. You will avoid the necessity of straightening out your arms later in the stroke with the chance of pushing your clubhead out of line.
Swing Your Partner
Your swing is so disappointed broken-up affair. A good golf swing is like swinging your partner in a square dance.
Marguerite Brown and Phillip Brown are planning to become regular golfers. Dallas Smith and his brother are seeking membership in the Monumental Golf Club.

Art Kay gets tryout at Detroit camp

WASHINGTON

Arthur Kay headed for Detroit Tigers training camp, this week, along with Henry Gaskins.

Fast balling Kay, a stocky right-handed pitcher who played with Armstrong High in 1952-53 will report April 2, to the Detroit Tigers in Lakeland, Fla. Gaskins, a shortstop, will report also.

A two - time all - high selection, Kay pitched American Legion ball for the James E. Walker Post No. 26, followed by a one year stint with the Washington Royals.

20-3 Record

Kay boasts a 20-3 record with the Legion team plus a 10-1 record coupled with a 6-1 record at Armstrong, last year. Included in these victories are six no hit games over a period of two years. A fairly good batter, Kay should make the grade in a short period of time.

Kay's best pitch is his fast ball. He has excellent curve and a change of pace.

Gaskins, a shortstop with a strong arm, boasted a .464 batting average led the Walker Post No. 26 team to the District Championship and runnerup spot in the regional playoff at Parkersburg, W. Va.
