Social program slows down; promise of top times ahead

with Lula Jones Garrett

Looking forward to this week end:

Epsilon Omega chapter of AKA will present the most important in this season's series of concerts on Sunday, when the Gershwin Concert Orchestra, complete with 30 musicians and four vocal soloists appears at Polytechnic Auditorium.

Mabel Frisby is the moving spirit behind the concert series, which has provided scholarships for so many Baltimore high school graduates.

Howard University alumni will learn here that their Friday session (hosted by the pharmacists group) will be held in the home of the Harold Hagans, 1705 Edmondson ave., Friday night. President Mary Frazier said you'd be looking! Mr. Hagan and Rebecca Davis will be host and hostess.

Phi Beta Sigmas wrapped up arrangements for their spring prom, which will be held in Morgan college refectory on the ninth.

Iota chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu sorority has scheduled a dance in Odd Fellows Hall for April 19. The same evening Alpha Phi Alpha men will be holding forth in the Famous Ball Room on Charles street.

On the 25th, The Baltimore Club of the National Association of Business and Professional Women's Clubs will pour cocktails at Club Tijuana.

In celebration of the National Iota Phi Lambda Business Week, Kappa chapter is sponsoring a career clinic at the Enoch Pratt Library Auditorium, Pennsylvania and North aves., on Saturday, April 10, from 3 to 5 p.m.

The topic for discussion is, "From School to Job." Guest panelists who will participate on the program are Melvin Roy, counselor of the Maryland State Employment Security, S. Edward Smith, personnel manager of the AFRO - AMERICAN Newspapers, and Miss Jessie Colston, instructor at Morgan State college.

Students from local high schools have been invited to attend this career clinic.

MISS JOHNSON BRIDE

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Martha Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley Johnson, of 2072 Walbrook ave., to George Brooke Barrick of Rosemont, Pa., took place on Saturday, at 5:30 p.m.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride by Dr. I. Logan Kearse, pastor of Ebenezer Baptist church, of this city.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white net detailed with an overskirt of a Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of net was held by a rhinestone covered crown. She carried a Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Nancy Levi, maid of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of Nile green with a hat of matching color and carried an old - fashioned bouquet of pink carnations and roses. Edward H. Barrick Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a print dress of blue silk and the bridegroom's mother selected beige lace. Both wore corsages of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrick are instructors of art and English, respectively, at the Harvey Johnson Junior high school, here.

Mrs. Barrick is a graduate of Morgan State college and is completing graduate courses in the teaching of English at Columbia university. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

Mr. Barrick is an accomplished artist having received his B.F.A. and B.S. degrees from The Tyler School of Art of Temple university.

Before coming to Baltimore in September, he taught art in the high schools of Montgomery county, Maryland. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Barrick sr. of Rosemont, Pa.

The ceremony was attended by members of the respective families and a few friends. Out-of-town guests, in addition to the parents and best men, were relatives of the bridegroom.

From Philadelphia came Mrs. Edward H. Barrick Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. James O. Hayes, sister and brother-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Barrick, brother and sister-in-law; from Rosemont, Pa., were Mrs. Jesse Walker, sister; and her son, Louis; and Miss Janice B. Barrick, sister.

Reception for the newlyweds is set for Sunday at the Me-De-So club at 4:30 p.m. The couple will reside at 1812 E. Chase st. before entering their newly acquired home at 3321 Gwynns Falls Parkway.

PALS PARTY

One of the cutest parties of the week was the Pals' "mystery" affair.

The invitations were mysterious documents which had to be deciphered to learn the time (Friday night) and place the swank club room of the Bernard Stokeses of Auchentoroly Terrace) and then led to a set of mysterious games as entertainment.

The only thing that there was no mystery about were the flow of cocktails, the laden buffet for supper.

The girls who gave the party, and their husbands are: Frances and Vernell Lockwood (she's the president); Annie and Calvin Thompson, Martha and Milton Allen, Jeanette and James Blount, Margret and William Land;

Beatrice and John Myers, Cordelia and Odis O'ver, Alma and Donald Parker, Ruby and Raymond Taylor, Ruth and Leonard Wilmore, Esther and Joseph Viles and Helen and James Thomas.

Their guests included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Aaron Ellis, Wayman Holly, William Murphys, George Browns, Robert Watts, Robert Paynes, Powell Sheffeys, Reginald Daniels, Vanoris Williams, James Mitchell; and Catherine Parker, Katherine MacDonald and Clarence Gross.

MATERS' FORUM

On last Thursday night The Maters were hostesses at a forum on "Understanding Your Child," presented as a community service in the downstairs auditorium of Grace Memorial Baptist church.

A large crowd was out to enjoy a coffee sip preceding the program, then the program itself. Mary Carter quoted the passage on children from Gibran's "The Prophet." Audrey Cyrus a Peabody student provided the musical background. The president Frances Graham, proved a charming as well as chic moderator.

"The Physical Development of Your Child" was the topic chosen by the pediatrician, Dr. George P. Brown, assisted by his wife, Eloise, who showed slides accompanying the talk.

WEESE SHOP HIGHLIGHT — Miss Lucille Kane, a Carson Model, is wearing one of the high fashion side drape suits in pacific wool crepe fabric in white, black and aqua. The sizes are from 10 to 20 at the Weese Shop, 3121 W. North ave. in the Walbrook section center.

Weese Shop invites browsing

The Weese Shop "the friendly store" located at 3121 W. North ave., where the policy is courtesy and service.

You're always welcome to browse around in a friendly atmosphere at the Weese Shop.

Paying for your purchases at the Weese Shop can be a matter of ease for you can lay your selections away or use the convenient charge accounts.

Problems Worked Out

Stop at the Weese Shop and discuss your clothing problems with Miss Mildred and Mr. Jerome.

The fashions at Weese are those you will see in all the national and leading magazines and priced the same.

A host of persons were amazed and held spellbound by the fashions from the Weese Shop recently at the Carson Models fashion show at the Club Tijuana.

See clothes that make you beautiful at the Weese Shop, your patronage is earnestly solicited and appreciated.

Slim toe featured in series of pumps

The slim toe is used in a series of leather pumps on high slender heels. It is also shown on a closed toe with halter sling back, as well as mule type vamps.

The open toe with the pointed sole and the wide open look will also be seen in a series of banded and strapping sandals and flats.

Shiny Surfaces

Shiny surfaces will play an extremely important role. In addition to the traditional black patent leather, you'll see bronze and gunmetal in calfskin and kid leathers, and iridescent pastel kidskins as trims for daytime and all-over for evening wear.

You'll see the new tropical lightweight leathers in many soft-construction flats. One we liked was a navy calf pump trimmed along the outside shank in pearl buttons. Another in beige calf leather, had matching lacing around the throat.

Brook's fashion salon topnotch

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bernard Brooks after working in various retail outlets throughout the city, decided to open a dress shop of their own to be known as the Pauline Brooks Fashion Salon.

In November, 1952 they opened their shop at 2112 W. North ave.

The response to their effort was exceedingly gratifying, and they soon felt the need of more space, so they moved to larger quarters at 2126 W. North ave., where they are presently located.

Complete Line

Here they carry a complete line of ladies' sportswear, playclothes, all type dresses, suits and coats in juniors, from 7 to 17; misses, from 8 to 20 and women's from 16½ to 26½.

Pauline Brooks Fashion Salon does specialty buying and Mrs. Brooks has the knack of knowing her customers and what they like to wear.

Mr. Brooks is in charge of the credit and advertising. They now have in their employ a combination saleslady and model, Miss Mae Leonard, a Carson model, Mrs. Helena Edmonds and Mrs. Melinee Verrell who have recently been employed as part-time sales representatives.

Club Of Models

To make the stay of the models more enjoyable, Mrs. Brooks has organized them as a club where they have meetings with plenty of fun, discussions, modeling exercises and social activities.

The models are Misses Mae Leonard, and Joan Simmons, Carson models; Mesdames Marie Hawkins, Marie Bowen, LaRhetta Maith, Marguerite Foster, Ruth Bailey and M. Frances Mackay.

Pauline Brooks invites your charge account and asks that you stop in and see their "simply elegant fashions."

Exciting fads at Rosenthal's

Exciting Easter fashions for milady in coats, suits, dresses and accessories are available at Rosenthals, Eutaw and Saratoga sts.

These include handsomely styled toppers and coats in overplaids, suedes and fleeces. They are highlighted by back beauty emphasis, sleeve charmers and jewel treatments.

Available favorites are navy, pink, blue and beige in sizes from 10 to 44.

Air Of Luxury

Our dressmaker detailed suits have the touch of a master craftsman. Highlighted by a jewel pin, unusual collars and of precious fabrics, they bespeak an air of luxury.

In navy and colors, they are available in sizes 1 to 52.

Low price but high fashion mark, our wide selection of dresses to suit the feminine taste of all age - groups. Our hats, purses and blouses are all in the dress - up - for - Easter mood.

Dobbies gaining

Still another texture interest that is growing by leaps and bounds are the dobbies—small woven-in design motifs.

Dad's shirts with those jacquard squares and diamonds in the same white of the shirts, are dobby effects.

In women's dress fabrics, the pattern takes a more elaborate turn sometimes reaching the size of a small polka dot.

These are especially popular, of course, for the host of man-tailored shirts and shirt dresses which are sweeping the country with their popularity because of their practicality.

Lotion provides 'feel' of spring

Down through the ages poets have perpetrated the idea that "in the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

Girls all hopefully believe this can be relied upon and maybe 'tis so that their true love will find them.

However, she of the practical mind realizes that a girl can do much to catch a young man's fancy and none is more important than the way she takes care of her grooming.

Every Woman's Duty

Of course, it's admitted that a fine character will shine through even a dowdy appearance, but it is every woman's duty to make herself as attractive as possible for her own sake and for the enjoyment of others to see.

We all know that spring is the time for refurbishing our homes and our wardrobes to be ready to greet the new world that Mother Nature provides for us each year.

The time comes when we must move spindly plants and ourselves outdoors. But what about refurbishing our own bodies and complexions?

Skin Needs Help

After months of confining indoor life in an atmosphere of dry heat, the skin has taken on a sallow and scaly look. The skin—like drooping house-plants—needs rehydration and toning.

Even though its later than you think, cause spring is already here—there is still time to attend to that hot-house skin of yours.

Relubricating the skin need not mean going to bed loaded with "bear's grease masks. Instead, you can use a new type cream-lotion on your face, hands and body morning and evening and let it work its magic without feeling and looking all greased up."

This specialized lotion really does a superb job of rehydrating and remoisturizing the skin simultaneously.

It contains all the best ingredients of the lanolin - enriched creams, but the secret ingredient is a process of homogenization of the very "heart" of lanolin.

Shorter skirts

The coming of the shorter skirt has also had its effect on footwear fashions. First because it focusses more attention on the feet and second, it brings about a need for more patterns with higher rising vamp interests.

This has been accomplished in many silhouettes. In shoes with the open look for afternoon and evening, we've seen many intriguing variations on this theme.

One, in stitched coral suede leather, forms a tapered leaf design in assymetric vamp bands on a sandal with a sling back and slim stiletto heel.

Shower, festival, on Husketh Music Guild agenda

The Lovey E. Husketh Music Guild, meeting this week, completed the program for the year's activities.

To be offered during the remainder of the season are a music shower in April, a musical festival in May, and a roof garden social.

Shower Scheduled

The April Music Shower will present 40 children in a pageant on April 30, at 8:15 p.m. "Miss Music" will also be crowned by the junior branch of the Guild.

The committee in charge of this activity includes Mesdames Celia McLeod, Henrietta Holliman; and Miss Marie Franklin.

Musical Festival

The festival, on May 17, at 8 p.m. will feature Miss Lillie B. Sturgis, soprano; and Miss Marie Franklin, dramatic soprano. Mrs. Martina Castor and Mrs. Myrtle Spencer compose the committee in charge.

Cochairman of the roof garden social are Mesdames Mary Gibbs and Alvena Davis. Holliman Studio orchestra will provide the music.

At Knox Center

Each of these affairs will be held in the Knox Presbyterian Center. Season tickets at $2.50 and general admission tickets at $1 are available.

In addition to the above "Stars of Tomorrow," featuring Ruth R. McIntosh, soprano, will be presented on Sunday, April 11 at 4 p.m. at Sears Community Hall, North and Hartford Avenue.

Mrs. Martina Castor and Mrs. Emma Poulson are the sponsors.

Beauticians set for trade show, conference, April 18

The Master Beauticians Association has completed final plans for the 20th annual trade show and conference, April 18-20 at the Monumental Elks home, 1528 Mounment ave.

Some 26 display and service booths have been sold to manufacturers from New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore.

Noted hair stylists will show the new hair cuts for the season. Guest artists will be James Landeros and Fred Redmond, both of NYC.

Student Competition

Beauticians are sending in applications for the institute which will be conducted by national stylists.

Ten beauty schools from Washington, Baltimore and the counties of Maryland will compete in contests on Tuesday, April 20, which is set aside as students' day.

Special Service

Beauticians throughout Maryland and the eastern states will worship at Bethel AME church, Sunday, April 18 at 11 a.m. with Mrs. Cordelia Green Johnson, national president, and other officers of the National Beauty Culturists League in attendance.

The beauticians of Baltimore and vicinity are asked to be present at this special service.

Free hairdos, facials and many beauty products will be given away throughout the show.

Miss Mayme Tilghman, president of the Master Beauticians, is general chairman of the show with Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, chairman of publicity, and Mrs. Mary Francis, chairman of hair styles and fashions.

The classes will be in charge of Mrs. Rose Cook, National Beauty Culturists League supervisor of education. Miss Rose Davis, who represents the Master Beautician's educational department, is co-chairman.

CHAUFFERETTS — The savings club was entertained by Mrs. Nellie J. Paul of 1363 N. Calhoun street.

Plans were completed for a bus trip to Hershey Park, Pa. on June 20.

The next meeting will be with Georgia D. Clark of 1108 Riggs avenue. Mrs. Paul is president of the club and Miss Thelma Lee is editor.

Gage Clothes style setter for smartly dressed men

With the new spring and summer seasons just around the corner, GAGE CLOTHES enthusiastically presents, as they have done each season in the past, their PREVIEW of the latest in mens fashions.

A new "first" in Gage wear is the sensationally new fluid tailored "KEY LARGO" model that is currently featured in Esquire—

See its new open vent idea—its long Gussett back—and the entirely new lapel, front, and chest arangement—it's a GAGE CLOTHES revolutionary smash.

For Smooth Dressers

Look at the Gage Clothes Duke model—designed for the smooth, casual dresser. The most relaxed looking flap pocket style ever created. It's one and two-button styles fall into easy lines that are truly hard to beat.

For the neat, semi-conservative man see the Gage Executive and Shelby. Charcoal greys, charcoal browns, and a dramatic assortment of patterns, tones and colors tend to make you one of the neatest dressed men in town.

For The Little Feller

Another "first." GAGE CLOTHES has created a Style Lane for the "little feller."

Youth sizes that are shaped like his big brother's. The Brent and Como models especially give him the easy link one-button cut that can be substituted for a sport coat.

"U" shape it—the new shirt wired so it can bend, twist, turn and shape into whatever shape you want.

See it now at GAGE—match it to your sport coat and slacks, make it round out your complete wardrobe.

See the greatest array of late style men's wear at Gage Clothes (winner of the Clothing Industry's Award for Suggestive Styling and the Merit Award for Design) — Baltimore's Style Setter, 5 N. Liberty st.

Clubs

ROMANIA — Mrs. Florence Douglas of 1717 N. Calhoun street was hostess to the club on Monday evening.

Plans were completed for a supper party on the ninth, at 333 Pressman street.

Prizes at pokena went to Mrs. Carrie Hinton, first; Mrs. Pauline Palmer, second; and Miss Mary F. Ransom, third.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Alice Hall, 1813 W. Franklin street.

VELVETEEN — A meeting of the club was held at 1424 Fulton avenue, this week.

Attending were Mesdames Margaret Franklin, Delores Hill, Sarah Holland and Arlethea Young.

DAPPER — The charity club will have a bingo party at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Hall, 2311 Rosedale street on April 10.

The children's ward of Crownsville State hospital will be beneficiaries.
