Gunther's elects new board chairman

The board of directors of the Gunther Brewing Company has announced that Abraham Kreiger, president, has been elected chairman of the board.

LeRoy S. Cohen, vice - president in charge of sales and advertising has been elected his successor as president.

Steady Growth

Mr. Krieger's long service as Gunther president since 1931 has been marked by steady growth and development of the company, the board reported.

Production, merchandising and distribution facilities have undergone complete changes resulting in an annual sales volume of more than 20 times that of post - prohibition days.

Mr. Cohen's hobby makes him one of the youngest presidents of a major concern in the country.

Having joined Gunther in 1946, Mr. Cohen shortly thereafter was elected assistant treasurer, and in 1947, secretary of the corporation. He held his vice - presidency position since January, 1948.

Irvin Shows Form In Indians' Series

Giants down Tribe 2-1, in Birmingham

By SAM LACY (AFRO Sports Editor)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Spectacular defensive plays by Monte Irvin, Al Dark and Harvey Gentry enabled the New York Giants to protect a slim lead and eventually win by a 2-1 score over the Cleveland Indians here Wednesday.

It was the first win for Durocher and co., since the two teams left Texas en route home. The tribe had captured the first two games of the week, 10-8 and 10-5.

Irvin and Dark contributed their gems to choke off a Cleveland threat in the seventh and Gentry was the man of the hour to stall an Alien bid in the eighth.

Two walks and a double by Dave Pope filled the bases with one down in the Tribe seventh. Pinch hitter Hank Makeskie then lifted a long fly to left, but Irvin's throw to the plate was so deadly that Rudy Regalado made no move to move from third.

Irvin's Throw Deadly

On the next play, Dark charged over to make a diving stab of Jim Hegan's drive over second. Then, while flat on the ground, he tossed to Williams for the force on Wally Westlake.

Gentry's contribution was a leaping catch off the right field wall of a prodigious clout by Rocky Nelson with two on and one away in the eighth.

Tribe's Lone Tally In Ninth

So unexpected was the catch that Bob Kennedy was an easy double'ay victim at first.

The tribe scored finally in the ninth.

Pope, getting his second of two hits after replacing Lasky in center, scored on Hegan's one-baser through the middle.

The Giants tallied in the fourth.

Alvin Dark opened the inning with a single to the right corner. He was safe on a steal of second when he kicked the ball from the hand of Sam Dente and raced to third while the tribe shortstop was retrieving the ball.

Hank Thompson's drive off the first-base Sack sent Dark across.

They added another marker in the eighth. Irvin getting the RBI. Pitcher Johnny Antonell singled, Dave Williams doubled and Thompson Drew his second successive walk to fill the bases. Monte then scored Antonelli with a sacrifice fly to left.

A little bit of everything was crowded into the Tuesday affair at New Orleans.

A free-hitting, loosely played contest, it was featured by a double steal by Doby and Al Smith, the latter on the scoring end; four hits in five at bats for the resurging Easter, and three for five by Doby.

Ruben Gomez, on the hill for the Giants, lost his second straight start to Early Wynn. Gomez was charged with the 3-0 defeat in Beaumont, Texas, last Thursday.

Hit Hard

In New Orleans Tuesday, the Tribe got to the Puerto Rican screwball artist for 10 hits and five runs in six frames. Included in the damage was a 2-run homer by Al Rosen.

Cleveland went in front early and was holding a 2-0 lead until Thompson tied up with a triple to right center that scoced Williams and Dark in the fourth.

However, the Tribe jumped on Gomez three runs in the top of the fifth and-they held the lead thereafter.

Irvin and Mays each had one single in the losing Polo Grounds, New York cause, and Gomez himself collected an unproductive one-baser.

Two Gems

There were two fielding gems during the afternoon. The first involving Doby and the second victimized Thompson.

In the Giant sixth, Larry made a great save on Lockman's drive to left center with two aboard. Snaring the ball backhanded as it was about to scoot past him toward the bleacher wall, Doby wheeled and pegged to Regalado whose relay to catcher Naragon nipped Mueller trying to score from first base. The play broke the back of an impending Giant rally.

Robbed Again

In the thriller on Thompson, rightfielder, Dave Pfailley was credited with a spectacular, knee-high stab while running to his backhand side. The catch killed off what appeared to be a certain triple.

The proceedings were further enlivened by a chin-to-chin dispute between Durocher and umpire, Hank Soar.

It developed when Soar awarded George Strickland an extra base after the Tribe shortstop had collided with his nibs while turning second in running out a hit to left center.

On the other hand, the game was marred by errors by Rosen, Naragon, Mueller, Williams and Corwin.

It was in the Monday game at Shreveport, La., that Irvin's back-to-back homers and four RBI went for naught. For the Indians came through with eight runs in the last two frames to wipe out an 8-2 Giant lead.

Homers by Westlake and Hegan played a prominent role in the two Tribe rallies.

Also contributing to the ninth-inning surge was a smartly-placed single by Easter.

Since his return to the lineup, Big Luke has been confronted with a new Giant shift, in which the entire infield moves far to its right and the second baseman stations himself well balk of the dirt, in short right.

Leading off the ninth, and with his team trailing by two runs, Easter punched a two-strike pitch through the hole between third basemen Thompson and the bag.

He scored later in front of Strickland and Hegan as the latter delivered the game-deciding homer.

Pope's Hot

Pope, replacing Doby in center for the second day in a row, rapped out three singles. His output for the two starting chores was four for six, including one triple.

On the New York side of the ledger, Thompson shook himself loose from a 14-for-0 slump, and collected a pair of singles. And Mays delivered second - inning blow before going four more times without success.

PLATE FRUSTRATION:

Thompson tags the ball, but a Tribesman grabs it

By SAM LACY AFRO Sports Editor

SHREVEPORT, La. — Manf so - called authorities on hitting say a man is a slump should try to relax and simply "wait" his way out of it.

Hank Thompson is wondering how one can follow that sort of rule and retain his sense of values.

The New York Giant third baseman nubbed a dribbler off the end of his bat in the third inning of Monday's 10-8 loss to Cleveland, and beat the pitcher's throw to first for a cheap single.

14-8

Prior to that flukey, Thompson had gone 14 for naught.

But the way he had been shut out in those 14 blanks was enough to drive any man nuts. On no fewer than eight occasions, Hank was victim of sheer and brazen robbery.

His last previous hit was a single to right in the first inning of the Beaumont, Texas, game.

Robbed Of Bingle

In the sixth inning of that same game, Hank lost a hit when second baseman Bob Avila made a sensational grab of a similar toward right and threw, off - balance, to pitcher Early Wynn, covering.

His eighth inning bid with bases loaded in the same tilt, was a line shot hauled down by first baseman Rocky Nelson and turned into a double play.

At Fort Worth, centerfielder Larry Doby and rightfielder Dave Philley made sparkling catches to take away extra-base blows.

Saturday, at Dallas, leftfielder Dale Mitchell and Avila again spoiled Hank's efforts with fine running plays.

And to further rub it in, Nelson went far to his right to start a first baseman-to-shortstop to pitcher, covering, double play in the seventh.

Diving Catch

On Sunday, Dave Pope contributed to the skullduggery by making a diving shoestring catch on a Thompson liner to center.

Following his slump - shaping subbler here Monday, Hank came through on his next at bat with a smashing one-baser to right.

Then, as though to satisfy himself, he had completely shaken his jinx, Thompson belted a game - tying, two - run triple his first time up on Tuesday.

So what happens?

In the seventh, he came up again, with his mates again needing two runs to tie.

Heartbroken

So, Thompson slammed one of Wynn's curves to deep right center. And Philley, racing hard toward Doby, snared the ball with a gloved - hand stab to choke off what looked like a sure three - bagger.

They say you must relax — LACY.

Hurricane in court action

Accused of hitting neighbor's hat off

NEW YORK — Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, the 22-year-old current sensation of the fistic world, was hailed into court Tuesday on a charge of working over a neighbor in Rockaway, Queens.

The neighbor, Sammy Woods, 54, 212 Beach st., who weighs 147 pounds, told the Queens Magistrate Court that the 182-pound Jackson slugged him on March 13.

The complainant said the incident occured outside a store on Rockaway Beach Boulevard after Jackson muttered: "Quit talking to my wife."

Strange Comment

According to Woods, this seemed strange for the Hurricane to say since he has no wife.

Woods theorized to his lawyer, David Borustein that he had, earlier during the morning of the incident, spoke to a neighborhood girl, Miss Anne Adkins, who was waiting for a bus.

Woods felt that Tommy, whose home at 150 Beach 75th st., is near both his and Miss Adkins, probably carried a torch for the young lady and resented any semblance of competition, however unintentional.

He said that Jackson hit him on the head and knocked his hat off.

Magistrate Thomas Gray continued the case until April 26 to permit both parties to round up witnesses.

HURRICANE JACKSON

Willie Mays hitting .405

SHREVEPORT, La., — Willie Mays continued to set the spring hitting pace as the New York Giants and Cleveland Indians left Texas Sunday night.

The fleet Giant centerfielder boasted a .405 mark, leading the club in all offensive departments except triples.

With eight doubles, one three-bagger and eight homers, half of his 34 hits up to that point were extra base blows.

Easter .365

Luke Easter, played infrequently by the Indians, was next to Mays with a .357 mark, one percentage point ahead of Monte Irvin.

TWICE DEFEATED JERSEY JOE:

Tiger Jack Fox, one-time light-heavy contender, dies

SPOKANE, Wash. — Tiger Jack Fox, former Northwest contender for the light heavyweight crown who twice defeated Jersey Joe Walcott, dropped dead here, Tuesday, while entering a theatre.

Tiger Jack, who was 47 years old, had become almost a legendary boxing figure, prior to the end of his ring career in December, 1949.

In 17 years, he won 128 fights and lost 17. He knocked out Jersey Joe Walcott in 1937, and in the following year, won a decision from the former heavy weight champion.

Colorful Fighter

Tiger Jack was a colorful fighter, who hit from all angles.

He was knocked out in the ninth round on Feb. 3, 1939, when he fought Melio Bettina for the New York Athletic Commission version of the light heavyweight title.

The ex-fighter had been in poor health since suffering a stroke in 1951. In his waning years, he was ailing and penniless and had almost lost the power of speech.
