'Flying Four' prep for Penn Relays

BALTIMORE, Md. — The Morgan State College track team undergoes its baptism of the outdoor season Saturday, April 17 at Randall's Island, New York.

Coach Eddie Hurt announced this week that the Bear thinclads will compete on the cinder path in the Collegiate Conference Track and Field Meet on that day. Competing will be Eastern collegiate teams, principally from the New York area.

The New York meet will prep the Morgan men for the 60th annual Penn Relays Carnival which will be run on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, Pa., April 23-24.

In the outdoor season opener, Morgan tracksters will compete in the one-mile relay, the freshman mile relay, the 440, the 880 and the sprint medley relays.

Running for the team in the mile relay event will be the National AAU Indoor championship flying foursome "of Herman Wade, Pittsburgh, Pa., Otis (Jet) Johnson, Philadelphia, Pa., Jimmy Rogers, British Guiana, S.A., and Josh Culbreath, Norristown, Pa.

Initial Chance

The quartet gets its initial chance of trying to beat out a "dream mile" in 3:07.8 time, the new world's mark on which the foursome has set its sights for achievement in this current outdoor season.

In the Penn Relays, Morgan has entered the quarter-mile, half-mile and one-mile relay Championship of America events and will be defending champion in the quarter-mile and half-mile races.

Morgan is also expected to compete in the 400-meter hurdles, with Culbreath defending his title in that event, the freshman mile relay, the sprint medley relay and the sprints.

Kellogg's condition remains 'critical'

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.—Junius Kellogg, the former Manhattan College cage star, continued his grim battle against death Thursday morning.

Kellogg, who suffered a spinal injury in a traffic accident Saturday night, has been on the critical list.

Attendants at the Veterans Administration hospital here described Kellogg's chances for recovery as "poor."

Kellogg and four other professional basketball players were hurt near Pine Bluff, Ark., when a car in which they were riding overturned.

Trampoliners in talent semi-finals

The Trampoliners of Morgan State college, who perform on the trampoline; have won their way into the semi-finals in the Gunther Reward for Talent television show.

Wesley Wilson, Charles Kelly, and James Green, who are sponsored by the health and physical education majors club of Morgan, will be seen again on WAAM in about seven weeks in the semi-finals.

Money For Scholarships

Prizes range from $50 to $1,000. Should this group win, the money would be used to establish physical education scholarships, with particular reference to mid - college years William Walmach, president of the Morgan club, points out that scholarships are needed in many cases when students have to leave college in the third or fourth year because of a lack of money.

Morganite wins chemistry award

Miss Clara I. Adams, a Morgan State college senior, has won an honorable mention award in chemistry from the National Science Foundation.

A Baltimorean, Miss Adams won the award while competing for a predoctoral fellowship in science for 1954-55.

2,865 Applicants

Successful fellows were selected from the 2,865 applicants from all parts of the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Graduate fellowships were awarded 657 of the applicants, with the highest number, 156, awarded in chemistry.

The Morgan student was one of the 1,355 applicants awarded honorable mention.

Competitive Examinations

Grants were made on the basis of competitive examinations, recommendations and the findings of panels of outstanding scientists in the respective fields of the candidates.

Miss Adams is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu national honor society and Beta Kappa Chi national scientific honor society.

Dr. Grover H. Spaulding is head of the department of chemistry.

Fulbright award to Morgan senior

A Morgan State college senior has been awarded a Fulbright grant for study abroad in 1954-55, it was announced this week.

Recipient of the award is Miss Gertrude A. Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Lydia Johnson of 818 Linden ave., Baltimore. Miss Johnson is a French major at the college.

She will study French language and literature at the University of Besancon, France, the birthplace of Victor Hugo.

Honor Student

An honor student, Miss Johnson is the first Morganite to be selected for the award, which is granted by the International Educational Exchange Service of U. S. Department of State, under its U. S. Educational Exchange Program.

As provided by the Fulbright Act, all students were selected for the award by the Board of Foreign Scholarships, the members of which are appointed by the President.

Starred In Plays

A native Baltimorean, the awardee attended St. Francis Academy. Since coming to Morgan, she has served as secretary of the French Club.

has starred in several of the original one - act plays of the club, which were written by Sandye J. McIntyre, assistant professor of romance languages and Fulbright Program adviser.

Mr. McIntyre First

Mr. McIntyre became Morgan's first faculty member to receive a Fulbright grant. He studied at the University of Grenoble and at the Sorbonne, France, in 1951 - 52.

Miss Johnson is a member of Zeta Phi Beta sorority and the Newman Club and was a Phi Beta Sigma fraternity "queen" last year.

Chuck Richards to give awards

The Department of Recreation announced Thursday that an award to outstanding youth from five recreation centers will be made by radio announcer Chuck Richards in May.

Contestants will be judged on five good citizenship characteristics. They will be selected from Gilmor, Chick Webb, Cherry Hill, McCulloh and Lexington Centers.

To be eligible for an award, a teenager must be between the ages of 13 and 19 as of Jan. 1, 1954. Each candidate will be judged on the following:

Outstanding achievements in center activities, participation in community affairs, personality, leadership ability, and scholarship.

Candidates must be nominated by a center member club, then the Teen Council will make recommendations to the staff who will review the nominations.

In addition, candidates will be posted and voted on by center members. Nominations must be submitted to center directors not later than midnight, April 23. Voting must be completed by Friday, May 7.

DR. HILL REELECTED

Dr. Robert J. Hill, chiropodist, was re-elected treasurer of the Maryland Pediatric Association during the annual meeting, Sunday, at the Southern hotel.

5,000 fans spill out of segregated stands

NEW ORLEANS — An estimated 5,000 colored fans were among the Spring's record crowd of 8,009 which watched the Cleveland Indians outslug, 10-5, the Nem York Giants here Tuesday.

Three sections provided for colored fans in segregated Pelican Stadium were overrun a half — hour before game time.

A fourth section was made available after it had been cleared of a few scattered whites.

Comparatively dool to the Baltimore Oriole - Chicago Cub game of the previous day,' only 2,048 customers turned out for that one.

Previous top crowd of the spring had been the 6,780 to see the White Sox and Cardinals here on Sunday —LACY.

Here's why You ought to change to Custom Distilled Lord Calvert!
LORD CALVERT
Take the word of people who know whiskies—the men who stand behind the bars and counters. Many of them will tell you that Lord Calvert is the finest whiskey made.
And they have reasons to back that opinion: Lord Calvert is Custom Distilled! The result is a wonderfully enjoyable flavor . . . combined with lightness and mellowness . . . that just cannot be matched.
If you drink whiskey at all, why not drink whiskey at its best—Lord Calvert. It costs a little more, tastes a little better and, we think you'll agree, adds a little more pleasure to living. Won't you try it, today?

In Memoriams 1

ALLEN—In loving memory of my beloved husband, REV. W. W. ALLEN, who passed away April 10, 1949.
Palm Sunday, 1954.
He left a beautiful memory
A sorrow too great to be told.
But in us who loved and lost him.
His memory will never grow old.
Gone but not forgotten
Your loving Wife
ERTIE THEOLA ALLEN

CHAFFIN—In loving memory of our dear mother, ELLA, who passed away, April 9, 1953:
What would we give to hold her hand
Her happy face to see.
To hear her voice and see her smile
That meant so much to us.
Loving Children,
ELEANORA
ELIZABETH
JOHN
SELMA
LEROY

CURTIS—In memory of my dear mother, JENNIE, who passed away April 9, 1951.
God gave me a wonderful mother,
A mother who never grew old.
He gave her a smile of sunshine
And molded her heart of pure gold.
He made her as nearly an angel
As anyone ever could be:
God made a wonderful mother,
And he gave that dear mother to me.
Devoted Daughter,
MRS. HILDA TAYLOR

HINES—In loving memory of my dear son, PFC. THEODORE E. HINES who was killed in action somewhere in Italy, April 6, 1945:
I often sit and think
And think of how you died
To think you could not say good-by
Before you closed your eyes.
No one knows my aching
No one sees me weep
I wear my tears from an aching heart
While others are fast asleep.
Sadly missed by mother,
HARRIET

MOORE—A tribute of love to the memory of our dear wife and sister, HATTIE M. MOORE, who passed away fourteen years ago April 8, 1940:
To those who have a good wife
Tender and true
Put some of her virtues
To you are her vacant chair,
Lovingly remembered,
HOWARD MOORE.

Never shall we forget
Never forsake you in sorrow and cheer,
Never a sister in all the world
So precious, dear Hattie to you.
Loving Sisters
GERTRUDE MATTHEWS
MRS. MAGGIE BROWN
MRS. EDNA FITTIMON

MATTHEWS—A tribute of love to the memory of our dear husband and father of WILMER MATTHEWS, who passed away seven years ago May 23, 1947:
Remembrance
Death tries to break, but all in vain.
Loving Wife
MABEL MATTHEWS

A token of love and remembrance
To a nephew we shall never forget
Wilmer's memory to us is a treasure
His loss is a lifetime regret.
Loving Aunts
GERTRUDE MATTHEWS
MRS. EDNA FITTIMON
MRS. MAGGIE BROWN

SMITH—In loving memory of our dear mother, MARY D., who departed this life twelve years ago, April 2, 1942:
Time speeds on, twelve years have passed
Since death its gloom, its shadow cast
Within our home, where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light.
We miss that light and ever will,
Her vacant place there's none to fill
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in Heaven we will meet again.
Her Devoted Children,
WILLIAM H. SMITH
ELLSWORTH (Jerry) SMITH
MRS. LEDORA M. PALMER
ESTHER D. SMITH
Son-in-law, NOAH PALMER

WATKINS—In loving memory of our beloved mother and devoted sister, MARY, who passed away 2 years ago April 7, 1952:
Her pleasant way and smiling face
Are pleasant to recall
She had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet her
Some day we know not when.
To clasp her hand in a better land,
Never to part again.
JOE, BEATRICE AND ERNEST

WILLIAMS — In memory of husband and our brother, SAMUEL JAMES WILLIAMS, who left us April 11, 1947:
It is sweet to know we shall meet again
Where parting is no more;
And the Husband I loved so much
Has only gone before.
He has gone to the home of his Father,
Who loved him and has taken him to Heaven.
Wife,
MRS. EMMA WILLIAMS

April brings sad memories
Of our brother gone to rest,
He will never be forgotten
By the ones who loved him dearly.
That his smile is gone forever
That his voice we cannot see.
