Gadabouting In Baltimore

Easter social program to keep natives skipping

With Lula Jones Garrett

The townsfolk are, but definitely, taking advantage of the long holiday coming up—or do we call it a spring vacation if they dare?

From where I stand it seems that there will be great need of a vacation to rest from this vacation, if party plans are any indication.

What with two of the city's most popular young women marching to the altar on Saturday, and a third on Sunday, gate socialites really do get a head start.

And, of course, the marriage of Lawrence F. Sykes, son of Baltimore's Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sykes, and Miss Barbara Joanne Swann, in Jamaica, on Sunday, will take a number of local-ites to the Long Island home of their bride.

On the home heath, Miss June Butler is to become Mrs. Charles E. Thorne, Saturday afternoon at three, in St. Peter Claver's Catholic church. A reception will follow immediately at the Madison ave. home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Butler.

At six on Saturday, Miss Sandra Shepperd, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Douglass Shepperd, will be married to Joe A. Rhinehart, in Madison Avenue Presbyterian church. The wedding reception, immediately following the ceremony, will be in the Me-De-So club.

Miss Betta Langley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Langley Sr., and Bernard W. Merritt will be wed on Sunday. The ceremony will take place in Macedonia Baptist church, and the reception will be at the Brice street home of the bride.

MISS SHEPPERD SHOWERED

Two of the belles managed to be lured from busy bridal preparations for surprise showers, this week.

Mrs. E. Romaine Jones entertained at a "Leisure Hour" shower for Miss Shepperd on Saturday. Guests fetched all sorts of dainties (from negligees to books and ash trays) to delight her during non-working hours.

The donors, whose gifts were attached (with appropriate verses to ribbons and hidden away to provide a mirth provoking hunt, were:

Ida Choisholm, Mildred Jordan, Mrs. Ernest Murphy, Jacquelyn Spencer, Jane Staples, Shirley Moody, Catherine Woodland, Joan and Maxine Turner, Ellen Howard, Barbara Ward, Carolyn King, Miriam Hughes, Minnie Ann West and Shirley Douglas.

Sandra had just dashed back from a bridal luncheon in Washington (Saturday a-noon) when Ruth DeMond Brooks entertained in her honor.

Guests included Kay Waller, Gracie Young, Anna Faith Johnson, Anna Catherine Johnston, Janet Murphy, Nancy Miller, Rosemary Tyson, Barbara Sastorias and Patricia Adams.

And Sunday, at five, the group above joined by Frances Jackson gave a lingerie shower for the bride - elect at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Byrd in Washington. Mr. Rhinehart was guest of the ushers in Washington, Thursday night.

The bride's party is scheduling for this (Friday) evening, at the home of her parents where the entire bridal party will be guests

Following this, the group will toast the couple in champagne at a party given by Dr. and Mrs. McKinley Reesby. A n d Miss Shepperd's godmother, Mrs. Vivian Cook, will entertain the bridal party at brunch on Saturday.

MISS BUTLER SURPRISED

There was no - end of surprise for Miss Butler, who went a - visiting, Saturday night to find herself honoree at a party planned by Ruby Burke, Virginia Harris and Audrey May.

Guests had cocktails while June opened and admired t h e gifts; then hostesses took the group to the Comedy Club for further entertainment.

About were:

Ardell Jones, Doris Reynolds, Doris Freeland, Dorothy Johnston, Allene Hall, Bertha Floyd, Maryann Torain, Louise Smith, Ida Wiggins, Jean Holley, Zerita Skates, Thelma Less, Shirley Brown, Mariam Butler, Camilla Williams and Lucille Burns.

MRS. SMITH WEDS

The marriage of Mrs. Jesselle T. Smith, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gross of Windsor ave., to John Hannon of St. Paul Minn. took place on Saturday at six.

The Rev. Edward McGowan of Asbury Baptist church, Frederick, Md., officiated at the ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gross. After May 1, Mr. and Mrs. Hannon will be at home in Cleveland, Ohio.

HALF DOZEN DANCES SET

The Wonder Pinochle club is leading the list of six who will host at formal dances, by getting off to a quick start on Sunday night.

The affair is scheduled for Odd Fellows hall, and will begin at eleven, Easter Sunday.

Come Monday evening and Alpha Phi Alpha men have blood pressures up over their spring ball at the Famous Ballroom on Charles st. And the same night, Lambda Kappa Mu sorors are dancing at Odd Fellows Hall, where they have scheduled their annual dance.

On Friday evening of this week the Esquires of Waters will celebrate at their 14th annual dance. On Sunday, Chesapeake Club will hold open house. And on the next Friday (the 23) Delta Sigma Theta sorors will be hostesses at dancing in Morgan College Refectory.

That evening also, the Original Gardenia Bridge club will dance at Odd Fellows Hall. They begin with cocktails at nine, go on to breakfast after the dance. Count in, also:

The Tan - Ettes who are having their cocktail party on the 24th; the Ma-De-So's, who will present their debutantes at the annual ball on the 30th; and Sigma Gamma Rho sorors, who will dance at Harbor Field, Dundalk the last evening of the month, and the Heb - Nobbers who h a v e scheduled a cocktail party at Biddle Hall that evening.

"Springtime in Kiddie-Land," featuring fashions modeled by the young set from 2 to 10 years old, will highlight May week activities this year of Epsilon Sigma Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

The kiddie fashion show, May 8, at the Madison ave. YWCA at 6 p.m. will be climaxed by the crowning of a "King" or "Queen" as a result of a popularity contest among the youngsters.

Mrs. Vashti Murphy, one of the founders of Delta Sorority, will be main speaker on May 9, when the chapter holds its worship service and dedication service at the Morgan Christian Center.

The regular sorority meeting on Tuesday of that week will have Mrs. Naomi Maine, executive of the National Council of Negro Women, as guest speaker, and the annual mother-daughter luncheon on Saturday, May 14, at Douglas Memorial church will feature the AFRO Mother of the Year and Mrs. Pauline F Weedon, eastern regional director.

Mary E. Vroman, author and playwright will be presented Sunday, May 16, at the book tea sponsored by the chapter's library committee.

Sandwiched between this varied program will be coke hours among neighboring Deltas, a radio and television show, Mrs Rubye Gill is May Week chairman, Mrs. Sanoma Nixon is chapter president.

PLAN COCKTAILER

The Business and Professional Women's club met on Tuesday and completed plans for their benefit cocktail party, set for the 25th at Tijuana Club.

A special feature of the affair will be an "Hour of Charm" from 4 to 7, when Miss. Rose Davis will show new hair cuts and styles. Following this will be the club women on a parade featuring "What's My Line."

Funds garnered through the party will be used to buy beds for the children's ward of Provident Hospital, Mrs. Jeannetta P. Wilson is chairman of the project.

MRS. THROWER HONOREE

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Holland-er of 2513 Talbot rd., were recent hosts at a birthday dinner party in honor of Mrs. Margaret Thrower.

Guests at the dinner included: Mr. and Mrs. James Thrower, Dr. and Mrs. Furstenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hollander jr., Mrs. Helen Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. Eaglestein, Mrs. Ethel T. Douglass;

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Nelson, Mrs. Florence Diggs of Lottsburg, Va., Miss Florence Gordon, Miss Charity Burrs, Miss Oranie Neal;

Others who arrived later in the evening to offer congratulations were:

Mark Furstenburg, Frank Furstenburg, Michael Furstenburg, Ellen and Ann Furstenburg, Edward Hollander, David Hollander and Carol Hollander.

MRS. PROCTOR ENTERTAINS

The Widows met last Thursday evening with Mrs. Bertha Proctor as hostess. This meeting marked the first anniversary of the group and a resume of the year's program was given by Mrs. Katrine White.

The group congratulated Mrs. Marie Edwards upon the achievement of her son, Augustus, who has recently been awarded a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship for study at Cornell university next year.

After a discussion of business and future plans, the members enjoyed their usual "chit chat and fun" around the dining room table.

Besides Mrs. Proctor, those present included:

Mesdames Clarence Tibbs, a new member; John Reader, Grevieve Lee, Marjorie Mitchell, Ellie Henson, Marie Edwards;

Mesdames Juanita Rice, Virginia White and Katrine White.

MRS. HALL SCORES

Clever Philathea Carter Hall, realist, indeed, president of the town's real estate board, who chairmanned the work shop which took top honors at the Business Clinic held here, this week, made a double run with a smart luncheon following the show.

The luncheon was at her Ruxton ave. home, where a score or more top delegates were invited to share her shrimp and fixings, and more shop talk.

The hostess looked ever so smart, too, in two - tonegray suit, muted with brown accessories.

Her guests included:

Sukvely suited Geneva Valentine of Washington, and a top realtor in the East, Mr. Frederick Jackson of Morgan college faculty, Frank Walker, Mrs. Merrell Bennett, M. Stewart Thompson, president of the American Savings and Loan Association, Detroit;

Mr. and Mrs. Lenerte Roberts, whose chain or real estate firms spread through Chicago, New York and Chicago; Mrs. Irene Treuleer of Philadelphia Mrs. Lenoir Springs of Philly, who, incidentally, is running for the legislature in her city; William T. Stansbury, FHA public relations officer, Philadelphia; William A. Beasman, manager and assistant treasurer of the Savings Bank of Baltimore;

Woodley Lawrence, Linwood Koger Jr., Melvin Calaman, Miss Margaret Penn, Daniel Spaulding, George Carroll, Edward L. Shipley Jr., Isaac Bristol, Roger Johnson and Clarence Parham.

THE WOODSES ENTERTAIN

Prior to Phi Beta Sigma's spring ball at Morgan College Refectory, Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Woods held forth at a cocktail party in their Morgan Park home.

Their guests included:

Misses Elizabeth and Roslyn Allen and escorts, Henry Elberidge and James McDonald;; Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. James Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Seaborne, Miss Audrey Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. William West, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Valentine.

MAY FESTIVAL

The National Music Guild met at the home of the president, Mrs. Margaret Franklin, to complete plans for the May Festival.

The festival will be held on May 6, at the YWCA and will include dances, drama and music. Funds will go to the scholarship fund.

Plans were also completed for the April 29 junior and Youth program, which will be held at Union Baptist church.

In the place of the annual baby contest, an "Everybody's birthday party" will be held in June. This will be the closing activity.

After completing the business, the members listened to a very enlightening talk by Mrs. B. Poindexter on her experiences while staying in Germany with her husband.

The group also rehearsed the anthem, "Blessed is the Man."

MRS. KLUTZ RECOVERING

Mrs. Harriet H. Klutz, secretary of Bannaker school, Catonsville, was recently confined to Johns Hopkins Hospital when she underwent surgery Tuesday. She is much

New Miracle Bleach WITH "Hair Trigger" Action DEVELOPED BY GOLDEN PEACOCK

Leader in Bleach Field for 32 Years

Special Introductory Offer REGULAR 75¢ PACKAGE Only 49¢ for a limited time

Paris, Tenn.—(Insert date of insertion—) A new and utterly different skin bleaching cream was announced today by Golden Peacock Co., 32-year-old laboratory in this city. The new bleach has "hair-trigger" action, so-called because you apply the light, fluffy cream like a cleansing cream, then take it right off with a tissue or cloth. During the brief moment the cream is on the skin, the bleach seeks through the surface, reaches every layer of the skin where there is dark pigment to be whitened. Bleaches from inside out. The result—faster bleaching, lighter, more even skin color almost over night. Problems of blackheads, and pimples, oily skin and other surface blemishes caused by moisture and heat fades away. The product has been kept secret until dealers were stocked nationwide. Get this new "hair-trigger" Golden Peacock Bleach Cream in its familiar black, gold and red box at introductory price of 49¢ for the 75¢ size. Use it to make skin light and alluring almost over night—and to keep skin exactly the color you want it. For sale at all drug stores.

Union Choir, 200 guests pay homage to Dr. Houston Jackson

Two hundred members and friends of Union Baptist church paid homage to Dr. Houston E. Jackson at a banquet, Wednesday evening, given by the choir which he has directed for the past 23 years.

Speakers included:

Dr. J. Timothy Boddie, under whose pastorate at Union Dr. Jackson joined the church and became choir director; Dr. Harry Bard, assistant director of the curriculum bureau, Department of Education; Dr. D. O. W. Holmes, Edward N. Wilson;

Dr. Martin Jenkins, Linwood Koger, attorney; Willie Chatman, Union Church clerk since 1928; and the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews, pastor; and Dr. Harold Hayes, assistant superintendent of schools in Washington.

Mrs. Grooms Presides

Mrs. Ruby Grooms was mistress of ceremonies. She was introduced by Mrs. Catherine Adams.

Musical numbers included solos by Hasbrouck Harris, Leroy Bennett and a trio composed of Mesdames Rose Mebane, Margaret McRae and Jacqueline Watts.

Sherman Smith, organist of Union, was accompanist and also rendered a piano selection. Mrs. Minnie Hebron gave a reading.

In response to the speeches of commendation, Dr. Jackson told the guests that working in the church had developed his philosophy of living.

"I believe," said Dr. Jackson "that the greatest thing in life is love people than to use people. It is nice to be important but more important to be nice. For no man can rise by his own boot straps. Behind every successful are hundreds of people who have made it possible for him to achieve success."

Dr. Jackson, who is an assistant superintendent of education in Baltimore schools, and to whom music is a hobby, has built the Union Baptist Church Choir from a membership of 13 to 52, and an enviable prestige among such aggregations in the East.

Gifts Presented

In token of this the choir not only gave the banquet but presented a watch to him. This presentation was made by Mrs. Rose Mebane. Mrs. Nola Chatman presented a humidor from the Gertrude Nell Circle. Mrs. Dorothy Mapp presented a smoking jacket from the sponsoring committee; Mrs. Carrie Scott presented a log cook, and Mrs. Eulalia Mallory presented a sterling bracelet engraved with her name and the date to Mrs. Jackson as a momento from the committee.

The testimonial was arranged by a committee of which Mrs. Gladys Milburn was general chairman and Mrs. Catherine Backwell, Eulah Blackwell, Dorothea Booze, Eunice Brooks, Myrtle Burns, Edythe Campbell;

Mesdames and Misses Harriet Carter, Nola Chatmon, Melba Dorsey, Edith Fields, Terrie Gilmore, Ruby Greene, Ruth Guntharp, Louise Harris, Minnie Hebron, Margaret Hill;
