ALONG THE AVENUE

The newest club to make life pleasant for night hifers is the TROPICANO at Broadway and Oliver sts., on the East side of Town.

Featured at the TROPICANO, which might strike a familiar note with it's old name of the Broadway Lounge, is a beautiful circular bar, highly pleasing food and live entertainment in the person of Chuck Anderson.

The club had a grand opening on Monday night and the patrons were very impressed by the first rate treatment and the friendly atmosphere at TROPICANO.

Making a quick swing from the East to the Northwest section, CLUB TIJUANA his a coming up on Easter Monday. This would be 22 - year - old Alex Kallao, a newcomer to the jazz field, but a pianist with such talent that he is assured of finding a niche in the jazz hall of fame.

Kallao has been blind since birth, but the handicap has not prevented him from developing art to such a degree that he has earned the warm plaudits of Walter Winchell and Earl Wilson.

The Pennsylvania-born youngster hit the big time several months ago when he was booked into a New York City night club on a strictly trial basis. After a couple of nights of Kallao, the bistro's managers heard enough to sign him up for all his NYC appearances for the next three years.

When something like that happens, you have to be good, and Kallao is just that. The pianist has a warm spot in his heart for the classics which he began to learn when he was three. His father, also a professional pianist, was the youngster's teacher.

Unable to read music, Kallao soon learned how to improvise and when he was ready to turn to the jazz field, the classical background plus his talents at improvisation, made his success assured.

This's the story on Kallo, and if you think the column has gone overboard in praise for his talents, just take a listen when he shops up at TIJUANA.

Currently at the club and blowing a lot of cool horn is trumpet man Chet Baker, the pride of the West Coast. Up until the TIJUANA engagement, Chet was known locally by his records. In person, he is even better than the "crazy" discs he has recorded.

Chet recently ended up on the top of the heap in a contest sponsored by a jazz magazine.

Over at RICTOR'S RED FOX LOUNGE, Lou Bennett and his Hammondnes a r e winding up an extended stay at the beautiful club. In a few days Lou is scheduled to move his music downtown and it will be a sad parting when he says goodbye to RICTOR'S.

When he first moved in to the club, Lou was an excellent musician, but there was still room for a bit of improvement. In the warm and friendly RED FOX LOUNGE, Lou did improve, and his music grew mellower and richer, and a bright new artist was born.

Lou and his trio are on the way to the top now and the column wishes them all the luck in the world. Its a great group, and if you haven't heard them in action, hurry up to RICTOR'S, one of the nicest places in all of Baltimore.

Big Jay McNeely, the man who clowns and plays wonderful music at the same time, is coming back to Baltimore tonight (FRIDAY) and his part of call will be the COMEDY CLUB.

Last time he was in town, he fractured the customers at the COMEDY CLUB with his terrid saxophone playing, and it is happy news to report that he will be back for a week.

With musicians of the talent of McNeely playing at the club, small wonder that the COMEDY CLUB is a must attraction for lovers of the finest in entertainment.

The face lifting job that has been going on at GAMBY'S is scheduled to be completed this week and Baltimoreans will be delighted at the new look. Set for the week end is an all star stage show that should add spice to the Easter holidays.

Don Gardner at CLUB CASINO is another rising young musician, who is gracing the local scene. He made his bow here several months ago, and at that time, he was simply great. Now on a repeat visit at the CASINO; he is even greater and the best news is that he has been held over for another week.

The ZANZIBAR, 1809 Baker st., has made a lot of new friends since it opened several weeks ago with a new job of interior decorating. From Thursday through Sunday, there is music by Ray Chambers at the organ, available to patrons of the club with the most unique bar in town.

CLUB AMBASSADOR at 1936 E. Fayette st., is packing the patrons in with the music of the Mello - Jacks, who offer their talents seven nights a week. A special feature set for Sunday is a jam session that will start at 2 p.m. and end at 2 a.m. That's right George; 12 hours of music.

The Mel Spears Quartette is now appearing at Tillies MUSICAL BAR, Fayette and Wolfe sts., Mel takes care of the piano and the group jumps but good. That's it for the week. Have fun.

Morgan art teacher gets 6G award

A $6,300 fellowship award from the Fund for Advancement of Education of the Ford Foundation, has been granted to James E. Lewis, assistant professor and acting head of the department of art, Morgan State college.

The award will cover research during the academic year 1954-55, and includes a fellowship stipend of $5,200 and $1,100 for other expenses.

The 30-year-old professor, whose works include a life-size bust of D. O. W. Holmes, morgan president emeritus, is tentatively planning to study at the Yale University School of Fine Arts.

Dunbar Graduate

A specialist in the plastic arts, painting and sculpture, Mr. Lewis was graduated from the Dunbar High school in 1942. Following a three-year tour of duty with the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II, he completed his study at the Philadelphia Museum School of Art in 1949, receiving the bachelor of fine arts education degree.

He received the master of fine arts degree in 1950 from the Tyler School of Fine Arts of Temple University.

Mr. Lewis has just completed a bronze plaque of the late John H. Murphy, founder of the AFRO - AMERICAN Newspaper Company and is completing a statue of Frederick Douglass. This statue will be placed at Morgan State.

Mr. Lewis is married to the former Jacqueline Adams, of Philadelphia. They have one son, James Jr., four years old.

SOCIAL EIGHT — The club met with Miss Redessa Thomas of 617 Bentalou Street. The next meeting will be with Miss Julia Townsend of 613 Bentalou president.

And leaves a print
time can not wash away.
Never Morning wore

of you, dear Mama.

HOLLIS—In loving memory of our dear husband, brother, father, BOBBY FIELDS, who passed away April 14, 1945.

Do not ask us if we miss him.
There is such a vacant place
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow:
Memory keeps him ever near us
Though he left us nine years ago.

There grows His fairest flowers
We know that she will meet again
