Pastor says Edgar Brown was 'crucified'

His leadership was rejected, minister declares at funeral

WASHINGTON

Crusader Edgar G. Brown, who died in Chicago last Friday, was described as a rejected leader, "crucified by his friends," at funeral services Wednesday afternoon at Mt. Olivet Lutheran church.

The Rev. William Schiebel, white pastor, who preached the funeral sermon, told relatives and friends at the services that "the press was not enthusiastic and established organizations did not want to own" Mr. Brown.

Mr. Brown was not a member of Mt. Olivet but often visited with the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Schiebel said.

Compared With Christ

Likening the deceased to Christ during Holy Week, the Rev. Mr. Schiebel said that Mr. Brown's motives had not been understood by the people he wanted to serve best.

"He died for his friends," the minister said.

Mr. Brown died in Provident hospital, Chicago, of a heart attack and not of the minor injuries which he suffered when the car he was driving crashed when the attack occurred, a member of his family told the AFRO.

Survivors At Rites

His wife, Mrs. Pearl B. Brown, escorted by her two sons, Edgar G. and Frederick L, led the procession behind the pastor and casket into the church.

Attended by a nurse, Mrs. Brown remained composed throughout the services.

Other immediate survivors in the procession included Mr. Brown's sisters, Mrs. Eileen Sullivan of Washington, Mrs. Marie Fisher of St. Louis, and Mrs. Dolores Robinson of Chicago; his brothers, William, Theodore and Harold Brown of Chicago; and a niece, Patricia Sullivan, of St. Louis.

Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Margary Brown, in St. Louis and a baby grandson, Edgar, 11.

Text From St. John

The Rev. Mr. Schiebel took his text from the 15th chapter of John, "A greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

He concluded the sermon with the next verse, "Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you."

Numerous Condolences

The Rev. Mr. Schiebel said the family had received numerous messages of condolence but had requested that they not be read.

A family spokesman later stated that messages had been received from classmates of his son at Harvard, Dr. Mordecai Johnson of Howard university, Val Washington of the Republican National Committee; Brig. Gen. Julius Klein of Chicago; Robert Hunter, Republican candidate for Mayor of Chicago; and Representative Edgar Jonas (R., Ill.) of Chicago.

Wreaths Observed

Floral wreaths were also observed from General Klein, Mr. Hunter, the Meridian Hill civic association, the United Golf association and the Wake Robin Golf club, and others.

Honorary Pallbearers

Honorary pall bearers were: Joseph Spencer, Justyn and LeRoy Millender; E m m e t t Sullivan and James Pendergrass all of Washington.

Burial was in Lincoln cemetery. The Frazier funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Services held in Chi for Edgar G. Brown

CHICAGO (ANP) — Funeral services were held here Monday for Edgar G. Brown controversial civil rights leader, who met his death Friday, April 9, when his automobiel hit a tree, after he was felled by a heart attack.

Mr. Brown was in Chicago to campaign for Gen. Julius Klein (Illinois National Guard), who seeks the Republican nomination for United States senator.

His body was shipped to Washington immediately after funeral services. Final rites will be held in the capital, and the body will be buried in Lincoln Memorial Cemetery.

Officates At Services

The Rev. G. Hamilton Martin, a lifelong friend of the family, officiated at the brief funeral ceremonies at Metropolitan Funeral Home. Dr. Harvey G. Walden, pastor of Grant Memorial AME church, delivered the eulogy.

David Kellum spoke in the absence of 20th Ward Republican Committeeman J. Horace Garner. Julius L. Morgan, retired North Central- regional policemarch, delivered the eulogy for Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

Among the many persons attending the funeral were the following members of his family:

His wife, Mrs. Paris Brown; sons, Edward G. and Fredrick L. Brown; a sister, Mrs. Delores Robinson, and brothers, William Brown, Theodore and Horace Brown all of Chicago.

Court again denies Shriners injunction

CHICAGO — Judge Walter J. LaBuy in Federal District Court Tuesday, reaffirmed an earlier decision denying the Shriners a temporary injunction against the Prince Hall Masons of Illinois.

The Shriners, through Imperial Potentate Raymond W. Jackson, has asked for a temporary injunction restraining Grand Master Francis C. Rogan of Illinois from interfering with Shrine affairs in his state.

Mr. Rogan in December had issued an order silencing the Shriners in his state and forbidding them to send dues to the national organization until differences between 22 grand masters and the imperial potentate are settled.

Case Set April 21

At the time, Judge LaBuy referred the case to a Master of Chancery and set Wednesday, April 21, to hear arguments on the Shriners' complaint.

The Shriners' complaint seeks an injunction against the Illinois Grand Lodge and the grand master, a declaratory judgement that their conduct is illegal, and damages in the amount of $50,000.

Property Rights

Imperial Potentate Jackson charges that the Shriners' property rights are being denied in that the edicts are tying up the Shrine funds, preventing the promotion of annual fund-raising April 21, to hear arguments on the Shriners' complaint.

POLITICS: Another Republican Viewpoint

By HARRY A. COLE

George P. Mahoney spoke at the Frontiers' Club meeting on Tuesday. Principally, he made an attack on Dr. H. C. Byrd.

Mr. Cole

He set out to convince his audience that Dr. Byrd did not merit our support.

In his own words, Dr. Byrd was a lot of stuff. It was my impression that in this particular instance, he found no great difficulty.

It seemed amusing, however, to hear Mr. Mahoney speak of evaluating a candidate by past performance. His only experience in government has been as Racing Commissioner.

He talked about the better at the track who seeks to pick a winner by looking at the many sheets which cite the horses' past performances.

Amusing

It was amusing because while some voters may be susceptible to Mr. Mahoney over Byrd, more will be certain to pick McKeldin over either.

But in terms of a primary election, Mr. Mahoney had a point.

No intelligent voter would stomach Dr. Byrd on his past performance.

It is needless to recount the many instances in which he has acted against ones best interests.

Challenged Colored Voter

There was one very interesting point in Mr. Mahoney's message. He challenged the colored voter to elect his own public office. He deplored the idea that one legislator could do nothing.

Instead, he pictured a member of the legislature as a bulwark of strength. He placed our failure to elect our own directly at our own door steps.

He said it was your fault and mine. In this particular, he was unequivocally correct.

We often talk about the need for representation, but when the time comes to satisfy that need, we either find ourselves unregistered or disinterested.

Imperative Realization

In this day of growing understanding and progress, it is imperative that each and every one of us realizes that we are first do something for ourselves.

We must express the need by demonstrated effort to succeed.

We must be participating citizens and vote to extend the blessings of freedom and democracy to the humblest.

We must realize that no goal is worth achieving unless it is worth sacrifice of self.

We must realize, in fact, we shall bring forth the dawn of a great and beautiful tomorrow, only in the measure that opportunity of purpose and action.

There must be the common resolution which drives us to make every element of the community demand and command respect, because it is in truth, an integral part of the whole.

Republican Viewpoint

By J. L. JASPER

I note that one General Del. Valle of Howard county, a retired Marine, has filed for the Republican nomination for Governor.

This means that Mr. McKeldin will not be permitted to be renominated without opposition in his own party.

This will give Republicans the opportunity to require Mr. McKeldin to explain why he appointed so many Democrats and rejected Republicans.

Particularly, he should explain his relations with Jack Pollack, and why a Democrat is the official dispenser of jobs and other emoluments and perquisites.

Best Interest Of People

While I doubt whether General DelValle will worry Mr. McKeldin, his entry in the race is for the best interests of the Republican party and the people at large, because:

Orator McKeldin may now be required to explain why he persists in refusing to direct General Reckord to remove segregation from the National Guard.

It is noteworthy that, while Mr. McKeldin is quick to criticize the Ill - advised segregation policy of Baltimore hotels—over which he, of course, has no control — he fails himself to act when all that is required in order to settle the National Guard controversy, is for him to issue the directive. That's all it takes.

The answer is, it is safe to criticize the other fellow, and excuse one's self for the same deficiction.

Byrd Criticism

Certain writers on this paper have criticized Dr. H. C. Byrd for alleged disinterest in the colored man.

They point
