Strand Bowlers entered in national pin tourney

An 8-man team of Baltimore Strand Beavers left today (Friday) for Chicago, where it will compete in a national bowling day.

The group is taking the trip, expenses paid, as a result of having run up the best record among tenpin leagues in the area during 1953-54.

An annual affair, the Chicago meet is sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress and the National Bowling Association.

In the Beaver contingent are: Eugene Hunter, the team sponsor; Nathan Barts, Harvey Robinson, Walter Webster, George Lee, Preston Campbell, Norman Sheppard and Earl Robinson.

The Baltimoreans open their competition with a team match Saturday night, and then will participate in singles and doubles Sunday morning.

Cash and trophy prizes will go to individual winners as well as to members of championship teams.

Overall records of the Beavers for the regular season follow:

Name	Total pins	High Three	High Single
E. Hunter	10350	602	236
N. Barts	10400	633	246
H. Robinson	10183	533	210
W. Webster	10146	545	210
G. Lee	10009	552	212
P. Campbell	10350	539	203
N. Sheppard	5236	525	197
E. Robinson	2145		212

Midget baseball leagues to be organized by Bureau

The division of amateur sports of the Bureau of Recreation is now organizing unlimited, intermediate and junior baseball Leagues. Midget baseball for boys, ages 12-15 will be organized for the first time this season.

As far as possible leagues will be organized with six teams. Any four or more teams may organize their own closed league. Most leagues will open during the last week in April or first week in May.

Unlimited baseball teams who have secured franchises include the Dolphin A.C.'s, Westside Eagles, Northwest Police Boys Club, and the All-Stars.

Wabash C. C. managed by Herman Jackson, is up from the intermediate class for their first crack at unlimited ball. The new Sparrows Point Clubs, managed by Nacolls Ross are contemplating league play in unlimited and intermediate divisions.

Midget Leagues

William Lampkins, recreation leader at Carter Woodson Center, and Ezra Murdock, recreation leader at P.S. 122, are organizing midget baseball leagues. Several other midget leagues are in prospect.

The Martin Jets, managed by Clarence Gibbs, are back to defend their title in the Independent Unlimited league, and have a Jay conference the Industrial and Commercial league.

The Pythons, under Edward Perkins and the new Compts A.C., under Ralph Moore, are entered in the independent league, Crown Cork and Seal, managed by Charles Dowdy, have berths in the Industrial and Commercial league in which they are champions, and the West Baltimore league.

James Child's Raiders, A.D., have entered the East Baltimore Junior league competition.

Interproject League

The following teams are slated to take part in the interproject league to open April 29. Armistead Gardens, Gilmor Homes, O'Donell Heights, Douglass Homes, Somerset Homes, Brooklyn Homes, Cherry Hill Homes and McCulloh Homes.

George Faulkner, recreation leader at Cherry Hill Community Center has two junior leagues organized. The following teams are included: Cherry Hill Rockets, Cherry Hill Bisons, Tigers, Cherry Hill Terps, Bald Eagles, Cavaliers, Cherry Hill Saxons, and the Knicks.

The Bureau of Recreation is also planning to organize unlimited and intermediate softball league play for girls.

Berths in the various leagues may be secured upon payment of franchise fees at the Monday meeting, or Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Bureau of Recreation.

Since all leagues must be settled by Aug. 1 to be ready for city and state championships, teams are urged to ready themselves promptly.

The division of Amateur sports of the Bureau of Recreation is holding organization and training meetings for softball and baseball managers and umpires who plan to participate in its program this season each Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Bureau of Recreation, 1129 N. Calvert st.

S. Reginald Watts, outstanding sports official, is conducting the weekly training sessions.

The following softball games will be played Sunday in the UAW-CIO League No. 206.

Local 738 Indians vs. Local 346, 11 a.m. at Patterson Park, extension 1; Local 738 Royals vs. Local 239, 11 a.m. at Patterson Park, extension 2.
