Ashford praised as PCL umpire

LOS ANGELES (ANP)—Managers, ball players and sports-writers of the Pacific Coast have launched vigorous complaints regarding poor umpiring of baseball games.

Bobby Bragan, manager of the Hollywood Stars, is one of the most vocal in his complaints. He praised Emmet Ashford, however, as "the most promising of the new umpires."

Ashford is the First and only colored umpire in organized baseball. He is serving his first season as an official in blue for the Pacific Coast League.

Sam Jethroe sent to Toronto club

PITTSBURGH (ANP) — The major league career of Sam Jethroe appeared to be at its end last week as the Pittsburgh Pirates announced his release to Toronto of the International League.

Five years ago Jethroe was named the National League's rookie of the year when he was a freshman with the old Boston Braves. After an excellent sophomore year, Jethroe slipped in 1952.

Last year he was returned to the minors. The Pirates bought him from the Braves this spring, but decided to drop him, explaining that he was not a part of the team's youth-movement.

New Masons must change their name

Supreme Court says 'Free and Accepted' can't be used

Thurgood calls it 'One Man Job'

Says Moderns were linked to casket business in Ga.

WASHINGTON (NNPA) —The U.S. Supreme Court Monday refused to review the judgment of the U.S. Court of Appeals enjoining the "Supreme Grand Lodge, Modern Free and Accepted Colored Masons of the World," from using the words "Free and Accepted" in its corporate name.

The review had been opposed by the Prince Hall Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, Jurisdiction of Georgia, in a brief filed by Thurgood Marshall of New York and Amos T. Hall of Tulsa, Okla.

Both also are attorneys for the Masons in litigation involving the Shrines in the Federal District Court at Chicago.

In the brief opposing a review, Mr. Marshall and Mr. Hall said the evidence showed that the Modern Masons was a "one-man enterprise" operated by J. B. Baldwin, its supreme grand master, who has used the organization to "further his advertising and casket business."

The action of the Supreme Court makes final the decision of the U.S. District Court at Macon, Ga., which ruled that the "Modern Free and Accepted Colored Masons" was not an authentic Masonic organization.

The District Court also held that the adoption by that organization of the words "Free and Accepted," which are the distinctive features of the Prince Hall Masons, was done to deceive and defraud the public and reap the benefit of the good will of the latter organization.

The Modern Masons were enjoined from using the words "Free and Accepted" and the ritual and ceremonies of the Prince Hall Masons. The Court of Appeals affirmed the decision.

The Modern Masons were organized about 1917 at Opelika, Ala., when about six or eight persons met. The organization was incorporated in 1921 under the name of "Free and Accepted Colored Masons of America." "Grand Lodge" formed in 1924 the "Supreme Grand Lodge, Modern Free and Accepted Colored Masons of the World."

THIS CAN-PROVE FATAL—A 7-year-old youngster, who hooked a ride on the back of a trackless trolly, like the boy shown here, barely escaped serious injury last week. Calvin Harrison, 1705 Mosher st., fell off the car at Fulton ave. and Winchester st. Doctors reported he suffered no internal injury. The child was lucky this time. Next time fate may not be so generous.
