McKeldin says work being done on Md. Guard setup

Governor McKeldin said Tuesday he is "working" to eliminate segregation in the Maryland National Guard and in the state parks.

The governor made his statements at a luncheon meeting of the Frontiers Club at the Druid Hill YMCA where he was the guest speaker. His remarks were replies to questions from the floor and followed his regular talk.

Mr. McKeldin said he has studied the New Jersey Guard situation where segregation has been eliminated and has discussed the local situation with his adjutant, Major General Milton A. Reckord.

He indicated that segregation in the state parks would be wiped out if and when his appointees are on the Park Commission.

"Time Is Right"

He also repeated his statement on Baltimore's segregated hotels that "the time is right, right now."

Again he tore at the hotel owners who declared last month that the sentiment of the people was against permitting colored baseball players stopping downtown with the rest of their teammates.

"I don't care if everybody is against it," Mr. McKeldin said, "I'm for it in my heart."

"Segregation is an abomination of the Lord."

The governor also rapped the segregated policies regarding eating facilities in Baltimore and took it upon himself while speaking on this matter to put in a plug for FEPC.

Says We Need It

"Maybe we need FEPC," he stated. "Put it on the books, then."

Mainly the governor spoke of the work his administration has accomplished since he originally took office.

He spoke of his state highway program, his Interracial Commission, the appointment of a colored assistant attorney general and magistrate and the placing of the State Auditor's office under civil service.

At the end of his talk, Mr. McKeldin presented an etching of the state house in Annapolis to Dr. D. O. W. Holmes, who presided at the meeting.

Former Magistrate John W. Berry introduced the governor.

In the highpoint of the Festival, some 2,200 persons, including more than 1,300 high school students, attended the third annual All-State Festival of Secondary Music.

This event played last Friday, April 30, and was highlighted by the appearance of the famed Singing Sergeants of the United States Army Air Force Band. John W. Work of Fisk University.

Mrs. Newton Sing

Mrs. Fannie Stanley Newton, soprano, appeared as the guest artist in the concert which also featured the college's Symphonic Band, under the direction of R. Hayes Strider, and the A Capella Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy H. Banks.

An audience of 1,100 persons applauded the music of both groups and the singing of Mrs. Newton, who was accompanied by concert pianist, Carol Blanton Diggs, a member of the Morgan music department.

In other events of the week: Dr. Charles W. Stallings, who recently won a purchase award in the Atlanta University annual art exhibition, presented his mural on colored education to the college.

'Open House' at Crownsville

Gov. to dedicate hospital building

A new building constructed to provide more adequate study, care and treatment of patients will be dedicated on Tuesday at Crownsville State Hospital by Governor McKeldin.

The dedication will be part of "Open House" activities being held at the hospital in conjunction with the observance of National Mental Health and National Hospital Weeks.

The new building will be named for the late Dr. Adolf Meyer whose "common sense approach to psychiatry" won for him the name of father of psychiatry in the United States. He was also the founder of the Phipps Clinic at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Crownsville provides for the treatment and care of the mentally ill and feeble minded colored residents of Maryland. It was opened on March 13, 1911 with 12 patients. It now has 2,482 patients.

The public has been invited to attend "Open House" at the hospital.

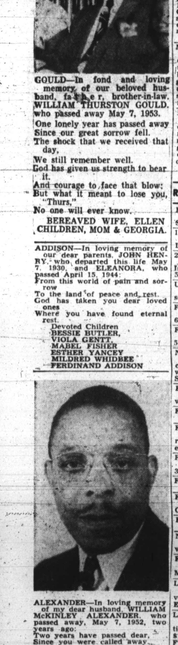
IN MEMORIAM



ALEXANDER—In loving memory of my dear husband, WILLIAM McKINLEY ALEXANDER, who passed away, May 7, 1952, two years ago.
Two years have passed dear,
Since you were called away...
It's not mine to know the reason why?
Unanswered were my prayers:
But mine to wait for God's own time
Then we will meet again.
Loving Wife
LAURA MAE.

ANDERSON—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, JOHN W. ANDERSON, who passed away, May 8, 1952.
Keen him Je-sus, in Thy keeping,
'Til we reach that Heaven's shore,
Then, Oh Master, let us have him.
To love and adore as before.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

DORSEY—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, JOHN H. who passed away ten years ago, May 8, 1944.
Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things have to be;
But God His wisdom God has planned
Beyond our power to see.
Ten years have passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away.
God took him home it was His will
Within our hearts he liveth still.
