A HEARTBREAKER TOLD AT CARVER PLAYHOUSE

Held over at the Carver Playhouse is a unique story with a musical background, "Rhapsody."

It is the romantic yarn of a rich girl who gave herself, heart and soul to a handsome young violinist.

She discovered that he yearned for fame rather than her love.

Elizabeth Taylor is the girl spurned. The way she reacts provides the pulsating drama of "Rhapsody."

NEW ALBERT PRESENTS 'LAUGHING ANNE' DRAMA

Based on a powerful short story by Joseph Conrad, "Laughing Anne," Republic's new production, produced and directed by Herbert Wilcox, now playing on the screen of the New Albert Theatre.

This picture co-stars Wendell Corey, Margaret Lockwood, Forrest Tucker and Ronald Shiner.

The story concerns a red-headed beauty of the eighteen-eighties, whose laugh won her the title of Laughing Anne (Margaret Lockwood).

She was the idol of the elegant Parisian night-club where she sang.

Heavyweight fighter Jem Farrell was her lover, a part brilliantly played by Forrest Tucker. Jem won the fight that should have led him to the meeting with the world-famous John L. Sullivan but crooks, who had sought to fix the fight, fixed him instead.

In the ensuing battle, Farrell is so hurt that Laughing Anne realizes that he will never fight again.

They both drift to the Eastern seas where Laughing Ann becomes a singer in the sordid Javanese bars.

MODERN PIRACY TOLD AT THE REGENT

Sea-raiding in the treacherous waters off the Alaskan coast, with fishermen pitted in a life-and-death struggle against salmon pirates, forms the plot background of "Alaska Seas."

The action-packed drama of life in the Arctic is now playing at the Regent Theatre.

Starring Robert Ryan, Jan Sterling, Brian Keith and Gene Barry, "Alaska Seas" relates the stirring events that can only take place in a frontier region.

Although piracy has been rooted out of nearly every other portion of the globe during the last hundred years, it still flourishes in Alaska, a land that is still in its pioneer stage of development.

It is a place where the law is adhered to only as long as there are men around who are aroused and strong enough to enforce it.

Since fishing still ranks as the most important single business of the entire territory, it is natural that the fight for control of the best waters assumes the bitterest possible proportions.

'JIVARO' EXCITING THRILLER AT MET

"Jivaro," the brand new Paramount Technicolor film which is now playing at the Met Theatre, takes you right smack into the middle of the treacherous Amazon jungle. Accompanied by lovely Rhonda Fleming and handsomely rugged Fernando Lamas.

The film story is fraught with romance and excitement beginning when Rhonda Fleming travels deep into the heart of the Amazon wilds from California to meet her fiance.

Fernando Lamas, a river boat captain and trader, meets her but does not let on that her fiance is a drunkard.

In no time at all an extreme attraction is noted between Lamas and Miss Fleming.

When they arrived at the trading post word comes that the fiance has been murdered by the Jivaros.

Lamas and Brian Keith, a woman-chasing adventurer immediately form a party to search for the missing man to discover what has happened to him.

'JULIUS CAESAR' ON HARLEM SCREEN

One of the most talked about and eagerly-awaited motion-pictures of the year comes to the Harlem Theatre Wednesday with the showing of "Julius Caesar," M-G-M's filmization of William Shakspeare's famous play.

To bring this powerful drama of the struggle against tyranny and the downfall of a dictator in the Rome of 44 B.C. to the screen, M-G-M brought together an impressive group of stars to head a cast of 50 speaking roles and hundreds of supporting players.

Marlon Brando essays his first Shakespearean characterization in the role of Mark Antony, who avenges the death of Julius Caesar.

James Mason is seen as Brutus, "noblest Roman of them all."

John Gielgud, one of the stage's outstanding Shakespearean actors, plays Cassius, leader of the conspirators. Louis Calhern is Julius Caesar.

Edmond O'Brien enacts Casca, another of the plotters against Caesar. The picture's two feminine starring roles are played by Greer Garson, as Caesar's wife, Calpurnia, and Deborah Kerr, as Portia, the wife of Brutus.

WESTERN THRILLER ON ROYAL SCREEN

In the same amount of time it takes to tell "Riding Shotgun" outstanding outdoor drama now on the Royal's wide vision screen depicts the tale of a man unjustly accused of stagecoach robbery.

He holds a western town at bay with his six-guns until he is proven innocent.

Starring Randolph Scott with Wayne Morris and Joan Weldon, the action elapsed in this unusual film is the exact amount of time of the film itself.

Breathtaking suspense highlights the second brand new mystery thriller "The Limping Man," starring Lloyd Bridges with Maria Lister. The exciting story involves Bridges as a mystery figure in a three murder case involving an international smuggling outfit.

Early bird matinees between 12 noon and 1 p.m. (except Sundays and holidays) are offered on screen shows at only 40 cents admission.

Mareda Gaither returns to Douglas in recital

Mareda Gaither, the soprano who is being presented in a recital at Douglas Memorial Church, Sunday at 5 p.m., is a former choir singer at the church.

At the present, she is in the chorus of "Showboat" now playing on Broadway.

The 23-year-old singer is a product of Douglass High, Baltimore, and the Juilliard School of Music.

To Help Education

The concert is designed to raise funds to help further her education, the Rev. Marion C. Bascom announced this week.

The trustee board of the church is sponsoring the concert. James R. Hile is chairman. Tickets which sell for $1.10 may be purchased at the church.

John Childs is the accompanist. He is a local boy who also finished in Juilliard.

Miss Gaither is the daughter of Mrs. Elsie Gaither who resides at 804 W. Lexington St. Poe Homes. Mrs. Gaither is also a member of Douglas.
