Ministers urged to 'sound an alarm'

The clergy of the Baltimore area are being urged in a communication being sent to them this week by the United Christian Citizens to "Sound an Alarm."

The cause for alarm, according to the communication, is the fact that with "civic misconduct trials going on in Baltimore galore, the political bosses are making a desperate effort to take over the entire city" in the coming primary election.

As one example of the situation confronting the city, the communication states that "in the 5th District 'certain' interests and Jack Pollack are out to defeat Senator Leroy W. Preston because he introduced a Sunday tavern closing bill in the General Assembly."

Example of Issue

The statement continues: "That's but one example of what the issue is all around: bosses and booty. Let's keep our fair city and state free from such civic servitude. It can be done —with votes, votes and more Christian votes"

The United Christian Citizens is an association to keep citizens informed and organized for effective action in civic affairs and within the political parties of their own choice.

The association expects to supply the public with information about the candidates in the coming primary, and to make endorsements where it believes those are merited. This is done to encourage the largest possible turn-out of voters at the primary.

Gerald Monsman, counsel and executive secretary, for the United Christian Citizens, said he believed there was real cause for alarm because of the apathy of the voting public to the present situation.

"International tensions and spectacular Congressional hearings are in danger of eclipsing in the minds of the people, our local plight," said Mr. Monsman.

Hold funeral for J. B. Hall

Grain dealer for 52 years

Funeral services for John Blake Hall, former secretary-treasurer of Dickey Bros., Inc., where he had worked for 52 years, were held Wednesday from the McGuire Funeral Home.

Mr. Hall, a native of Plum Point, Calvert Codnty, Md., died Friday at Freedmen's Hospital. He retired about a year ago and decided to dissolve the business because of failing health.

Mr. Hall went to work for the Dickey Brothers Flour, Feed and Grain Dealers in 1902. He was then 16 years of age.

He was first employed as an errand boy. The business was then located at 1505 - H Street, NE., which was a one room frame building.

The assets then consisted of one horse, one wagon, one bicycle, a limited amount of stock and little or no capital. He saw the business grow rapidly until larger quarters were needed. The firm purchased property at 1447 Maryland Ave. NE. which became headquarters.

As suburban Washington began to expand, plants were opened at Bowie, Md. and Hyattsville, Md. For many years the firm supplied all the race tracks in nearby Maryland; the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus with feed, grain and flour.

Mr. Hall was elevated gradually from errand boy to shipping clerk, stock manager and at the death of the last of the Dickey brothers, he became general manager and later secretary-Treasurer.

At the death of the last surviving widow, Mr. Hall inherited the controlling interest in the business. By this time the firm had grown to the extent that a railroad siding and warehouse facilities had been provided at Benning, D.C. in order to handle supplies and deliveries in car load lots.

Mr. Hall is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ivah Hall, two daughters, Mrs. Winona Taylor and Mrs. Vivian Evans, all of this city. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. Mary H. Jennifer, three brothers, the Rev. Benjamin P. Hall, pastor of the Methodist Church, Chapel Hill, Md., Maurice C. and Theodore R. Hall, of this city.

Mystery surrounds Catholic track meet

Statements ranging from "I don't know" to "We declined the invitation" were given as reasons Thursday for four parochial schools' failure to participate in interracial track meets at Patterson and Carroll Parks.

Among those invited to take part were St. Monica at Henrietta and Fulton Sts.; St. Francis at Gilmor and Eager Sts.; St. Pius at 1421 Schroder St., and St. Peters, 1542 N. Fremont Ave.

Invitations to the spring event were sent to the schools through the Bureau of Recreation. An official letter was sent to each, none of the invitations was returned.

Druid Hill Meet Held

A meet for colored pupils of the four schools was held in Druid Hill Park a week ago. The white parochial school meet to which they were invited was held at Carroll Park last Tuesday, and at Patterson Wednesday.

Asked to comment on why the invitations were turned down, Father Leo McCormick, superintendent of parochial schools said "You have to talk to the Bureau of Recreation about that."

At St. Monica, Father Richard J. Swift stated "We just didn't take part." St. Francis referred the query to Father McCormick.

A spokesman at St. Pius declared "we were invited, but did not accept the invitation." At St. Peter a reporter was told "I couldn't tell you."

For the purpose of the Druid Hill meet, schools from the Eastern and Southern districts were combined with those from Northwestern section of the city.

the hospital since the auditing began.

No Charges Filed

While no charges have been filed against anyone, it is known that the State's Attorney's office has been asked to study the situation to determine if there is basis for criminal charges.

Edward N. Wilson, chairman of the trustee board, admitted that auditors have been working at the hospital but declined

Administrator Ill

The entire matter is being handled by the Executive Committee of the board because of the absence of John Proctor, administrator, who has been confined to the hospital and later to his home since he suffered a heart attack last March.

Theodore Perkins, who is acting administrator, told the AFRO, he has no comment.

Provident has been having its share of money troubles for some time.

Money Troubles

In his year-end report in December 1953, Mr. Procope reported that "up to the end of 1953, we have not been able to collect sufficient cash to meet the cost of running the hospital. Last month, the Board of Trustees admitted it was "embarrassed" by failure of subscribers to make good over $17,100 they pledged to the hospital in the 1951 fund-raising drive.

Many of those who owed pledges as of April 27, 1954 were physician members of the hospital's staff, some of whom receive regular pay from the hospital.

Since then, however, it is known that many staff members have paid their pledges. No estimate was available on money collected to date.

The Board of Trustees at its Tuesday meeting was expected to release a list of persons who have made good their pledges but the matter did not come before the board.

The Hospital's Executive Committee meets again on May 24.
