ALONG THE ...AVENUE

GAMBY'S has come up with a dilly of a show this weekend, that should pull plenty of business into the recently refurbished club.

High on the list of artists making the bill is headline attraction, is Lillian Tilghman, an interpretive dance with a style that sends the temperature zooming.

Otis Mosley is handling the vocal end of the show and Snooks Patterson is making with the dancing.

In case you haven't been in GAMBY'S recently, you are in for a treat. The club has been redecorated and enlarged, and is a beautiful place to behold. As usual the genial Ollie Wise is on hand to make sure you have a nice time at the popular night spot.

Speaking of entertainment over the week end RICTOR's RED FOX LOUNGE has come up with one of the most lavish shows on record. In addition to the popular Raphael P, the man with the magic touch on the organ, the RED FO XX offering the talents of Slam Stewart and Lillette.

The latter two artists have performed at the Royal and the COMEDY CLUB, drawing warm praise in both showings. Slam is the man with the singing bass fiddle and Lillette is pianist with talent and beauty to spare.

With a show like this, the RED FOX will attract a lot of happy customers. Incidently the lounge installed a marvelous air conditioning unit last year, and once the weather gets warm (and it will George, it will) the RED FOX will be one of the coolest places in town.

Lou Bennett and His Hammond Tones, who used to delight ninety patrons of the RED FOX, are on the other side of town playing an engagement at TILLIE'S, Fayette and Wolfe Sts.

Easisiders are really going for the sounds being put out by Lou and the boys, and are crowding into the club to hear the group. You will always find the people at Tillie's with big smiles on their faces, just waiting to say hello and make you happy.

Candido and the Cubanos are doing excellent business at the CLUB TIJUANA. The group features the piano tinklings of Gene Casey plus some of the most frantic bongo drum playing on record.

Next group to how in at TIJUANA will be the Horace Silver Quartette featuring a baritone sax, toated by Cecil Payne. Cool music at its best is what you will find at Tiboat drinks and food in town.

The CASINO is jumping to the music of Bob Joyner and his Four Jets and booked to follow them on Monday are the Mel-O-Tones.

The COMEDY CLUB is offering the talents of Lester Young this week with Eddie Bonnemere set to start on Monday. The young pianist is one of the greatest things that has happened to modern music and if you want an idea of his talents, give a listen to his pressing "Five O'clock Whistle."

CLUS ASTORIA offers Irv Bean and his quarter this weekend.... On the Est Side at the GREEN FRONT LOUNGE, the beautiful bar maid, Maude Brown, will be the guest of honor at a party tonight (Friday).

The increasingly popular CLUB AMBASSADOR is offering the Jolly Jax The fabulous Rose Room at the OLDE MILLE TAVERN will play host to its first cocktail party on Sunday afternoon. Sponsor is 'the Men of Steel Pleasure Club.

The Carson Models Agency, 1328 W. North Ave., will have commencement exercises tonight (Friday). Six lovelies will be graduated. That's the news Along the Avenue... Have fun.

New Haven singer in recital

NEW HAVEN Conn.—The recital of Natalie Douglas, whose great grandmother was a popular singer, was well received at Dixwell Congregation Church Sunday.

The New Haven born alumnae of Howard University and Spellman College is a soloist in the church choir and a pupil of Richard Petway of the Yale University School of Music.

Pipe dream ends in big mistake

Next time Zollie McGowan, a porter at Johns Hopkins Hospital sees a pipe, he will remember a timid, 77-year-old fellow employee by the name of Sephas Dickerson of the 1200 block N. Chester St.

He told Magistrate Samuel Gaboff he wanted the warrant because someone had pulled a knife on him. The warrant was issued and Mr. Dickerson was summoned into court on a disorderly conduct charge.

At the hearing Tuesday it came out that the elderly man had pulled from his pocket not a knife, but only his pipe to take a smoke.

Witnesses said Mr. McGowan became angry with the accused man because he blocked a doorway at the hospital.

Calvin Douglas Jr. wins scholarship

Calvin A. Douglass Jr., art senior at Howard University has been awarded the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture scholarship.

The student is the son of Calvin A. Douglass, assistant city solicitor of Baltimore. The scholarship was presented during the program which opened the annual art exhibit of Howard students, on view May 10 through June 10.

The Skowhegan School is a summer art colony in Maine. The school is a non-profit organization with a limit of 60 students. One third of the group are on scholarships which are donated privately and distributed throughout leading art schools in the country to their most talented students.

Two games won by Hoffman club

The Hoffman Athletic Club softball team won two games in the FS 122 Playground League Friday.

In their first game, Hoffman defeated the Stags 17-6, and the Cardinals 5 to 4 in the second.

In the Cardinal fracas the game was tied 4-4 until the last of the seventh when J. Nickens hit a double scoring Oliver Moody who had reached first on a single.

Streamline

Eastern Shore anglers have reported that excellent results are being obtained with bottom fishing, particularly in that area, along the Severs, at Ocean City and at Cape Charles.

Fishing Tips

Waters	Fish	Bait
Tangier Sound—	Drum—	Pee'er—calm
Choptank—	Shad —	Pork Rind—
Patuxent—	Hardhead—	Peeler —
Sinepuxent—	Flounder —	Minnow

A veteran Pennsylvania angler gave a bit of advice and it paid off. He instructed me to cut up a peeler into small pieces about as big as a kidney bean.

Tie the pieces separately with very thin white cotton, then place a small piece on your hook.

I tried this trick and in no time I caught several fish with one piece. He explained that peeler is very easy to get off the hook, and that by tying it the fish can't get it off so easily.

Why not try it on your next fishing trip?

Cape May, N.J. anglers will again find many boats available for the best fishing in years. The season will be well under way about the middle of next month. By this time the wather will have quieted down.

This reporter questioned many of the top anglers in this area, and the reports are that fishing will be better here because of the very good winter. Large schools of various fish are reported all about, an indication that Cape May is certain to have its share of anglers from all points this season, trying for porgies, bass sea bass, trout, hardheads.

Piano prodigy in recital at Morgan

Hansonia Caldwell, 9-year-old piano prodigy will appear in recital Monday at 10 a.m. in the auditorium of the Christian Center at Morgan State College. She will play works by Bach, Mozart, Haydn, Liszt, Rubenstein, Debussy, Ibert and Turina. The concert is being arranged by R.
