They are John Walker Armistead, 200 block Dolphin St.; Samuel Adams Canaan Jr., 1400 block W. Lanvale St. and Archie Robinson Jr., 1700 block W. Franklin St.

The state of Maryland paid the school $1,500 per year per student.

Noted lecturer to address 78 Peters graduates

Dr. Uvee Mdodana-Arbouin, lecturer, teacher, journalist and author will be commencement speaker for Cortez W. Peters Business School at 8 p.m., June 17 at Douglass C.C. Church.

The baccalaureate sermon will be presented on Sunday at Douglass Church, pastored by the Rev. M. C. Bascom. There are 78 graduates.

The commencement speaker is the wife of Dr. A. C. Livingston-Arbouin, pastor of the Abyssinian Baptist Church, L.I., N.Y.

She is a staff member of the United Council of Church Women; a member of the Women's Auxiliary, National Baptist Convention, and contributing editor of the Women's Work Herald and the New York Messenger.

Dr. Arbouin has taught at the Downingtown, Pa., Industrial School; was dean of women at Delaware State College. She has done extensive travelling throughout America, Mexico, Canada and the West Indies.

She has received citations from the Business and Professional Women of the National Baptist Convention and from the Harlem Women's Defense Service, Inc.

Settle race problem Coppin grads told

Dr. Carey tells UN functions advises United States to stay

Beneath a gleaming sun, 36 Coppin State Teachers seniors marched from the building onto the green, campus lawn to receive their diplomas Tuesday evening.

Five of the graduates were Liberal Arts students who were awarded certificates to teach in the elementary schools. The others were candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree.

Commencement speaker was Dr. Archibald J. Carey Jr., alderman, third ward, Chicago, Ill., who gave a 45-minute elaboration of the functions of the United Nations.

Last year, Dr. Carey served as U.S. alternate delegate to the eighth general assembly of the United Nations.

U.S. Not Withdraw

Though the UN has not accomplished what it has set out to do, Dr. Carey explained that this country should not withdraw from the organization:

"If we withdraw, we will leave a conference of the nations of the world with Russia as the influencing power," he warned, pointing out that Russia is second to the U.S. in line for leadership.

"The UN has two objectives which can not be done overnite," Dr. Carey said, "to banish war and to secure the dignity of every individual on earth. The UN is pushing toward freedom of information and elimination of forced labor."

UN Necessary

Pointing out the necessity of the UN, he asserted, "The UN is needed in the world because of situations such as Indo China. Indo China proves the UN, not as a failure, but as a necessity.

He warned, however, that until the U.S. settles its discrimination problem, foreign countries will never believe this country's promise of freedom to all the world.

"They (foreign powers) do not know whether to follow the Communist of Russia or the democracy of the United States. They know we proclaim ourselves as leaders of the free world, but they are aware that all Americans are not free.

"Until America demonstrates equality for her citizens, the peoples of the world are not going to believe they are safe. The U.S. is like a lawyer arguing its case, and three-fourth of the jury is colored because three-fourths of the world is colored.

Keep Freedom Alive

"We should keep alive in our hearts the dreams of freedom," Dr. Carey urged.

The diplomas were presented by Richard Marcus, member of the State Board of Education. Prayer and benediction was delivered by the Rev. Marcus G. Wood, pastor, Providence Baptist Church.

Dr. Miles W. Connor, president of the college, presided. Music was furnished by the Coppin Choral Society.

Elementary Teachers

Among those who were awarded certificates to teach in the elementary schools were: William Adams, Lavinia Cox, Annie Duncan, Estella Keyser and India Williams.

Those who received their bachelor of science degrees in education include:

Marlene L. Allen, Freda M. Alston, Evelyn T. Beasly, Elaine W. Brown, Joseph R. Cook, Barbara Garrett, Fern G. Greene, Erma A. Hankins, Anita D. Hardy, Christine E. Howard; Betty L. Jackson, Geraldine A. Johnson, Shirley M. Johnson, Vivian V. Jordan, Mildred S. Linear, Aurelia H. Lonesome, Frances A. Martin, Sedonia R. Merritt, Jacqueline V. Owings, Edith L. Ricks;

Joan M. Simmons, Dorothy V. Sims, Shirley M. Simpson, Judith A. Slater, Alphonso Smith, Constance M. Tate, Gloria C. Tucker, Anna A. Walker, Delores E. Watkins, Juanita Watkins, Amy A. Woolford.

Seven of the graduates were elected to membership in the Coppin Honor Society, Circulus Scholarum: Marlene Allen, Anita Hardy, Betty Jackson, Sedonia Merritt, Shirley Simpson, Constance Tate and Aurelia Lonesome.

Those receiving special awards were:

Betty Jackson: Phi Delta Kappa scholarship award, Alumni Association, teaching award, and Elmer A. Henderson, English award; Sedonia Meritt, Circulus Scholarum, service award; Shirley Simpson, Faculty, conduct award; Carolyn Collins, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, leadership award; Geraldine Johnson, Lillian Webb, creative art award; and Jacqueline Owings, A. Dukye Wood, music award.

Dramatic fraternity at Morgan

A cast of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity, has been installed at Morgan State College.

The Morgan Cast, Nu Phi, was installed by Professor James Byrd and the lota Cast of Johns Hopkins University at the college last week.

The twelve charter members are: Delores T. Thompson, Thomas Tipton Jr., June E. Waters, Barbara Brown, Jane Harris, Ralph Howard, Thomas W. Anderson, Mary E. Cornish, Spencer A. Key, Mary I. Peace, Marlene J. Proctor and Gordon H. Stills.

Point System

According to Arthur C. Lamb one of the faculty advisors, eligibility for the honor fraternity is determined on a point system.

The fifty points necessary for eligibility can be secured from 10 or more in acting, 15 in production and 25 in other areas of the theatre.

The fraternity has 300 casts in fourteen states, Hawaii, the Canal Zone, and practically all institutions in Maryland are members. Waters E. Turpin is the other faculty advisor.

Summer library schedule set

The Enoch Pratt Free Library's summer schedule is set to start Monday, June 14, and will remain in effect through Sept. 4, Miss Amy Winslow, library director, announced this week.

All branches will be closed Saturdays during the period.

A majority of the neighborhood units will be open from 1 to 9 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and 1 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday.

Two Agencies

Two agencies—Branch No. 17, North and Pennsylvania Aves., and Branch No. 21, 5001 Park Heights Ave., will give service from 12 noon to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, although the children's rooms will "close at 6 o'clock daily.

Miss Winslow said there would be no change at the Westport Branch, No. 27, 2365 Annapolis Road, and Cherry Hill Station.

Present hours at the former are Monday and Friday, 1 to 9 p.m., Wednesday, 1 to 6 p.m., while the latter is open Tuesday and Thursday, 1:30 to 6 p.m. and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Douglass class of '29 plans reunion June 19

The 1929 class of Douglass High School is planning a 25th anniversary reunion for Saturday, June 19.

Members of the class are urged to make reservations for the class banquet and dance which will be held at Biddle Hall, 1235 E. Biddle St., at 7 p.m. on June 19.

June 17th Deadline

Cost per member is $12, plus 25 cents for alumni dues. Same must be paid on or before June 17 to Mrs. Arnita Woodlon, 2320 W. Lexington St. Checks or money orders should be made payable to Joseph Bush, treasurer.

In addition to the banquet and dance party to which class members may invite escorts, the reunion committee plans a religious service for Sunday, June 20, 11 a.m. at Grace Memorial Baptist Church, Eden and Chase Sts.

Speakers at this service will be two members of the class, the Rev. Garnet Lee and the Rev. Eugene Groves. Mrs. Florence W. Murray is chairman of the reunion program.

College choirs set air series

NEW YORK — The choral groups of three Georgia colleges will be featured during June on the current American Broadcasting Company choir series presented in cooperation with the United Negro College Fund.

The new schedule, announced by W. J. Trent Jr., UNCF executive director, is as follows: Morehouse College, Atlanta, June 13; Clark College, Atlanta, June 20; and Paine College, Augusta, June 27.

The broadcasts which showcase the choirs of the 31 colleges and universities associated in the Fund are a public service feature of the ABC network and originate in New York over station WABC, Sunday mornings at 10:30-11:00 a.m.

Three on Morgan faculty promoted

The promotion of three faculty members was announced this week by Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, Morgan State College president.

Promoted were:

Dr. Nathaniel K. Proctor, from associate professor of biology to full professor; Dr. Charles W. Stallings from assistant professor of art to associate professor; and Richard A. Long, from instructor in English to assistant professor.

Health Dept. reports one diptheria case

One case of diphtheria, the first of the year, was reported by the County Health Department for the week ending June 4. The patient is a five-year-old child, residing in the southwestern section of the county. The case is now under investigation as to the source of infection.

There were 48 cases of measles reported for the current week as compared with 50 for the previous week. Mumps decreased 33 cases for the previous week to 14 cases for the current week. German measles increased slightly.

The program opened with the audience singing "In the Garden", followed by the reading of Genesis 1:1-10 by Lillian Brooks. The mistress of ceremonies also led the group in the Lord's prayer.

Irene Branch spoke on the history of the Cloverettes which was organized in June 1954. A history of Mother's Day was given by Elise Sifford.

Participants

Nancy Winkey read the poem "My Mother" in honor of all mothers present. Musical selections were given by the Royal Notes.

The group is composed of Donald White, Roland Williams, Willard Powell, George Burton, Freddy Washington, and Charles Cooper.

The poem "Nobody" was recited by Wyonie Lowrey. Sonia Wilson, president of the Cloverettes, presented corsages of yellow roses to Mrs. Edna Wilson, the youngest mother present; Mrs. Mamie Revennah, oldest mother; and Mrs. Josephine Murray, guest speaker.

Speaker

at the top of the ladder.

His sister, Ida, was with the band when it started, and she is still singing with the best of them. In 1945 Buddy was playing a date in Hartford when his vocalist became ill. The dancers wanted a singer so Buddy asked if there was anyone in the crowd who would like to sing with his band.

A tall handsome man stepped forward and proceeded to knock the customers out with his treatment of a popular ditty. Buddy was so impressed that he invited the young man to join the band. The singer accepted the invitation and became a sensation. His name, why Arthur Prysock of course.

When Buddy isn't on the road he is a TV fan, but his biggest charge comes from rooting for the Dogers, his team.

Talk about terrid saxophone players, give a listen to Joe Holiday at the COMEDY CLUB. The young musician was caught in action on Tuesday night, and quite a lot of music he played, both sweet and hot.

You can always count on the COMEDY CLUB to come up with the best entertainment. Next set to follow Holiday will be Lou Koonitz, one of the new and best of the modern musicians.

CAMBY'S has a wonderful floor show this weekend and TILLIE'S in East Baltimore offers the best food and drinks in a comfortable atmosphere.

Have fun.
