Moments Musical

By ADAM K. JENKINS

By ADAM K. JENKINS

One of the most gratifying experiences one may have is that of watching growth and development — it may be of a plant, a person or an entire community.

Such an experience was shared by the large audience that filled Trinity Baptist Church last Sunday to hear Robert Wilson, one of Baltimore's own. Many who were there had thrilled to his brilliant boy soprano only a few years ago.

Now they heard a tenor voice of brilliant lustre, with high notes that reminded us of Roland Hayes in his prime. Mr. Wilson is developing rapidly into a musician of distinction and stature.

Best In Training

He has been most fortunate in having had the best of training since the beginning of his career. He handles his voice with the confidence and ease that excellent technical instruction can give. His gracious smile and unpretentious stage manner established the best of relations with the audience. He adds a touch of the dramatic that was impressive because it was not overdone.

The excessive heat may have effected his pitch at the beginning of the concert, but as the program continued he lost himself in the music and gave us an afternoon of high class singing. One of his best qualities is that of sensitivity and a deep appreciation for each selection he presented.

In the arias from the Venitian School, of Italian operas in the French and English art songs and the spirituals one felt the singer was always conscious of the meaning of what he was singing, as well as of the mechanical technics of the music.

From 'Martha'

"M'Apparitut Amor" (Soft and Fraught with Love) from the opera "Martha" and "Tu Lo Sai" (Well Thou Knowest) were given with an operatic bravura and passion. Some of the most rewarding moments were in the exquisite singing of "L'Heure Exquise" with its exquisitely produced high tenes that sailed high with ease.

Even in the oft - heard "Spirit Flower" Robert Wilson brought a new beauty. His ability to establish a mood thru song was evident in Debussy's "Fantoche" (Phantoms), with its atmosphere of ghostly awe and in the haunting, vibrant "In the Silent Night."

In the group of German leider, Er Est's "Song to Spring" was highly successful and matched "Joy" and Massenet's "Open Thy Blue Eyes" in sheer exhileration.

Spirituals Artistic

With the exception of "Motherless Child" the spirituals seemed more of an artistic than an emotional presentation. An encore, "The Lord's Prayer" with its quiet and reflective "amens" at the close, rounded out the program beautifully. Solange Frank, who accompanied Mr. Wilson, did highly adequate and well balanced playing.

The singer graciously presented a bouquet to his sponsor, Miss Adah B. Watts, who has done so much to further the careers of Mr. Wilson and other young Baltimore singers.

Pupil's Recital

The 12th annual recital by pupils of Florence T. Carter was given Wednesday, June 9 at Sears Auditorium. Youngsters and adults deported themselves well in presenting a program of wide variety.

It was particularly notable that many played selections from their regular courses of music study. The skill of the teacher has one of its best opportunities in giving such interest and enjoyment to the weekly lessons that the pupil is willing to perform a selection from his study books with the enthusiasm and degree of perfection shown at this recital.

The program included adaptations of well - known folk songs, arrangements from light opera as well as heavier works by Sibelius, Liszt, Mozart and Chopin.

The annual oratorical, instrumental and vocal contest sponsored by the Education Committee of Myra Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will be held Sunday, June 20th at 5 p.m., in the auditorium of Trinity Baptist Church, Druid Hill Ave. and McMechen St. In charge of this event are Mrs. Inez B. Smith, Grand chairman; Mrs. Olivia Bates, Grand Vice Chairman, Mrs. Annie E. Williams, Grand Worthy Matron, John H. Davis, Grand Worthy Patron.

Students of Mrs. Viola Coleman will be presented in recital Tuesday, June 22 at 8:15 p.m., at Union Baptist Church, Druid Hill Ave. near Dolphin St.

VACATION NOTES

By MELVINA A. JACKSON

Have you ever considered postponing purchase of a pair of sport shoes until after you've left town for your vacation?

Silly idea, isn't it, especially when you think about how important foot comfort is to your holiday.

Don't Take Chances

Well, it's just as silly to take a chance on walking into a problem that can spoil all the fun when you can avoid it entirely. This is what AFRO readers are doing these days.

To make sure that their vacation trips will afford utmost pleasure, AFRO readers are banking on the AFRO Travel Guide, off press this week, for guidance.

For example, travelers will find that in such far South cities as Birmingham, Ala., there's the Fraternal Hotel to provide lodging; or that out in Billings, Montana, they have Airway Center Motel at their service.

Beaches Available

They learn that there's delightful boating, swimming, and fishing at Mark-Haven Beach, near Centre Cross, Va., and that deluxe bungalows are available at the famous inter-racial resort, Camp Unity in Wingdale, N.Y.

In fact from Kingston Inn on beautiful Cape Cod Bay, to romantic Archlyn Villa, Bermuda; from Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Hawaii to colorful Mexico City and the Emporio Hotel Calzada De La Reforma, the AFRO Travel Guide gives you all the information you need for the perfect vacation.

Reporting New York

And to bring you even more facts, I spent the past week at spots in New York and New York State to gather information for first hand information on the sophisticated type of enjoyment visitors to the Big City will be looking for.

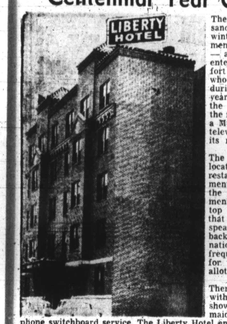
Liberty Hotel Prepared For Atlantic City's Big Centennial Year Crowd



The Liberty spent thousands of dollars last winter in improvements and renovations all designed for the entertainment and comfort of transients who'll pilgrimage here during the Centennial year. At a High cost the Liberty is one of the few hotels to install a Multiple antenna for television in some of its rooms.

The hotel is centrally located near many fine restaurants, amusements, the beach and the boardwalk. Not to mention the scores of top flight nite spots that are, figuratively speaking, in the hotels backyard. Some of the nation's top golfers frequent the Liberty for the golf privileges alloted them.

There are 141 rooms with 141 baths or showers; two elevators, maid, bellman, telephone switchboard service. The Liberty Hotel enjoys a find patronage all year 'round.

Atlantic City is the Convention City of the World. And the Liberty Hotel has long enjoyed the distinction of serving as the headquarters for many conventions and groups.

If you're thinking about coming to Atlantic City to partake of the daily festivities celebrating 100 years of progress and service to the vacationists of the nation, then you'll do well to make your reservations far in advance. The rush season is about to begin and you'll be missing the chance of a lifetime if you don't visit Atlantic City and the Liberty Hotel during this gay Centennial Celebration.

THERE'S SOMETHING DOING EVERY MINUTE IN ATLANTIC CITY
Attractions Long to Be Remembered Ready for Visitors
By MELVINA A. JACKSON

From the minute you arrive, to the minute you leave—every minute will be crowded with something exciting to do in Atlantic City. Sunlit stretches of beach thronged with life and color, miles of Boardwalk lined with shops and shows, provide every form of recreation for every age, every sort of amusement for every taste, and fine accommodations for everyone in some of the finest hotels, cottages and guest houses found anywhere.

In addition to the Boardwalk attractions, air-conditioned restaurants, night clubs, and every conceivable kind of entertainment and activity will attract millions of visitors to this "Playground of the World," which this year is holding its Centennial Celebration . . 100 years of Carefree Seashore Living!

From all corners of the earth, millions will come by every method of modern travel. Special permits may be obtained for those churches, clubs and organizations who desire to travel by bus. For those traveling by train, digest service is offered by the major railroads.

The motorist is assured of a pleasurable trip over New Jersey's highways. The 118-mile-long New Jersey Turnpike, the most modern super-highways in the world, has no cross traffic, no red lights, no left-hand turns, and numerous traffic intercourses connecting with the main highways.

New Jersey highways are very convenient to the George Washington Bridge, which spans the Hudson River, the Holland and Lincoln Tunnels into New York City, the Outerbridge and Bayonne Bridges into Staten Island; the new Delaware Memorial Bridge connecting the southern terminus of the Delaware Bridge and the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge to Philadelphia and the West. Yes, it's easy to reach Atlantic City from anywhere!

Every type of sport is available in Atlantic City. There's swimming in the billowy surf, healthful sunbathing; sailing, speedboating, fishing, beach bridle path, golfing, boardwalk bicycling, fine amusement piers, horse races, and beautifully decorated night clubs and cocktail lounges featuring top name entertainment the season long.

A sight you will see on the boardwalk is the never-ending parade, from early morning until late at night, of a caravan of cleverly constructed "baskets on wheels," known as rolling chairs.

When you have grown tired from long, exciting walks, or you are recuperating, these comfortable rolling chairs accommodating 1, 2 and 3 persons are the answer to your prayers. They are propelled by a pusher who also most graciously will point out many interesting sights along the Boardwalk.

Members of the Atlantic City Board of Trade have gone all out to make this one of the most memorable years and most enjoyable year in history. Many of the hotels, cottages, restaurants, guest houses, night clubs, etc. have spent many millions of dollars in expansion, re-painting, re-decorating, etc. and everywhere plans are being readied to mark this Centennial year one long to be remembered.

The Convention Bureau of the Atlantic City Board of Trade will gladly assist you in arranging your trip or the trip of any organization or any convention to this wonderful city. Just contact Mr. C. J. Newsome, chairman, 111 N Indiana Avenue, phones 4-8007 or 4-0843.

Among those also anxiously awaiting to serve you are the following: Villanova Hotel, Hotel Albright, Liberty Amoco Sta-
