The most outstanding performance of the afternoon was turned in by Larry Webster who won the dash in both his age group and the next higher division.

SCHOOL NO. 298 PLAYGROUND

The Little Leaguers of East Baltimore got off to a big start this week. A large number of boys gathered at Clifton Park to initiate the first Little League in East Baltimore.

The Midget Dodgers, under the leadership of James Childs, defeated the Somerset Cubs, 10-3. Eugene Gatling led the victors with the first homer of the season. Others connected with the team are W. Cook, D. Anderson, L. Alston, W. Brown, A. Briggett, D. Parker, M. Hooper, C. Johnson, and Manager Herbert Alston.

The Cubs were led by John Jordan, Richard Jordan, Arthur Weatherbee, Cleotha Barry, Allen Gross, William Taylor, and Ralph Leach. The Cubs were piloted by Frank Lyles.

In the second game the Cardinals won 5-3 from the Orioles. Dewitt Armstrong hit the first homer in the new league. The team is composed of Allen Ward, William Brown, Earl Leach, Cyrus Nixens, Henry Nixens, William Johnson, and William Hawkins. Globe Trader is the manager.

The Orioles were valiant in defeat. Charles Doby's homer helped to add spirit to the losers, who were Robert Statham, Ben Mackey, Anthony Showell, George Parkes, George Shaw, Adam Goodson, Ronald Thompson and Milton Solomon.

Pleasure League No. 298 was initiated this week with two games. The Cavaliers scored four runs to the Viking's 14, and Knox made nine runs to defeat the Bengal Tigers in the second game.

The next series of games will begin Wednesday at 6 p.m. in the play area at North Ave. and Broadway. The public is invited to see or participate in the activities.

SOMERSET CENTER

On June 2 the Somerset Homes Center held a safety program.

Participants included Evangeline Taylor, who read a Bible verse; Ronald Bill, solo, "Cling Clang"; William Jackson, riddle; Carol Cox, dance; Mary Stanley, poem; Pursell Grey and Melvin Rishes, duet; and Dorothy Doles, poem.

The second portion of the program featured 65 participants in four contests.

Circle upside winners in the girls' division were Evangeline Taylor, Cecelia Crippen, and Deborah Lawson.

Circle stride winners in the boys' division were Ed Boston, Anderson Grey, Robert McCall, and David Taylor.

Boys (8-13 years) Richard Jordan, Clarence Ricks, Pursell Grey, and Melvin Rishes.

KING TUT

Miss CONNIE MORGAN

TERRIFIC TRIO—This trio, representing the Indianapolis Clowns of the American League, will be seen in action at Westport Stadium, on July 9, in an 8:30 P.M. game with the K.C. Monarchs. Miss Morgan, a second base star, is the second woman to sign an official NAL contract.

Clowns, Monarchs to play at Westport

Unmatched comedy, stellar league baseball plus added attractions will be on tap at Westport Stadium Friday July 9 at 8:30 p.m., when the Indianapolis Clowns cross bats with the Kansas City Monarchs.

The Clowns, now in their 23d season of play, will be taking or formidable foe in the Monarchs. They will feature "King Tut" and his cohort "Spec Bebop" in the fun-laughing department.

The female innovation of '53, Miss Connie Morgan of Philadelphia, will grace the Clowns' keystone sack, while Miss Toni Stone will occupy the same post with the rival Monarchs. Miss Morgan played with the Philadelphia Fauntleroy's after graduating from John Bartram High School.

Star Lineup

Oscar Charleston, veteran Clowns pilot has a star-studded lineup featuring such players as Ray Neil, Dick Hairston, "Speed" Merchant, Cliff Layton, Johnny Evans, Gordon Hopkins, Verdes Drake, Frank Enaley, Irwin Ford, Art Hamilton, Sammy Taylor, Roddy Johnson, Orlando Lugo and Gene Roger.

Skipper Buck O'Neil of the Monarchs will rely upon such stalwarts as Ira Motley, Jeff Williams, Fran Herrera, Doc Conners, Miss Stone, and a pair of brilliant pitchers, Jim Gilmore and Hank Mason, both of whom have dealt out no-hit games this summer.

For the second time in five weeks, a righthanded pitcher for the Monarchs hurled a no-hit, no-run game on July 9.

Hank Mason, 23 year old hurler performed the feat on June 27 against the Clowns in Cincinnati's Crosley Field. The Monarchs won 6 to 0 to boost their mark to 14 wins in their last 19 league starts since June 6th.

Ace Hurler

The first Monarch pitcher to hurl a no-hitter was Jim Gilmore, who set down the Memphis Red Sox, May 17 and fanned 17 in the process. Mason, who hurled to only 28 batters last Sunday, returned to the Monarchs after two years in the Army.

Also playing great ball for the Monarchs is "Doc" Conners at first stop. He replaced Andy Pilkes, when the latter was purchased from the Monarchs by the Chicago Cubs.

The Clowns have been going well in defense of their circuit crown. Recently they downed the Hartford Red Sox of the Interbounty Canadian League by a 16-6 tally before a capacity crowd of over 6,100.

Wilmer Fields

Wilmer Fields' batting and fielding is the big feature of the Clowns' offense.

After their clash here the two teams will tangle in a twin-bill at Yankee Stadium on July 11; Monday, July 12 they will play in Philadelphia; and Tuesday, July 13 at Griffith Stadium in Washington.

ways change after a while. It happened to me when I was in Texas. I could notice the people's attitudes changing month by month. I believe Baltimore will change too"

Pope, utility outfielder, added, "Sure, Baltimore will come around to joining the 'wheels of progress' soon. There is nothing we can do about it, though; it is a problem for the local citizens to fight."

Pope Recalls

Pope also is an ex-Homestead Grays player.

Pope recalled that during his days with Indianapolis, the Indians' farm club, there was a hotel problem in Kansas City and Charleston, W. Va., but things were changing when he moved up to Cleveland.

"Sure," Dave concluded, "Baltimore will come around soon. You can't stop progress."

Smith, who is nursing a charley-horse which has given him trouble for the past two weeks, had no comment on the hotel situation.

Al, who is battling to keep his regular job in leftfield, was concerned mostly about his leg healing up so that he will be at his physical peak as the Tribe tangles with the Chicago White Sox in a crucial four-game series this weekend.

"We need to take three out of four from the White Sox," Smith emphasized "and if we can, we'll be rolling."

Doby, Pope and Hoskins all agreed that this four-game setto with the White Sox which opens in Cleveland with a twin bill Friday, with single games Saturday and Sunday, could be the turning point in the tight fight for the American League pennant.

Cleveland currently is riding on top with a three-game lead on the White Sox and a four-game bulge on the New York Yankees.

Doby and Smith Star

In Baltimore, Pope and Hoskins did not see action, but Doby and Smith combined batting talents to aid the Tribe in a twin triumph, 5-1, Tuesday night before 28,511, and 2-0 Wednesday night before 17,262 fans, at Memorial Stadium.

Doby collected two hits in eight at-bats during the two days, including a 395-foot home run in the third inning of Wednesday's night's tilt. This was Larry's 11th homer of the season.

Smith had three hits in seven times at bat in the two games, all three of the blows being doubles. Smith, who, for two years, never got a real chance with the Tribe, was inserted in the line-up during the Boston series early in June and has been hitting the ball so hard Manager Al Lopez has had no inclination to move him.

Currently, Smith is clouting the ball at a .296 clip and fielding acceptably in the outfield and at third base where he is sometimes shifted.

100-lap holiday auto race at Westport

Stock car racers—Ken Marriott and Johnny Roberts—will both be eyeing repeat wins when star ter Clyde Muir lines up his feature race field for Saturday's mid-summer, holiday 100-lap championship race which along with a brilliant fireworks display top Westport Stadium's auto card Saturday.

Co-featured with the 100-lap special, will be a fireworks display produced by the famous Fazzini Brothers. On July 10, camel, ostrich and dog races along with the regular stock car show will be featured at Westport. On July 16 and 17, two complete stock car programs sponsored by the Tall Cedars of Lebanon will be held.

LUNG EXERCISE FOR UMPIRE — Sometimes the clicking camera freezes all the excitement of a hot sports moment. It did it this time and thus produced one of the best baseball photos of the season. Here St. Louis Cardinal Wally Moon slides safely across home plate in a game at Ebbets Field as Brooklyn Dodger Catcher Roy Campanella drops Gil Hodges' throw. Note the ball in the air. Umpire Dolan has his thumb and vocal cords in position to signal out, but a second later he spotted the dropped ball and calls the player safe. This was real action.

Week's roundup of big league games

Wednesday

NEW YORK — Willie Mays hit safely in his 11th straight game as the Giants widened their lead by beating the Dodgers, 5-2. Mays was 1 for 3, also Monte Irvin, the latter's being a double. Hank Thompson produced two singles in four trips.

For the Brooks, Junior Gilliam, Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella each contributed one hit. Campy's was good for two bases.

BALTIMORE — Cleveland strengthened her hold on first place in the AL race betaing the Orioles 2-0, on hits by Larry Doby and Al Smith.

The tribe got six hits, half of them by Doby and Smith. Larry homered in the third and Al doubled home the other run in the 7th.

Smith, incidentally, collected two doubles.

CHICAGO — Minnie Minoso was blanked in his three at bats as the White Sox dropped a 4-3 decision to Detroit.

CINCINNATI — St. Louis Cardinals, behind strong clutch pitching by Brooks Lawrence, turned back the Redlegs, 11-3.

The rookie righthander thus won his 2nd full-route decision in the 10 days, since being brought up from the farm. Lawrence is now 2-1.

Brooks scattered nine hits, two of them by Cincinnati's Charley Harmon. Harmon tripled and singled, scored one run.

PITTSBURGH — Curt Roberts got one of the six Pirate hits as they lost to the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-0.

MILWAUKEE—Charley White, Bill Bruton and Hank Aaron scored one run apiece as the Braves put across five in the last of the 9th in a vain attempt to forestall a 8-7 loss to the Chicago Cubs.

White was safe on an error while pinch hitting for Paine. Bruton and Aaron had hits, the latter's a double that drove in two tallies. Aaron was 2 for 5, and Bruton 1 for 4 Bill also stole a base.

For the Cubs, Gene Baker had two safeties, one a single in the 3-run Chicago 7th frame.

Ernie Banks was hitless in four at bats.

Tuesday

NEW YORK — The eyes of 51,464 in-person fans and countless others viewing the TV version, were focussed on the Polo Grounds as the Giants took the opener of the crucial 3-game series.

The game was decided by Dusty Rhodes' pinch single with bases loaded in the 13th inning. Willie Mays scoring from second to make it 4-3 Giants.

It was a thriller all the way, with a story book finish.

The Giants went ahead in the 2nd on Monte Irvin's homer off Don Newcombe, Then Davey Williams homed off Newk to make it 2-0.

That's the way it went, and it looked like the story of the game what with Sal Maglie mowing down the Dodgers with his characteristic smoothness.

But, with two men out and two strikes on Roy Campanella, Maglie slipped up. One strike away from a shutout victory, he hit Campy's groove and the ball skyrocketed over the leftfield stands to chase Jackie Robinson home in front of Campanella.

Jackie had singled with one down and appeared destined to be stranded as Maglie fanned Gil Hodges, then put over two quick strikes on Roy.

The two teams bottled into the 13th at 2-2, when Don Hoak homered to give the Bums a 3-2 lead.

However, the Giants weren't yet out of it. Whitey Lockman walked, was forced at second by Don Mueller for the second out, it being a brilliant backhand stop by Junior Gilliam a year second that nipped Lockman.

Billy Loes, on the mound for the Dodgers, in pitching cautiously to Irvin and Mays, lost both via bases on balls.

So it was that Willie was on second and Mueller on third when Rhodes delivered his 2-out single to center.

Irvin's homer was his only hit. Mays also had but one hit. Hank Thompson had three, all sharp singles.

For the Dodgers' Campy had a one - baser in addition to his homer. Jackie was 1 for 6, and Gilliam 0 for 6.

Newcombe had a single, gave up five hits in seven frames, struck out four, and walked none.

Ruben Gomez broke into the Giants' lineup as a pinch runner, was picked off first by Campanella.

BALTIMORE — The Cleveland Indians tallied three runs in the 7th to rout the Orioles, 5-1.

Al Smith and Larry Doby collected one hit apiece — both doubles — and scored runs for the Tribe.

CINCINNATI — Tom Alston committed two errors as he and the St. Louis Cardinals dropped an 11-4 decision to the Redlegs.

CHICAGO — The White Sox won, 5-0, after, losing, 10-3, to Detroit in their twi-nighter.

Minnie Minoso was 2 for 4 in the first game, committed one error.

MILWAUKEE — The Braves dealt the Chicago Cubs their 12th defeat in the last 15 games, 7-4.

A double by Hank Aaron and [illegible] offerings of Milwaukee's fast trio, Jim Pendleton was 0 for 3. Aaron scored a run.

For the losers, Gene Baker picked up one hit in three tries, but Ernie Banks was hitless in two.

PITTSBURGH — Curt Roberts was back in the lineup, but the Pirates lost just the same.

[illegible] was 0 for 4.

PHILADELPHIA — Vic Power, branded in a Monday exhibition game, was reported mending rapidly.

The Athletics beat the Washington Senators, 3-2.

Monday

No games were scheduled.

Sunday

NEW YORK — A daring 10th inning steal of third base by Willie Mays set up the winning run as the Giants overcame the Chicago Cubs, 3-2.

The inning before, Whitey Lockman had tied the score with a 2-run homer into the rightfield stands. Up to then the Cubs' Warren Hacker had thrown 3-hit, shutout ball at the Giants.

Mays opened the 10th with a double. Monte Irvin was intentionally walked. But then Hoot Evers struck out while trying to sacrifice the runners.

This set the stage for an inning - ending double play, something Manager Leo Durocher wantedato avoid. He gave Mays and Irvin the signs to steal. They did, forcing Chicago to pull in her infield.

Willie then sprinted home as pinch - hitter Bobby Hofman pushed a single past the right side.

Mays was 1 for 4. Hank Thompson 0 for 3. Irvin had no official at-bats.

Ruben Gomez did the Giant pitching and dueled Hacker right through nine innings when he had to make way for a pinch hitter.

Gomez allowed only five hits, one of them a double by Ernie Banks. Banks and Gene Baker each drew one-the three walks given up by Gomez. Gene Baker scored one of the two Cub runs.

BROOKLYN — Five Brooklyn homers — two by Gil Hodges, [illegible] by Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella [illegible] to wipe out an early St. Louis lead and win, 8-6.

One of Gil's blows came with two on and Robinson's came with one on. The others were of the solo variety.

Jackie and Junior had two hits apiece, Campy one.

Tom Alston, Cardinal first baseman, was hitless in four but scored a run.

CLEVELAND — Al Smith had two hits and drove in the winning run in the 6th to give the Indians a 4 - 3 triumph over the New York Yankees.

Smith's rap to center tallied of the frame and that was the margin as the Yanks came back to score two runs and come within one of tying.

Larry Doby was 0 for 4 for the game.

CHICAGO — Minnie Minoso returned to the White Sox line-up after one-day's absence, but the Sox lost to Boston, 2-1.

[illegible] was hit, a single, in four at bats.

BALTIMORE — The Philadelphia Athletics' Bob Trice duelled the Oriole ace right through a 9-inning tie, only to see his mates lose, 4-3, after he departed for a pinch hitter.

The Birds scored three runs off him but all were unearned. Bob walked one, fanned three.

His roommate, Vic Power, did not play.

PHILADELPHIA — The Phillies edged Milwaukee, 4-3.

Jim Pendleton, Bill Bruton and Hank Aaron collected only one hit between them for the Braves. That was a single by Aaron.

PITTSBURGH — The Cincinnati [illegible] Charley Harmon and Nino Escalera on defense after piling up a commanding lead, defeated the Pirates, 9-0.

Neither came to bat. The Bucs continues to search second baseman Curt Roberts.

Track meet set by Cross City

The Baltimore Cross City Club will hold its second annual track and field meet at Druid Hill Park Saturday July 10th.

Head of the list of early entrants is Art Bragg, former Morgan State national AAU 100 and 200 yards champion; and Edward Waters, Morgan sprinter.

Dick Heart of the Collegiate Track and Field Club is expected to meet Fred Dwyer, now stationed at near-by Aberdeen Proving Grounds in the featured event a year ago.

A committee is working to attract a field in the hammer throw to break the American record of 195 feet 4½ inches established here last year by Martin Engel.

The meet will serve as a tune up for the Eastern AAU Track Meet, scheduled for Sunday, July 25 at Morgan State College Stadium sponsored by the South Atlantic Association, AAU. C. C. Jackson Jr. is meet director.

All-Star poll nears end

Campy, Minoso assured berths

Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Orestes Minoso held on to their leads this week in the voting for starting positions for the 21st annual major league All-Star Baseball game. The polls close Saturday, July 3.

Players winning at each position (pitchers) will be in the starting lineups of the National and American Leagues when the big game is played July 13 in Cleveland.

Jackie leads in the voting for left fielder, and Campy in the balloting for catcher in the National League. Both play for the Brooklyn Dodgers. Jackie is the second highest vote getter in the National League.

Mays Has Chance

The only other colored player in the National League with a chance to win a starting berth is the sensational Willie Mays of the New York Giants in center field. He is running second in the voting to Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers. Mays leads the majors in home runs.

Over in the American League, Minoso, who cavorts for the Chicago White Sox, leads all left fielders. He is tops in runs batted in among American Leaguers.

One other colored player, Larry Doby of the Cleveland Indians, also has a good chance to win a starting berth. Doby is second in the voting for center field. His hitting has sparked the first place in the rugged American League race.

Power detained in Philly hospital

PHILADELPHIA

Vic Power, rookie outfielder of the Philadelphia Athletics, struck on the head by a pitched ball Monday, was detained at Presbyterian Hospital for another day Wednesday.

Doctors said the concuss on suffered by Power was not severe. The Puerto Rican was hit by pitcher Tommy Walters, of the Philadelphia Phillies, during an exhibition game.

Power, himself, said he was not feeling bad and that he is ready for action with the club.

Swimming classes set for Druid YMCA

The Druid Hill YMCA now has a daily summer swimming program for adult members. Recreational swims are held Monday through Thursday from 4-5 p.m. and 8:45-9:30 p.m. every evening Monday through Friday.

Classes are offered also on Friday from 11 to 12 p.m. and Saturday from 12 to 1 p.m. A special co-ed swim is held every Thursday from 8:30 to 10 p.m. Instructions are available in all classes except the co-ed swim. Further information may be secured from John R. Hargrove at Lafayette 3-4464.
