Holly Mims battles Dykes to draw

WASHINGTON

Holly Mims of Washington, D.C., battling to preserve his number two national middleweight rating, fought to a draw with highly touted Bobby Dykes of Miami in a nationally televised contest at Uline Arena Wednesday night.

The boxing show was a benefit for the Greek Orthodox Churches, but there was little relief for the 2,601 sweltering ringside fans who alternately booed and cheered at Dykes' holding tactics, and Mims' gallant but futile efforts to force the fight.

Dykes with 112 professional fights under his belt was unmarked when the fight ended, but his lack-luster performance did not endear him to Washington fans.

Mims Effective

Mims was effective throughout the opening bell and probably was most effective through the middle rounds scoring with hard overhand smashes.

Both fighters were bloody when the contest was over with cuts on Holly's cheek which Dykes toyed with throughout the fight.

In his dressing room before the fight a rather tense Holly Mims, commented he was going to get in close.

After the fight, Holly's manager, Benny Trotta, said angrily, "It was a lousy fight, and a bum decision. Holly fought as he was told, but that gave Dykes was laying all over him."

Colonel Miller, National Boxing Association secretary, when queried about the bout said he had hoped for a livlier fight, but he had no quarrel with the decision.

The judges were divided in their opinions. Alberstein giving the fight to Holly 97-95, Kirmatin, giving the fight to Dykes 97-94, and referee Marty Gardner giving each fighter 95 points—a draw.

Harold Smith, brother of featherweight contender Gene Smith, unbeaten as a pro, stopped Billy Hill, former outstanding Golden Glover, after the second round.

TELEPHONE EXPANSION

To meet the continuing demand for telephone communications in Maryland, expenditures of $4,200,000 for the improvement and expansion of facilities, were authorized at the June meeting of the board of directors of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City.

Net tourney at Bethesda on July 3

Members of both races will participate in the annual Middle Atlantic tennis tournament scheduled for July 3 at Edgemoor Tennis Club in Bethesda.

Ernie Ingram, District tennis champion for several years, will lead a strong field of players including Edgar Lee, Perry Handy, Harold Freeman, Doris Miles Harrison, and Florence Barnes.

In the D.C. Recreation and D.C. Public Parks events Ernie Ingram reached the quarter finals and semi-finals, respectively, in singles.

Harold Freeman reached the semi-finals in the D.C. Recreation and 4th round in the Public Parks. Edgar Lee and Elton Handy reached the finals in doubles in the Public Parks event.

The Mall Tournament begins on July 26 at Rameker Courts, with Oscar Johnson and George Steward participating.

RUMMAGE SALE

The 14th District Health Center Committee will hold a rummage sale at 740 N. Gay St. on Friday evening and Saturday morning. Proceeds will help build a free Health Center and Clinic.
