Urge play facilities for new housing site

Recommendations with regard to indoor and outdoor recreational facilities for the projected Fremont housing development have been fowarded to the Housing Authority of Baltimore City.

These recommendations were prepared by a committee of the Division of Recreational and Educational Agencies of the Council of Social Agencies. The committee consisted of recreational specialists associated with a variety of recreational agencies in the city.

The recommendations for facilities included:

1. A community center facility which will include club rooms, lounges, a craft room and a kitchen.

"Playground Area

2. A three - acre playground area primarily for the use of children between the ages of six and 14, the construction of four tot lots distributed throughout the project which will be primarily for the pre - school children, and the utilization of all open space on the site for passive recreation areas where adults and family groups may gather.

The committee commended the Housing Authority for its plan to build play areas on each floor of the projected high-rise buildings.

The committee consisted of: Chairman F. William Stahl, YMCA; Theodore Brown, Bureau of Recreation; Major Douglas Eldredge, Red Shield Boys Club; Mrs. Mae Folkes, Bureau of Recreation; Franklyn Hochreiter, Housing Authority of Baltimore City; the Rev. Thomas Mardaga, Catholic youth Organization;

Carrie Meares, YWCA; Edward Minor, Housing Authority of Baltimore City; Samuel Owings, Department of Education; Yehuda Rosenman, Jewish Community Center; and Secretary, Abraham Makofsky, Council of Social Agencies.
