"Oh For A Heart To Praise My God"

GO TO THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY
AND JOIN IN WITH YOUR FAVORITE CHOIR SINGING THIS INSPIRATIONAL HYMN

HYMN OF THE MONTH

O FOR A HEART TO PRAISE MY GOD

O for a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free;
A heart that's sprinkled with the blood So freely shed for me.
O for a heart submissive, meek, My great Redeemer's throne,
Where only Christ is heard to speak, Where Jesus reigns alone.
Thy temper, gracious Lord, impart; Come quickly from above;
O write Thy name upon my heart! Thy new, best name of love.

MRS. ANNIE ROSS

—Oldest

being drafted into the Confederate Army.

ON ANOTHER occasion she remembered that Lincoln advised her uncle, George Campbor, "to stand up for his rights." Mrs. Ross's husband was a Union Army veteran who died a few years after their marriage.

She was born in Madison, Dorchester County, Md., and was married twice. Her second husband was the late Rev. Augustus Ross, a Methodist minister. Mrs. Ross's only child, Mrs. Viola Taylor, died 20 years ago.

Her brother, Andrew Camphor, died at the age of 106, and on her father's side of the family, one member reached the age of 122.

PRIOR TO her death Mrs. Ross was active to the extent that she attended church regularly, cared for Mrs. Jones' children, and a few years ago saw her first movie, stage show and TV performance.

WHEN SHE celebrated her 115th birthday she received congratulations from President Eisenhower, Gov. Theodore McKeldin, Senator John Marshall Butler and Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro.

In 1949 she was sent a congratulatory letter by Harry S. Truman when he was president.

Mrs. Ross was a member of the Orchard St. Methodist Church and in 1950 registered to vote for the first time.

She was under regular care at Hopkins because of a heart condition. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ross have been scheduled for 2 p.m. Monday at Orchard St. M.E. Church. Both the Mayor and Governor are expected to attend the services.

The body will be on view at Mrs. Ross's home on Friday. Burial will be in Mt. Calvary Cemetery. Funeral details are being handled by the Lewis A. Henry Funeral Home.

papers which provided that the church should be run by five trustees and stipulated the pastor was chairman of the trustees.

However, he stated, even though this was so on the incorporation papers, from the beginning the pastor had merely served as ex-officio chairman and a lay member had been elected trustee chairman.

In the past year, it is reported, the Rev. Mr. Payne has asked for a larger hand in management of the church's business affairs—membership on the banking and finance committee and has insisted that the incorporation papers give him this right.

Mr. Fitzhugh, on the other hand, has contended that the pastor is chairman in name only and the business affairs should be run by duly elected trustees. He was named chairman back in 1924.

AT THE MEETING six weeks ago Mr. Fitzhugh submitted his resignation, he was supported by Mr. Croxton, who likewise resigned.

The spark which set off the Fitzhugh resignation was a church meeting attended by 37 members at which a proposal was made that the Rev. Mr. Payne be made pastor for life.

Mr. Fitzhugh contended that a larger representation of the church's 2,000 members should be in attendance to pass such a motion which set a precedent. He was reportedly ruled out of order, and the motion to make the Rev. Mr. Payne pastor for life was passed.

Subsequently, at a meeting following the morning service, the proposal to place the pastor on the banking and checking account committee was likewise passed after objections from Mr. Fitzhugh were overruled.

A REPORT that the members also disagreed on a proposal to assume responsibility for the pastor's income tax payments was branded as untrue.

One member of the church who joined 43 years ago told the AFRO that Mr. Fitzhugh is "one of our finest members." He declined use of his name, however.

He said that this is the first time an Enon trustee has resigned since he has belonged to the church.

He added: "Mr. Fitzhugh and Mr. Croxton are strictly honest. When the church was organized by the Rev. James Watkins we had five officers and the Rev. Mr. Watkins never served.

"We elected our trustee chairman. Now after 42 years the Rev. Mr. Payne says he is chairman."

MR. CROXTON likewise admitted to the AFRO on Thursday that he had resigned from the trustee board. He said he had written his letter of resignation in April and would rather not discuss his reasons.

He did say, however, that he was "generally dissatisfied" with the way things were going and felt he could no longer serve on the trustee board under the circumstances.

Mr. Croxton said the main duty of the church trustees is to handle financial business of the church, count and bank the money, pay bills, sign checks and handle other business matters.

He would not discuss a report that the Rev. Mr. Payne had received some of these duties himself.

BOTH MR. Fitzhugh and Mr. Croxton, in addition to being leaders in the church, are leaders in Masonic circles here.

Mr. Fitzhugh is grand treasurer of Maryland Masons and treasurer general of the Supreme Council, Southern Jurisdiction, Prince Hall Masons.

Mr. Croxton, who operates a private limousine service, is district deputy grand master of the First Masonic District and a past officer in several departments.

The Rev. Mr. Payne told the AFRO that after consulting with his church officials he would, if they agreed, make a full statement.

He did say, however, that Enon Church is run on the basis orf its charter, and that in a democracy people have a right to disagree.

ENON CHURCH is considered one of the wealthiest and biggest in the city. It owns its own property at Edmondson Ave. and Schroeder St. which it occupied in 1951, when it moved to its present site from Park Ave. near Dolphin St. It paid $35,000 for the new property, with a cash down payment of $14,000.

It reportedly pays the Rev. Mr. Payne $150 a week as pastor and also makes periodic gifts of money to him for his faithful service.

For example, the church helped finance a trip to the Holy Land for the Rev. Mr. Payne.

He is the third pastor of the church which was founded in 1883 by the Rev. Jones Wesley. The other pastor was the Rev. Joshua Green who served from 1921 to 1923.

The Rev. Mr. Payne came to Enon in May, 1923. He was formerly assistant pastor at Abyssinian Baptist Church, NYC.

When he took over there were 150 members. Today the membership numbers over 3,000, at least 2,000 of whom are active.

Rites held for J. Woodlon, South Baltimore pioneer

Funeral services for John Woodlon, 67, 909 Warner St., pioneer of South Baltimore, were held last week at John Wesley Methodist Church.

The pastor, the Rev. Charles Johnson, officiated. Interment was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.
