Dr. R. D. Wilkinson resigns as National Alumni head

Dr. Rachel D. Wilkinson, member of the Education Department of Hunter College of the City of New York, last week resigned as executive secretary of the National Alumni Association at the tenth annual meeting of the organization held April 15-16 on the campus of Morgan State College.

Dr. Wilkinson had served the organization for 10 years, and was present and active at the organizational meeting held on the campus of the Winston-Salem Teachers College.

The body appointed Dr. Wilkinson as chairman of the Advisory Board of the group, and gave her an engraved silver dresser set as a token of appreciation and for the presentation and style of her annual report to the body.

G. W. CONOLY, alumni executive secretary of Florida A. and M. University and former president of the National Alumni Association, was elected to succeed secretary of the organization prior to being elected president of the group two years ago.

A. T. Pearson, alumni executive secretary of S.C. State College, was elected president of the National Alumni Association at the two-day session where 38 of the 55 member institutions were represented.

Two of the annual trophies were won by Arkansas A.M. and A. College and were accepted by Mrs. Vhanee B. McHenry, alumni secretary of the college.

The third trophy was won by Savannah State College, and was accepted by Mrs. Josie B. Sessions, alumni secretary of the college.

SOME CHANGES were made in the area organization of the group, with states rearranged to make a total of seven areas rather than the former eight.

Area Five will now include Alabama as well as Florida and Georgia. Area 6 will now be composed of Louisiana and Mississippi. Area seven will be composed of Texas, Missouri, Arkansas, and Oklahoma.

The Area presidents are Frank J. Ellis of Baltimore, Area 1; Mrs. Christine J. Dillard of Virginia State, Area II; Dr. James A. Colston of Bennett College, Area II; J. D. Marshall of S.C. State College, Area IV; Wilton Scott of Savannah State College, Area V; A. D. Fobbs of Alcorn College, Area 6; Mrs. Mary V. Thompson of Huston - Tillotson College, Area 7.

THE OTHER officers elected for the new year are W. S. Demby of Alcorn A. and M. College, first vice president; Wilton C. Scott of Savannah State College, second vice president; Mrs. Susie S. Hilliard of the Winston-Salem Teachers College, assistant secretary; J. W. McPherson of Claflin College, chaplain; and N. A. Sweets of Lincoln University Missouri, parliamentarian.

The 1956 annual meeting will be held April 6-7 on the campus of the Winston-Salem Teachers College. The theme of the meeting will be "Ten Years of Progress—Pass and Future."

CAPITOL SPOTLIGHT:

High Court page still wears knickers

By LOIS TAYLOR

WASHINGTON, D.C., (NNPA)—Spectators at the U S u p r e m e Court hearing on the school segregation cases last week watched with interest a husky — faced, brown-skinned youth, first of his race to serve as a page at the high tribunal.

He is Charles H. Bush, 15, son of the educational director at Howard University.

The pages still wear navy blue suits with baggy knickers and long black stockings, despite efforts in recent years to permit them to bring their attire up to date.

They help seat the justices, carry messages, usher in distinguished visitors and perform other miscellaneous chores in the courtroom.

* * *

CHARLES HAD the task of replenishing the water-glasses at the table where the attorneys in the school cases presented their arguments.

A poised, pleasant spoken lad, he says he likes attending the special school for pages. He plays on the basketball team and is a reporter and member of the business staff for the yearbook.

Proceedings during the hearings were helped considerably by special arrangements made for them by Bert Whittington, police officer at the Supreme Court.

Seated in the velvet-curtained side loges reserved for them, reporters previously had difficulty hearing what was said during the evening. But Officer Bert had set up amplifiers near the loges and the reporters heard everything.

* * *

THEY ALSO found chairs, tables, and paper nearby, and down in the press room there were extra typewriters — again thanks to Bert.

The colored spectators visited the court than were on hand for earlier hearings in the school case. In December, 1953, tan citizens outnumbered whites almost eight to one. Last week the ratio was reversed.

Burma S. Whitted of D.C., prominent in school and civic affairs, was among the few Washingtonians who sat through the entire four - day proceedings. Another was Dr. Ambrose Caliver.

Back from a flight to Miami, where Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., held its 1956 convention, pretty Miss Pat Roberts, executive secretary of the sorority, spent Tuesday at the high court.

D.C. SCHOOL officials present included Dr. Harold A. Hayes and Supt. Hobart M. Corning who, as one daily put it, expected bouquets for de-segregating the Washington school system and got brickbats instead.

George E. C. Hayes and James M. Nabrit told the court how Corning had to be constantly prodded to get de-segregation going in the schools, and how he repeatedly said he couldn't do at once things which he later accomplished promptly, with no difficulty at all.

Mrs. Olivia Womack, who teaches at Washington High School in Greensboro, N.C., was one of the out-of-towners who made sure of admittance when the court convened on Monday. She and her Washington hostess, Mrs. Luvenia Miller of 134 Rhode Island, came to the court building at 7:30 a.m.

ANOTHER EARLY bird was Dr. G. James Fleming, former newspaper editor, who is now a professor at Morgan State College.

J. Rupert Picott, executive secretary of the Virginia Teachers Association, listened to the argument on a stopover en route to Richmond from Boston where he attended a session of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity. He is first vice president of the fraternity.

White attorneys from one Southern state were so impressed with the legal dexterity of Spottswood Robinson, attorney in the Virginia case, that they found it hard to believe that he was not a Negro and asked reporters if Robinson were really colored.
