Seek Rights bill vote in committee

Two-hour hearing Wednesday draws over 300 to Annapolis

The Senate and House judiciary committee votes on the two Civil Rights Bills, are expected to be cast today (Friday).

Senator Harry Cole and Delegate Emory Cole, authors of the measures, said they would make every effort to bring the bills to a vote in their respective committees at this time.

Should the measures fail to get the committee's approval, both representatives have the power to petition the bills to the floors of the House and Senate where all delegates and senators will have the opportunity to discuss the proposed legislation.

• • •

ON WEDNESDAY, a joint committee hearing was held concerning the bills in the House chambers. Over 300 persons, including Samuel Daniel's sixth grade class from School No. 118, attended from all sections of the state.

Some 18 clergy, civic and labor representatives spoke in favor of the bill. There were only two opponents, both of whom admitted they approved integration but with some reservation.

During the orderly two-hour hearing, the visitors listened intently and applauded two of the speakers, Mrs. Juanita Mitchell, attorney, speaking for the NAACP branches throughout the state, and Bishop Edgar Love of the Washington Conference of the Methodist Church.

Using specific examples of racial intolerance in Maryland and the United States, Mrs. Mitchell emphasized the point that Communists use these endorsed practices of discrimination as a potent weapon against the government.

• • •

"THE MOST powerful answer to Communist argument is the recent Supreme Court decision of May 17, 1954, in which the highest court of our land made the American dream of democracy for all a living reality in the public schools," she said.

She also referred to the Asian-African conference which is being held next month in Indonesia where dark-skinned representatives will meet to discuss problems of "racialism and colonialism."

"This meeting dramatizes a fact which is frequently overlooked in our world political thinking that two thirds of the people of the world are colored," she pointed out.

The United States and European nations, where white people are in the majority, have not been invited as yet, she added.

• • •

BISHOP LOVE spoke of his recent experiences while touring 26 Asian countries. "I talked to over 25,000 students in the schools and everywhere I went they asked me about racial conditions here in Maryland and the United States," he said.

"I am a Christian and I told them about the truth of the situation here," he asserted.

The opinion of the clergy was expressed in a statement by the Rev. Richard J. Swift, pastor, St. Monica's Catholic Church, who represented the Archdiocese of Baltimore, headed by Archbishop Francis M. Keough.

• • •

"DISCRIMINATION is immoral," he said, stressing the fact that Catholics are morally obligated to end segregation in Maryland.

Although in favor of opening the doors to state parks, restaurants and hotels, one opponent, Edgar Kalb, of Mayo, Md., and owner of the Chesapeake Bay beach properties, requested that private beaches be eliminated from the bill.

He admitted that segregation practices at state beaches was a violation of the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. On the other hand, he said, to integrate private beaches would be violating Article 23 of the Maryland Constitution which refers to property.

• • •

CITING THE pending NAACP beach cases before the Federal Court of Appeals, he said, "In the event the decision is favorable then colored races will have equal rights to Fort Smallwood, Sandy Point, Ocean City, North Beach, Colonial Beach, Virginia Beach and other state and municipal parks.

"There will be no shortage of beaches for the colored and there is no need for them to impose on private bathing houses."

He predicted a race riot would occur should integration be allowed at beaches in Southern Maryland where "people have not reached the status to operate on ar equal basis."

• • •

NELSON BUSICK, manager-director of the Lord Baltimore Hotel, who represented the Maryland Hotel Association, made the same argument to the legislators that he made sometime ago in Baltimore regarding the opening of hotels.

"This matter should be settled by public opinion and not by legislation," he suggested. "The hotels' policy today is based on the present opinion of those they serve.

"Unfortunate results will come about if they are forced to open to colored. The resentment by a few whites would do more harm than the present setup."

• • •

HE SAID that integration in the hotels was working on a voluntary gradual scale in that colored were permitted to eat at dinners where the majority of the guests were white."

Describing the operation of the bill were Thomas Bogia, Field Services Coordinator of the New Jersey Division against Discrimination, Department of Education, and James Guinan, director, St. Peter Claver's Center, Washington.

The Maryland proposal is patterned after those endorsed in these two areas.

• • •

MR. BOGIA advised that a commission, similar to the one in his state, be established to keep grievances from going to court. He pointed out that of the 2,000 cases which have arisen in New Jersey, in the past 10 years, all have been handled by the commission. Only five had to be submitted to public hearings. None of the cases went to court.

Other speakers included Linwood Koger Sr., and W. Emerson Brown Jr., Monumental Bal Association; the Revs McQuay Kish, CORE; J. O. Williams, Urban League; and Richard Vieth, Baltimore Fellowship.

Also Robert Noyer, PTA; Mrs. Audrey Schmid, CIO; James Mitchell, Elks, Bernard Link, ADA, and the Rev. Marcus Wood.

The Rev. Mr. Wood is chairman of the Citizens' Committee which conducted the hearing of the proponents. The director was Jay McRae, attorney.

• • •

OTHERS WHO were present but not permitted to speak due to the time element were:

The Rev. Nathaniel Wicks, Baptist Ministers Conference of Baltimore; Mrs. Doris Shamleffer, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom; John Eberly, Board of Social Education and Action Church of Brethren and Miss Emily Simon, Maryland Civil Liberties Commission.

A letter from the Rev. Don Frank Fen, pastor, Church of St. Michael and All Angels, who was unable to attend, was read at the hearing.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H.® The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. *Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

IS THIS FAMILY Negro or white?

They said it couldn't happen in America but it did! A sheriff in a small Florida resort town took it upon himself to decide whether the Platt family was white or Negro. How did he make his decision? Was it broad noses and brown skin? Was it kinky, curly hair or straight hair?

Is the family really Negro or is it white? Read the sensational real life story of the Platt family and their fight to be recognized and accepted for what they really are. Read "Florida Sheriff Calls White Family Black" in the April issue of EBONY magazine now on your newsstand.

WHAT is the "NEGRO LOOK"?

Some people, like the Florida sheriff, have a popular idea of the Negro look. Through intermarriage and racial mixtures, the "Negro look" has become diluted, watered down and changed. Is the Negro look a social and business handicap? How should Negro children be raised to accept the idea of the "Negro look"? Should Negroes try to change their outward physical appearance to look less Negro? Read the controversial photo-editorial "Be Proud of the Negro Look" in the April issue of EBONY magazine. Learn how to live harmoniously with the racial characteristics that the Good Lord gave you.

HOW DID SAMMY DAVIS MAKE HIS COMEBACK?

He knocked them for a loop, this little ball of fire who had lost an eye in an automobile accident. He was so scared before his comeback appearance at Ciro's in Hollywood, that he almost didn't go on. CHECKING THE WEIGHT — Leslie Heaynes, crowned 132-pound Open champion in the State Boxing Tourney, is checked on the scales by Bob Connolly, one of the tournament officials. Heaynes won a split decision verdict over Hames Hollman in the title match of the division.

SOME OF THE FANS who were on hand for the semi-finals and finals of the Maryland State amateur boxing championships, held last week at the Coliseum. An annual event, the 1955 tournament was said by South Atlantic AAU officials to have been one of the most largely attended in the history of integrated amateur boxing in the state. The tourney is the first of a series to be held in Baltimore, from which qualifiers are selected to represent Maryland in the AAU Championships in Kansas City in May. The South Atlantic meet will be staged at the Coliseum next month. All photos on this page by AFRO Staff Photographer I. Henry Phillips.
