"Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

GO TO THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY

AND JOIN IN WITH YOUR FAVORITE CHOIR SINGING THIS INSPIRATIONAL HYMN

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing.

Come, Thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise;
Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount, O fix me on it, Mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I raise my Ebenezer; Hither by Thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure, Safely to arrive at home:
Jesus sought me when a stranger, Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to save my soul from danger, Interposed His precious blood.

O, to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter, Bind my wandering heart to Thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it; Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart; Lord, take and seal it; Seal it from Thy courts above.

Here's the secret millions have discovered about this new chewing-gum laxative. FEEN-A-MINT is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it removes mostly waste—not good food! You see, FEEN-A-MINT doesn't work in the stomach, where food is being digested. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need to digest.

But FEEN-A-MINT does work in the lower bowel . . . removes mostly waste, and gently at that.

So to feel like a million, do as millions do. Chew delicious FEEN-A-MINT and feel full of life and energy! Get FEEN-A-MINT

Words To Live By

By Rev. Robert T. Newbold
Pastor, Grace Presbyterian Church, Baltimore

"Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem . . . suffer . . . and be killed."

There is a note of compulsion in these words. "The action of the Master was not elective." His words were not those of indecision. Instead there was urgency in them.

If God's plan for man's redemption were to be fulfilled, Jesus had to go to Jerusalem. There was no other way his mission could be accomplished. Indeed "He must go to Jerusalem."

It seems to be an inescapable law of life that the path of progress; the way of the redemption and love leads one by way of Jerusalem. And Jerusalem is not merely a city of temples buried in ancient history.

• • •

IT IS a symbol of the fickleness, hypocrisy, and pride that form the gate-way to Calvary. Any man who accepts the Master's way of life will find that he too must frequently come face to face with Jerusalem.

The statement of Jesus further points out that he was going to Jerusalem to suffer. What will he suffer? He was humiliated. The crown of thorns, the mock royal array were all for the purpose of humiliating him.

DO NOT be naive enough to think for a moment it will be different for you. Do not dream that in a second but Jesus' way of life will allow you to detour these experiences. There is no detour!

AS REPULSIVE as the thought may be, the Christian way of life is way of security under God oftentimes leads to Jerusalem where one must be willing to suffer humiliation.

The statement of Jesus also makes clear he was going to Jerusalem to die. How much do we wish to rid ourselves of the word death. We eliminate from our conversation. We try to black it out of our minds.

But stubbornly it resists us, it will not leave. It will not leave because, although strange as it may seem, death opens the gates of life.

The death of Jesus opened the way for eternal life. Likewise daily death of selfishness and prejudice opens up the way to a happy life for one and all.

Truly, Jesus is fulfilling his role as the redeemer of mankind, had to go to Jerusalem, suffer, and die. As co-redeemers of our society and our fellowmen, this Lenten season should find us that we too can do no less.

Price issues platform; says he's anti-Pollack

Moving into the last week of the city-wide primary election, Arthur B. Price released his platform from the Price for Mayor headquarters.

Mr. Price, Democratic candidate for mayor, is married and has four children, three sons and a daughter. He has had 30 years of successful business activities, beginning as a news boy and working as a longshoreman at Locust Point.

As a City Councilman from the Third District, from 1944 to 1947 he was chairman of the Rules Committee on traffic control and many other important committees.

He has been active in leading the fight for new and improved schools, playgrounds, recreational facilities and the development of Baltimore's port and aviation potentialities.

WHEN THE Equal Opportunities Bill came up in the City Council last year, Mr. Price, as President of the City Council, vetoed yes and voted first on the Bill.

In commenting on his stand on such legislation, Mr. Price says, "race, religion or national origin will play no part in my administrative appointments, I will be just, fair and impartial, I will serve all of the people."

In the interest of the people, Mr. Price claims that "if there were to be an emergency in our city, we couldn't move great masses of people away from any danger area with our present transportation system.

"I will exercise the necessary courage, foresight and determination to build a subway system for Baltimore, on a self-liquidation basis, at no cost to the taxpayer. New York has had a subway since 1905.

OTHER POINTS on his platform include the following:

2. Drive corruption and favoritism, waste and mismanagement from City Hall.

3. Combat the monopolistic practices of the National City Lines and Baltimore Transit Company which have no seriously affected local transit service.

4. Promote and protect our City's port and aviation potentialities so that Baltimore may fulfill its full role as a crossroads of the world with sea, air and railroad lines converging and mutually flourishing in our city.

5. Reorganize the wage scale for municipal employees.

6. Inaugurate the use of the modern performance budget for City Government, which would abolish the present budget—itemized system and giving the people a budget showing exactly what return the City obtains on each dollar.

7. Remove the "Hour of Darkness" bid-acceptance procedure at City Hall which keeps all bids hidden from public view for an hour before they are opened.

8. ASSURE the construction of an adequate modern sports arena and convention facilities required for a City serving more than a million people.

9. Remove the "politics abovepay" policy now prevailing in most city departments, and give permanent status to hundreds of employees kept dangling on a political thread as per-diem city laborers, thereby affording a sense of security and improved morals within the departments, and providing better municipal service for our citizens.

10. This candidacy is completely free of political domination
