Miss Catharine O. Lee is married to Paul Hargrove

Miss Catharine O. Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gordon, of 4418 St. Georges Ave., Govans, became the bride of Paul Hargrove in Union Memorial Methodist Church, Sunday.

The Rev. N. B. Carrington officiated. Mrs. Henrietta Johns was soloist and Mr. Johnson was at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blue lace over taffeta. Her shoulder length veil of matching net fell from a coronet trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

MRS. AUDRA AMOS, matron of honor, was gowned in pink lace over taffeta and wore a matching hat.

Jack Hargrove was best man and ushers were Wilson Amos, H. Oram and James Armstrong.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall of the church.

Miss Shirley Mae Loggins fiancee of John Ross Jr.

...with Lula Jones Garrett

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Loggins, of Walbrook Ave., announced, this week, the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Mae, to John A. Ross Jr.

Mr. Ross is the son of Mrs. Cora F. Ross of Jacksonville, Fla. and Mr. Ross of this city. He attended Hampton Institute and is currently in the United States Air Force.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Morgan State and a student of Catholic University, is a Delta Sigma Theta soror and on the staff of Associated Catholic Charities.

The wedding date has not been set.

THIS WEEK'S SOCIAL NEWS has as much to do with what we will do this week end as to what we have done during the past days.

There'll be dancing a-plenty... with the Wagons (Baltimore and Washington) hosting at the American Legion Hall in Towson; the Savants holding forth at the New Albert Hall; (both on Friday) and the Ballinger Royals at Odd Fellows' Hall, Saturday night.

There are two important parties over the week end. Mrs. Ethel J. Day will be guest of honor when the Association of Municipal Employees have a testimonial dinner at the YWCA, Saturday evening. On Sunday afternoon (from 4 to six) Iota chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority will have their Foundrers' Day tea in the Union Memorial Methodist Church. They will have Dr. Jeannette Veatch of Goucher College as speaker and the Knox Chorale, under direction of Mrs. Mercedes Douglass, will sing.

THE REV. MR. AND MRS. BENJAMIN F. JACKSON were married in Charlotte, N.C., recently. The clergyman is pastor of Fulton Baptist Church; Baltimore, and his bride, the former Louise Hare, a teacher at Plato Price High School, Charlotte.

Rev. Jackson, Miss Hare wed

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Miss Louise Hare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wardlaw Hare Sr. of this City became the bride of the Rev. Benjamin F. Jackson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson of Baltimore, Md. recently in the Friendship Baptist Church here.

The Rev. Coleman W. Kerry Jr. officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Charles McRae, organist.

Coker Hare was best man and ushers include John Thompson, Coker Hare, William Erwin Sr. and Walter N. Stevenson, all of Charlotte.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a regal gown of white satin modeled with a fitted bodice, a bateau neckline outlined with a vertin of embroidered Alencon lace and trimmed with paillette. Her bouffant skirt of satin fell to a Cathedral train.

Her formal veil of illusion was attached to a halo of the Alencon lace, over satin, applique with the paillette motif. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid from which fell white satin streamers.

MRS. LAURA MAE ERWIN of this city, was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Hare of Greenville, S.C., Mrs. Louise Davis (Hare of Montclair, N.J., and Mrs. Dorothy Hare Lewis and Mrs. Lou Vera Hare of this city.

Freddie Davis was ring bearer, and flower girls were Vanay McCain, and Sandra Davis.

A reception was given by the bride's parents after the ceremony in the Sunday School room of the church.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are attending a variety. They will be received the Master of Arts degree from New York University. Prior to her marriage she taught at Plato Price high school, Charlotte. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, and the National Association of College Women.

THE REV. MR. JACKSON was graduated from Morgan State College. He received the B. D. and Master of Arts degrees from Howard University, and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Lynchburg Seminary and College. He specialized in religious education at Clayton Williams University, Baltimore.

He is a mason, and a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. He is a member of the Benefit Board of the National Baptist Convention and the Education Board of the Maryland Baptist State Convention. He is now professor of New Testament exegesis at the Baptist School of Religion, at Baltimore, and pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church.

ROYAL STAR — The savings club met with Mrs. Bertha Kersey of 1602 Spray Court.

Plans were discussed for a hobo game and dance. Mrs. Hazel Martin of 710 E. 20th St. will be hostess at the meeting.

DORCUS—The welfare society of the Berea (Temple Seventh Day Adventist Church gave a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Patsy A. Martin of 420 Robert St. Monday. The honoree marked her 80th birthday.
