HYMN OF THE MONTH

"O For A Closer Walk With God"

GO TO THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY

AND JOIN IN WITH YOUR FAVORITE CHOIR SINGING THIS INSPIRATIONAL HYMN

O FOR A CLOSER WALK WITH GOD

O for a closer walk with God, A calm and heav'nly frame,
A light to shine upon the road that leads me to the Lamb!

Where is the blessedness I knew when first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view of Jesus and His word?

What peaceful hours I then enjoyed! How sweet their mem'ry still!
But they have left an aching void the world can never fill.

Return, O Holy Dove, return, Sweet Messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn, and drove Thee from my breast.

Rev. J. M. Raynor marks 10th year at Concord

Celebrating his 10th anniversary as pastor of Concord Baptist Church, the Rev. J. M. Raynor was honored at a reception, Friday.

The church presented him a check for $1,000 through Bruce Service, acting for Willie Scott, chairman of the trustee board. An additional sum of $365 was presented by Mrs. Bessie Mathews, deaconess, on behalf of the church auxiliaries.

Flowers were presented to Mrs. Raynor. Some 200 persons attended the service with Mrs. Erma Cofield as mistress of ceremonies and the Rev. Ward D. Yerby as toastmaster.

* * *

GUEST SPEAKERS were J. Howard Payne, attorney, the Rev. V. T. Williams, president of the Baptist Ministers Conference and Mrs. Mabel T. Stokes, president of the Sunday School and BTU Convention of Maryland.

Mrs. Emma O. Williams was presented by the church.

REV. J. M. RAYNOR

When the Rev. Mr. Raynor came to Concord Church at Franklin and Poppleton Sts., there were fewer than 100 members. Today, the membership is more than 1,500.

Ten years ago, the church had an indebtedness of $15,000. Under the Rev. Mr. Raynor's administration, the debt was clear within three years. Since then, renovations have been made at a cost of $16,000.

* * *

THE CHURCH has 16 organizations, seven singing groups, a board of 22 deacons, headed by William Jones and a 10-man trustee board with Willie Scott as chairman. The church is 26 years old.

The minister came to Concord Church from an 11-year pastorate in Goldsboro, N.C. A native of Dunn, N. C., he is a graduate of Shaw University.

He is married to Mrs. Virginia Sutton Raynor, a graduate of Fayetteville (N.C.) State Teachers' College and a former teacher in Cumberland County, N.C.

* * *

THE ANNIVERSARY celebration will be extended from Oct. 25 through Nov. 11 with nightly services with guest ministers including:

The Rev. Messrs. Oliver G. M. Harris, W. L. Clayton, N. H. Toyer, J. L. Tilley, D. S. Thompson, Thomas B. Davis, J. L. Green, V. T. Williams, G. M. Grandison, N. H. Wicks; Page, J. T. Boddie, W. H. Thompson, H. L. Long, S. B. Redd and W. D. Yerby.

Teacher drive in all schools

Washington and District PTAs meet

WASHINGTON

The Washington Congress of Parents and Teachers is working with the District Congress of PTAs on the plan to recruit public school teachers according to Robert F. Brooks, president of the all-colored group.

"We need teachers for all our schools and all our children" Mr. Brooks said Saturday.

The PTA official made the statement after plans had been announced by the District Congress for an intensified teacher recruitment program.

School officials have stated that there are not enough instructors to replace teachers who suddenly leave the system on maternity leave and for other reasons.

Mr. Brooks, who heads the Washington Congress, said details are still being worked out for a merger with the District Congress and a statement would be released in a few days.

"An intergroup committee met to discuss the matter this week" he said. Plans for the merger of the two groups were first announced last spring.

Deaths

MRS. IANTHE C. MALLORY

Funeral services for Mrs. Ianthe Clark Mallory, 76, who died at her home on Tuesday, will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at Union Baptist Church.

No happiness seen without gratitude

Minister says attitudes are source of happiness

By REV. JAMES MOORE

There is no real happiness without gratitude. How happy a person is depends upon the depth of his gratitude.

The unhappy person has little gratitude toward life, other people, the church and God.

Real happiness has its source in attitudes which are not affected by outward conditions and circumstances.

* * *

WHATEVER happens, even if it is the worst, the grateful heart is still happy because its happiness has its source in attitudes which time, distance, decay, disaster or death cannot change or take away.

The grateful person is free from the pride of possession.

He has accepted life's basic fact that everything he has is a gift, a sacred trust to be used not only for self but for others. The grateful person is not obsessed with the attitude that the universe should turn on its axis just for him.

He is not thrown into a tailspin every time something does not turn out just as he planned it.

* * *

THE GRATEFUL person is happy because he is free from the grip of all diseases, envy.

The ungrateful person is tormented not only by ill fortune which may befall him, but by the good fortune of other people.

His ingratitude makes him miserable at another's joy or success and causes him to belittle and deprecate the goodness or excellence in others he cannot attain himself.

* * *

THE GRATEFUL person is happy because he is without envy. He sees good in all things. Even in the worst of men he looks for the best.

Many people would feel a freedom and a happiness they have never known if they accepted for themselves the fact that nothing they have is really their own but a gift that has been given them for a time to sacred trust to be used for the sake of others.

* * *

THE GRATEFUL person is happy because he has accepted the fact that it is more important to be somebody than to be able to do something.

He believes that making a life is more important than making a living.

The grateful person is happy whether he is a one, two, or ten talent man, because he considers it more important to be somebody than to be able to do something.

* * *

THE GRATEFUL PERSON has a happiness in his heart which no outward circumstances can take away.

The ungrateful person keeps himself miserable wishing he were some other place, imagining what a better life he would live if he were in another job, another school.

The ungrateful lives in the past or future.

* * *

A WOMAN said to her physician: "Doctor, when I compelled with these restless longings for the glamorous and far away?"

The doctor replied: "My dear lady, they are the usual symptoms of too much comfort in the home and too much ingratitude in the heart."

* * *

THE GRATEFUL person settles down where he is and makes of it at that particular place and happy serving what the moment the best place in the world.

The kind of life you find in a particular place is nothing but the reflecting of your life within.

The kind of people you find anywhere are not the projection of the kind of person you are.

* * *

THE GRATEFUL person concentrated person never notices, never what he leaves behind building on things that cannot be taken away.

The real values of life are unshaken. Only the grateful heart can put a happy look upon a human face. There is no happiness without gratitude.

"It was ungrateful and complained because I had no shoes —until I met a man who had no feet." (Arabian Proverb).

Are you grateful for what God has done and can do for you? Go to the church of your choice this Sunday and thank Him for Life's Blessings.

Fellowship group to hold open house

On Saturday, Nov. 27, open house will be held at the Baltimore Fellowship House, 21 W. Preston St.

In observance of Fellowship Week, a program has been planned for Friday, Nov. 26 at 8 p.m. A group of visitors from Philadelphia are expected.

Early Saturday, together with teen-agers from Baltimore, they will start a clean-up, paint-up job at Fellowship House.

The week-end work camp will be supervised by Miss Mitzi Jacoby, full-time High School Fellowship director in Philadelphia, Vernon Hoffman, director, brethern volunteer service in Baltimore, and the Rev. John L. Tilley, co-chairman of the Baltimore Fellowship.

Sunday morning the entire group will visit a nearby church for morning services.

Quaker financiers give U.S. Steel Co. lesson in democracy

TREVOSE, Pa. — Two families — one white, the other colored—are occupants of the first section of 28 homes now under construction here in an experiment in interracial living in Bucks County, home of U.S. Steel's lily - white Levittown.

Surrounded by Federal and state officials, religious and civic leaders, George Grier, white research engineer, and his wife, Eunice, shook hands with their new neighbors, Charley Henry, a machine operator, and his wife, Victoria.

The Henrys were the first of their race to purchase one of the 20,000 new homes in the county. Their home is in a project in which more than 65 persons, most of them Quakers, invested some $150,000.

Annual apron sale to benefit nurses

Provident Guild sponsors annual fete on Dec. 9

The Ladies Guild of Provident Hospital plans to offer a scholarship each year to a Maryland student with good high school rating and a desire for professional nursing.

To raise the necessary funds, the Guild will sponsor an annual Apron and Bake Sale in the Student Nurses Home, 1528 Division St. on December 9 from 7 to 10 p.m.

This is a $600 project because it must cover the full three year course required for state and national license. The aprons are donated to the Guild by members and friends. In the case of persons desiring to donate who cannot sew, money or material is given.

Mrs. Mae C. Barnes, 1833 Madison Ave. is general chairman of the project. The Apron Committee: Mrs. Theoheatas Tyler, Mrs. Catherine Murphy, Mrs. Luvada Roane.
