Cyclist killed at Vista Park

Arlington burial set for Fred Kutch

WASHINGTON

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. in Mt. Zion Church, 12th and M Sts. NW, today (Friday) for Fred Kutch, motorcycle racer, who was killed at the Vista Park (Md.) Speedway on Sunday.

Mr. Kutch, who would have been 35 years old on Nov. 3, was the son of Mrs. Edna K. Somerville of Baltimore, where he was born and reared and where he was a member of Emmanuel Methodist Church.

— o O o —

THE REV. GEORGE A. Keller will officiate at the funeral today which will be followed by burial in Arlington Cemetery.

A veteran of World War II, during which he served in Europe, Mr. Kutch was employed as a mechanic at the Metropolitan Police Department garage. He lived with his family at 1460 Eastern Ave., NE.

EYEWITNESSES AT Sunday's tragedy said that Mr. Kutch finished second in the race in which Marvin Shaw of Philadelphia finished first.

Both drivers were unable to stop immediately, it was reported, and as they passed a curve on the dirt road, the motors touched and Mr. Kutch was thrown into the air.

Some spectators said that his head struck a tree. He was taken to Prince Georges County Hospital with a fractured skull and other injuries and died Sunday night without regaining consciousness.

the races on Sunday was Mr. Kutch's wife, Mrs. Sallie M. Kutch, 27, who is expecting a child within a few weeks. A daughter, Barbara Jean, 8, also survives.

A member of the Throttle Twisters Club, Mr. Kutch had been racing for about a year and was considered a star rider in the club. He won several races during recent months.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, daughter, and mother, include his grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Dorsey of Baltimore; four brothers, M/Sgt. George R. Kutch, now stationed in Kentucky, and James, Emerson and Dorsey Kutch, all of Baltimore; and three sisters, Mesdames Margaret Harriday and Ernestine Palmer and Miss Mildred Kutch, also of Baltimore.

Man seeks relatives in Baltimore

A former Baltimorean, now a resident in Detroit, Mich., is in town looking for his two brothers and two sisters.

The man is William Johnson of 401 Medbury St., Detroit. Now stopping at the York Hotel, Mr. Johnson is seeking his brothers, John and Charles and his sisters, Carrie and Amanda. He will be in town until Sunday.

Mr. Johnson says his sister Amanda at one time lived in Catonsville and when the family was last together they lived at 318 Vincent Alley.

That was a long time ago, Mr. Johnson admits.

— o O o —

HE SAYS he and his brothers and sisters went to the Mount Street School and his mother, Mrs. Rachel Johnson, worked for a family named Logan who owned a saloon on the corner of Saratoga and Gilmor Sts.

He says the Logans had a daughter, Eleanor, who would be about 53 years old now.

Mr. Johnson also remembers his brother John was in the army in 1918 and lived at one time in Newport News, Va. He hasn't heard from him since, however.

In the meantime, Mr. Johnson is hoping that he will be able to locate some of his relatives before he leaves Baltimore on Sunday.

CPL. JIGGETTS IS STATIONED ABROAD

Cpl. Lionel E. Jiggetts, husband of Mrs. Crystal Jiggetts, 1612 Braddish Ave., is on duty with the Ninth Infantry Division Band in Germany. He has been in the Army since April 1953, and on overseas duty ince Oct. 1953.

Adams involved in car accident

Wendell (Little Willie) Adams was involved in a minor traffic accident on Thursday afternoon at Eutaw and Franklin Sts. No one was injured.

Both Mr. Adams, who was driving a 1954 green Buick sedan, and Harold A. Shirer of the 1200 block Primrose Ave., who was driving a 1947 DeSoto, received summones to appear in traffic Court on Nov. 1 on reckless driving charges.

Damage to Mr. Adams' car was confined to the right front side where the fender had been knocked in and the bumper had been bent. There was no apparent damage to the other car.

LANE JAILS SUSPECT

Accused of molesting a three-year-old girl, Sherman Banks, 28, of the 1700 block W. Lanvale St., was sentenced to a year in the House of Correction on Monday in Northwestern police court.

The child who lives in the 900 block of Vincent St., said the man had attempted to assault her in the bedroom of her home. Banks denied the charge.

He blamed "another man" and said he was the victim of mistaken identity.

Postal clerk wins divorce

Says wife took 'every stitch'

Leroy High, postal clerk of 3036 Harlem Ave., won a divorce this week from Mrs. Juanita High on desertion charges.

The couple was married in July, 1947, and have a five-year-old son, Steven. The husband said his wife left him in December, 1951.

Asked did she take her clothing and personal effects at the time, Mr. High answered: "Every stitch." John R. Hargrove was his attorney.

CHARGING CRUELTY, Mrs. Evelyn Williams of 265 Hancock St., Brooklyn, N.Y., divorced Roland Williams of the 1900 block Walbrook Ave.

They had been married for 11 years, the wife testified, when in July, 1942, "I left him because of cruelty. He beat me into unconsciousness on the street. At the hospital, they told me my eardrums were damaged."

She said that only two weeks earlier "He hit me in the face and knocked off my eyeglasses." Her testimony was supported by her aunt, Mrs. Hattie Johnson of 1335 N. Calhoun St.

A MARRIED COUPLE employed by the same company was split up as John Pettiford, of 317 N. Gilmor St. divorced Mrs. Mary Pettiford of 2915 W. North Ave.

Both work for the Container Corporation of America.

They were married in February, 1952. Five months later, the husband said, "She left me. Said she wasn't satisfied with married life."

A waitress, Mrs. Dorothy Pinkett of 1047 Argyle Ave., won a divorce from Gilbert Pinkett, merchant marine of 405 N. Durham St.

The wife said that after five years of marriage in March, 1947, "We talked it over and agreed to separate since we couldn't agree to live together." They have two children.

MRS. LAURA WALKER, a cook of 1718 Harlem Ave., divorced Jefferson Walker of St. Louis, Mo. from whom she had been separated since February, 1946.

He didn't do anything to support me, to pay the rent or anything," the wife testified. "Then he went away and said he wasn't coming back."

All these complainants were represented by Roy S. Bond, attorney.

— o O o —

MRS. MARTHA Garnett of 525 N. Carey St. won a divorce from Granville Garnett, a contracting company employee of 1409 Edmondson Ave.

The wife maintained that "He wouldn't support me. I had to go to work and make my own living, so we just stopped living together as man and wife."

Married in February, 1927, the couple separated in April, 1943.

What makes a Lucky taste better?

"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!

"For some years now I've smoked nothing but Luckies," says William T. Andrews. "I smoke them for one reason: they taste better." Luckies taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—brings Luckies' fine tobacco to its peak of flavor . . . tones up this light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better—cleaner, fresher, smoother. That's our story pure and simple: a Lucky tastes better because it's the cigarette of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . . Lucky Strike.
