Provident nurses' aide guilty of thefts, gets probation

"Those who came in contact with you were shocked."

This statement was made by Judge James K. Cullen in Youth Court Tuesday to a 19-year-old former nurses' aide at Provident Hospital who pleaded guilty to forgery and four counts of larceny.

The defendant, Miss Viola Griffin, 19, 1300 block N. Gilmor St., was given a total of three and one half years in the Maryland Reformatory for Women by Judge Cullen. The jurist suspended the sentence, and placed the young woman on probation for the duration of her term.

Miss Griffin admitted in a statement to police that within the last two months she stole nearly $300 from fellow employees at Provident Hospital.

MISS GRIFFIN, wearing a pink dress with a white collar and a pair of white sandals, stood with her head bowed, and sobbed quietly as Judge Cullen imposed the sentence.

She received a two-year suspended sentence for forgery and four 18-month concurrent terms for larceny. Judge Cullen said the forgery and larceny penalties were to run consecutively, or a total of 42 months.

In her statement to Pine St. police Miss Griffin said on June 4 she took from a cabinet at Provident Hospital a purse containing a check for $91.49, the property of Miss Dorothy Gulton, 1700 block Thomas Ave.

Police said the young woman related that she forged Miss Gulton's name on the check and cashed it at a Pennsylvania Ave. men's shop when she purchased $17 worth of shirts.

* * *

ACCORDING to the statement, Miss Griffin admitted taking a total of $188 from Dr. Effie Ellis, a staff physician, on two occasions in May.

Miss Griffin also stated that on May 22 she took $18 from a purse belonging to Mrs. Margaret Pennington, 1400 block Chesapeake Ave.

The young woman said she used the money to pay bills and buy clothes in the statement signed at Pine St. Station on June 9.

Judge Cullen granted probation after studying a report on Miss Griffin from the probation department.

Prize Fund Now $2,710.05 Short

S-O-S call issued for donations

Although checks totalling $63 arrived in the Clean Block office Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in response to appeals for contributions to the Clean Block Prize Fund, it was still $2,710.05 short of its $3,000 goal.

Because reaching the total is of utmost importance another S-O-S call has gone out from the Clean Block office to civic minded clubs, businesses, churches and individuals to send in donations.

The need this year will be greater than ever, it was pointed out, because all indications are more boys and girls will be participating in this campaign than ever before.

* * *

ALL MONIES collected for the Prize Fund are used only for that purpose. The contributions are divided up to reward enterprising youngsters at the close of the campaign for difficult clean-up jobs well done.

None of the money is diverted for the operation of the drive. This expense is borne entirely by the AFRO.

The biggest shot-in-the-arm given the Prize Fund this week came from the M. Kovens Co., which sells furniture and wearing apparel at its big store, 1333-35-37 W. Baltimore St.

* * *

A LONG TIME friend of the AFRO Clean Block Campaign, the Kovens Co., increased its contribution this year to $25. The check was a welcome sight to Clean Block directors.

Other checks were received from the Women's Civic League, $10; the Men's Advisory Council of Emmanuel Christian Community Church, $5; Dr. M. L. Adams, $5; Charles K. Anderson, manager of Poe Homes, $5; and Mrs. Edward Miller, $3.

232 more enroll in 22d campaign

A total of 232 more youthful Clean Blockers and their adult advisors in 17 more blocks have been registered in this year's drive.

The new recruits brought the total number of blocks thus far registered to 100 and the number of youngsters taking part to 1,039.

Many captains have sent in application blanks, but because they failed to include a list of the names of their workers, are not yet considered officially registered, Clean Block Director M. Francis MacKay asserted.

* * *

A NUMBER of these registrants also neglected to list the full names of the adults in their neighborhood, who have volunteered to assist them.

Be sure to get the complete names before sending the lists in, captains were urged. Names like "Mr. Smith" mean little. The same should be listed "Mr. Earl Smith."

The new captains and workers and the block they represent are as follows:

2800 Rayner Ave.
Captain Shirley Epps
Shirley Hickson; co-captain, Dorothy Epps, Carlean Reed, Barbara White, Mary Ross, Dolores Henry, Delores Hickson, Marie Bechersmith, Carolyn Bradford and Mrs. Annie E. Wells.

Error noted in testimonial pic

A photograph taken at a testimonial dinner on June 5 for the Rev. Arthur J. Payne, pastor of Enon Baptist Church, which identified the minister sitting at a table with his sisters was incorrect.

The person in the photo was Ray Payne brother of the Rev. Mr. Payne. The AFRO regrets the error.

How to find new Clean Block office in AFRO building

Many Clean Blockers, accustomed to finding the Clean Block office at 416 Druid Hill Ave., have reported difficulty in finding the new location.

It's very simple. The office is now located on the the third floor of the main AFRO building, 628 N. Eutaw St., at the corner of Druid Hill Ave.

Enter the door at the corner and walk up to the third floor. The office will be found to the door on your left after you enter the city room.

Look for the official green and white Clean Block flag hanging on the Druid Hill side of the AFRO building.

Harlem blocks all set to work

Full of energy and determination, AFRO Clean Blockers of the 900 and 1000 blocks held their own private organization rally Monday night.

Given a big assist by the Neighborhood Club, they met at the residence of Mrs. Mary Kearney.

Selected as the captain was Dolores Adams.

Appearing as principal speaker was Mrs. M. Frances MacKay, who explained the history and rules of the AFRO Clean Block movement.

* * *

SHE STRESSED the importance of keeping the streets, sidewalks and backyards free of trash and told the young Clean Blockers how they could get the cooperation of the Sanitation Bureau.

Earl Sprull, who consented to serve as adult advisor, told the youngsters it was his aim to have the 900 and 1000 blocks of Harlem Avenue the top prize winners at the conclusion of the campaign on August 24.

He also announced that as a reward to Clean Blockers, for their work in the drive, a bus excursion would be arranged sometime in July.

* * *

ATTENDING THE meeting were:

Foster Williams, vice-president; Mrs. Violet M. Handy, Mrs. Lola M. Davis, Mrs. Edith B. Sprull, Mrs. Kearney, Mrs. Alice J. Ricks, Mrs. Anita G. Mary F. Winn, Mrs. Idella V. Johnson.

Also Mrs. Lily Swift, Mrs. Nielaine Mrs. Zella T. Washington, Mrs. Helen Valentine, Mrs. Sarah Adams, Ruth Brooks, Corrine Jews.

Also Annie Stern, Carrie Rawlings, Maggie Upshur, Elenora Johnson, Samuel O. Hall, John W. Johnson, George Swift, Howard W. Washington, Theodore Ricks.

Also Julia Wharton, Delores Thomas, Mae Adams, Lorrayne J. Giles, William Swift, Herman Jews, Hayward Davis, Ronald Charles Brooks, Jerome C. Brooks, Gary Swift, Ronald Swift, Michael Sprull, and Walter J. Brooks.

Legion has annual citizenship camp

FORT VALLEY, Ga. — The department of Georgia Lettered Districts of the American Legion held its second annual citizenship camp at Fort Valley State College recently with 39 boys ranging in age from 15-19 from principal cities attending.

They were selected for their leadership qualities and their promise of success as evidenced by community activities.

Camp counselors were: Edwin Dove of Augusta, Tommie Phelps of Rome, Sanford Harper of Atlanta, Thomas Blount of Americus, George Parker of Moultrie, L. D. Sims of Atlanta and A. C. Robinson and E. E. Scales of Fort Valley State College.

You still have time to enroll

There's still time to enroll in the 22nd annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign.

But you had better hurry. Many blocks are already working and speed is of the essence if you are to catch up.

Registrations for this year's campaign will be accepted until July 1, which is just two days away.

SO RUN FOR your scissors and cut out the application blank you will find elsewhere on this page. Mail it without delay.

* * *

IF YOU are between the ages of 8 and 18, have a talent for leadership and getting along with people, you can be the captain of block.

Type or print your name clearly on the application blank to be found elsewhere on this page.

On a separate sheet of paper list the names of other children in your block willing to help you make your block neat and clean.

Don't forget to add the name of your adult advisor as well as the names of parents and other adults who will give you a helping hand.

* * *

MAIL OR BRING this application and the names to the AFRO Clean Block office on the third floor of the AFRO Building at 628 N. Eutaw St., at the corner of Druid Hill Ave.

As a captain, you will be given a bright, shiny green and white badge, which you are to wear on all occasions.

You will also receive a small flag, which should be displayed in front of your home. Hang it in a window or plant it in a flower box.

You will receive additional instructions as you attend the Clean Block pep rallies held every Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the McCulloh Homes Assembly Room, 1010 McCulloh St.

Clean Blockers set for radio program Saturday at 1:45

The 22nd annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign will be explained to a citywide radio audience over station WITH Saturday at 1:45 p.m.

Appearing as guests on the program conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Shipley Granger, director of the Clean City drive, will be Captain Delores Adams of the 900 block Harlem Avenue; Clean Block Director M. Francis MacKay, and her assistant, Mrs. Edith Weaver.

All Clean Blockers are urged to tune in WITH Saturday at 1:45 p.m. and listen to the first progress report of this year's drive.

Lucky picture winner collects

"I was playing step ball, when Glen McGill, a friend of mine who lives at 840 Edmondson Ave. called and said: "Marcella, your picture is in the AFRO. I think you'll get some money a circle is around it."

Marcella Perkins, 11, 821 Edmondson Ave. was speaking Tuesday at the AFRO office, shortly after the 5 Star Edition came out.

She was the June 26 AFRO Lucky Picture winner. Marcella, a 7B pupil at Booker T. Washington School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins of the Edmondson Ave. address.

"When I go downtown I'll take my own money so my mother won't have to spend hers," Marcella said as she collected her $5. In each edition of the AFRO, there is a Lucky Picture winner.

If your picture is circled, all you have to do to collect your $5 is to bring a clipping of the picture to the AFRO-AMERICAN office at 628 N. Eutaw St., before noon Friday if it appears in the Tuesday edition of the paper and before noon Tuesday if it appears in the Friday edition.

Muny swimming meet July 21

The Baltimore Municipal Games, annual swimming meet, will be held July 21, at Clifton Park.

It will mark the first time in the history of the event that the affair will be conducted on an integrated basis. The meet is under the supervision of the Bureau of Recreation.

Competitions are listed for boys and girls, five classes for the former, four for the latter.

The breakdown is as follows:

BOYS—80 pounds junior, 95 pounds junior, 115 pounds junior, unlimited junior and unlimited senior.

GIRLS—Under 13 years of age, under 15 years, under 17 years and unlimited.

Entries will close at midnight July 9, with Fred B. Leidig, at the Department of Recreation, 1129 N. Calvert St.

Morgan enrolls 462 for summer school

Summer school at Morgan State College got underway here Monday, June 25 with a preliminary count taken Tuesday showing 462 enrolled.

The session will continue through Friday, August 3.

Total registration for the session is expected to increase moderately with two workshops scheduled for the last three weeks. These are a "Science Workshop for Teachers" and a "Workshop in Reading," both of which will open July 16.
