For A Spiritual Blessing
Come To The Church Of Your Choice
HYMN OF THE MONTH:
'Sinner, What Hast Thou To Show?'

BRITISH RESIDENTS HERE—Capt. and Mrs. Maurice Griffin of British Guiana, where Captain Griffin is senior supervisor of police, were photographed in Baltimore recently when they attended Morgan State College graduation. Shown with them are their sons, Owen, left, and Maurice, right, both Morgan undergrads; and Miss Iona Giles, Owen's fiancee, who was graduated from Morgan.

THE REV. MR. AND MRS. HAROLD NIXON, who recently left to accept positions in New York, received a parting gift of a bed spread from the Cooperative Women's Civic League. Presentation was made by Mrs. Henry C. Welcome, right, president of the League, who gave a farewell party for the Nixons.

DHS June graduate will preach Sun.

The Rev. Serenus Churn, one of Baltimore's youngest ordained ministers and a June graduate of Douglass High School, will deliver the sermon at 10:15 a.m. Youth Day services conducted Sunday by the young people of Ebenezer Baptist Church, 23rd and Guilford Ave.

During the morning service tributes will be paid to the memory of George H. Carter and Mrs. Gregerson, recently deceased youth leaders in the church and community.

In the afternoon a 3 p.m. Service will feature greetings by young people from numerous churches of the city and a musical program on which will appear the Davis Sextette, the Rosebud Choir and Herbert Graves, violinist.

Highlight of the evening service will be a panel discussion on "The Role of Religion in an Integrated Society," by an interdenominational group of young people.

Guest soloist will be Miss Hazel Bryant. Other musical groups appearing will be the All Girls Choir, Concord Baptist Church, and the Youth Choir of Ebenezer.

In Our Churches

"The ushers of EMMANUEL C. C. Church are planning a July 4 bus excursion to Coney Island. The Business People's Council of the church have scheduled a trip to Atlantic City.

"Does Religion Change Men?" will be the topic of the Rev. Irving C. Lockman Sunday at ST. MATTHEWS Methodist Church.

The Sunday School of KNOX Presbyterian Church will have a picnic July 9 at Fort Smallwood. The following women of the church's Missionary Society attended the Synodical last week at Hood College: Mesdames Jennie Graham, A. M. Hemphill, Mercedes Douglass, Doretha Melvin, Irene Walker, Josephine Jones and Roberta Bacoat.

The following members of GOSPEL TABERNACLE Baptist Church attended a conference at Hampton Institute last week: The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Luke G. Reynolds, Mesdames Joseph Turner and Laura Gilmore.

Mrs. Turner's students will be presented by the senior choir of the church on July 1.

The Rev. W. D. Leighton, pastor of ELIZABETH Baptist Church was reelected moderator of the Maryland General Baptist Association June 22 at the association's 15th annual session.

The TEMPLE OF GOD Pentecostal Church will celebrate its sixth anniversary beginning July 1, throughout the month. The July 1 speaker will be Dr. C. H. William Burdell. Bishop Edward W. Stancil is founder and pastor.

A.B. AT 45—Wendy M. Roberson took 41 years to earn his A.B. degree from City College, NYC, but he got it last June 13. But he's not the oldest graduate. Col. West A. Hamilton, 78, Washington school board member, received a master's degree from American University last week.

Deaths

Mrs. WILLIE ANN WEST

Mrs. Willie Ann West died last Friday at the age of 71. A lifelong resident of Essex County, Va., she recently moved to Baltimore where she lived at 2932 Annah Ave.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Macedonia Baptist Church in Essex County. She is survived by three sons: Thomas, Randall and James West.

Mrs. LILLIAN V. JORDAN

After an illness of 17 months, Mrs. Lillian V. Jordan, 2102 Druid Hill Ave., died at the age of 67 Friday. She is survived by her husband, Allan Jordan.

Other survivors include a sister, Mrs. Agnes Wise, and a brother, Harvey Chase, both of Baltimore. Funeral services were held Tuesday at Ames Memorial Methodist Church.

The Rev. Franks J. Frye delivered the eulogy. Burial was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

DAMON FULTON

Ill since February, Damon Fulton, 44, succumbed to lung cancer last Friday. He was the son of Mrs. Lelia Fulton, 1812 Division St.

He is also survived by a son, Damon Jr.; and two brothers, Franklin and John Fulton, all of Baltimore. Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Charles Law Funeral Home. Burial in Baltimore National Cemetery.

NOAH E. BROWN

Noah E. Brown, a retired insurance agent, died last Saturday at the age of 94. He had lived in Baltimore for more than 50 years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the Samuel W. Sullivan Funeral Home. The Rev. George Baynard, pastor of Shiloh C.C. Church, delivered the eulogy.

Mr. Brown is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Dorothy Williams, four great-grandchildren and other relatives. Burial was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mrs. LILLIAN DELANEY

Mrs. Lillian Delaney, 821 N. Bentalou St., died last Saturday. She was the widow of Lemuel Delaney.

She is also survived by a brother, Gregory Smith, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Chester Grove Baptist Church, Amelia County, Va.

Funeral held for car victim

Funeral services were held at 10 Wednesday morning for Howard S. Johnson, 509 S. Paca St., who was struck by a car and killed at about 1:30 Sunday morning at Russell and Cross Sts.

Kenneth D. Parry, 51, Ferndale, was charged with manslaughter and reckless driving in connection with the death. Mr. Johnson was pronounced dead on arrival at South Baltimore General Hospital.

Mr. Johnson, 43, was a veteran of World War II; he was buried in Baltimore National Cemetery. He is survived by two sisters: Mesdames Emma Hill and Mary Bradford; one aunt, four nephews and one niece.

CORRECTION

In a previous issue of the AFRO, Mrs. Daisy Wright was identified as deceased. The deceased person was Miss Ella James, a relative of Mrs. Wright. The AFRO regrets this error.
