N.Y. teacher asks court's help: family told to give it

"Your honor you have told me to leave my mother's home. Please tell me this, how will I get to New York?"

With tears in her eyes an attractive teacher in the public school system of New York city asked for advice Wednesday in day in Pine St. Police Court.

The question of Mrs. Dearess B. Allen, 46, of the 1600 block Harlem Ave., was answered by Magistrate Vernon Wiesand who declared:

"My dear lady. You are obviously above the average in intelligence and you ask me how are you going to get back to New York? I don't know."

Charged Friday with creating a disturbance in the Mallen Ave. home of her parents, Mrs. Allen was placed on probation without a verdict and ordered to move.

On Wednesday, she returned to court to ask for "assistance" to make the trip.

In the court room with her at the time was her mother and brother, Frank D. Boston of the 1600 block Fulton Ave. Mrs. Allen declared:

"I have no money and they want me to go home to a man who haven't worked in a letitmate industry in five years" she explained.

WHEN ASKED what kind of work her husband was engaged in Mrs. Allen burst into tears. "Does he write numbers, is he in the racket?" the magistrate asked. With tears streaming down her cheeks Mrs. Allen, while accepting a white handkerchief from one of her two young daughters, replied, "ask my mother. She knows."

In an aside, Magistrate Wiesand commented: "This case started last week over an account at the Wannamaker's in New York.

Mrs. Allen's family had been receiving articles which they thought were stolen. She claims they added up to $600 on her store account.

"Her father who has been ill and in the hospital is to be brought home and he needs peace and quiet. They (her family) want her to leave.

Turning to the mother and brother the magistrate declared: "It seems to me that it's up to you people to finance her trip home."

IN REPLY Mr. Boston answered: "We'll do that your honor. What's the fare to New York? We will put her on the train today."

Asked if "that's o.k. with you Mrs. Allen?" the slim, well dressed matron replied "yes; but judge, will I have a record now?"

You were brought in here by a police officer were you not? Magistrate Wiesand asked.

"Yes," replied Mrs. Allen.

"Well, that's that" the magistrate concluded.

Taking her daughters by their hands Mrs. Allen walked slowly from the courtroom behind her mother and brother.

Shooting victim fair; no arrest

George E. Jolley, 21, 807 Brunt St., was in "fair" condition after undergoing surgery early (6:30) this morning.

Jolley was shot in the groin and in the back at 10:25 Thursday night. Northwestern police officials said no suspect had been arrested in connection with the shooting.

Morse issues South platform ultimatum

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse (Dem. Ore.) has issued a ultimatum to the South to "accept a strong civil rights plank in the Democratic 1956 platform" or pull out altogether.

Morse, who switched to the Democrats from the GOP last year, gave the ultimatum in an interview. He said he felt the South would go along with the civil rights plank, however.

Hayes School faculty party

The faculty and staff members of the Thomas G. Hayes School No. 102 recently had a gala evening of fun and entertainment in the club cellar of their principal's home, Mrs. Anne L. Payne.

One faculty member, Mrs. Justine McCallum, was especially honored because she is leaving the faculty to join her husband in Indonesia in the summer.

She will be gone for two years. She was pleasantly surprised when her co-workers showered her with lingerie and hankies as a farewell token.

A DELIGHTFUL evening was spent playing cards, chatting, dancing, listening to Hi-Fi records, and playing scrabble. It was indeed a wonderful way to end the school year and embark on a well-earned summer vacation. Pictures were taken during the evening.

Those above were: Anne L. Payne, principal; Doris Freeland, Anita Wilkins, Ida McKinney, Marian Brown, Mildred Hall, Doris Reynolds, Mildred Kirkland, Martha McGreet, Pulaskilla Ford, Ira Ford, Bessie Goynes, and,

Veteran shoe repair shop operator dies

Thomas W. Miller, who operated a shoe repair business for 31 years at 1200 Mother

'His body has outlived his mind . . .'

"His body has outlived his mind. He is 93 years old." Mrs. Rozena Ridgley, an attractive former entertainer, speaking at her home in the 1500 block McCulloh St. Tuesday afternoon spoke slowly and unhappily as she described her husband, Edward Ridgley.

"He wouldn't stay home. I haven't been able to sleep in two weeks," she said. "He was active up to his 87th birthday and never sick a day in his life."

Her husband, Edward Ridgley, was ordered held for an examination by a lunacy board Saturday in Northwestern Police Court, where he faced a charge of creating a disturbance in their home.

Subsequently, he was committed to Crownsville State Hospital. "He was the first colored Democrat in Baltimore," he was. Tom Smith's first lieutenant." Mrs. Ridgley reminisced.

Recalling her husband's earlier life, she said: "He went overseas to Germany when he was a child and stayed there until he was a man. He lived in Berlin seven years and speaks three or four languages."

"You may have seen him. He was a light-skinned old man, who walked slowly. He was one of the best pinochle players around here and used to stay at the "Druid Hill Ave." Well late at night," she recalled.

Mr. Ridgley, who was the "Blackbirds" of '28 and '29 and closed with "Shuffle Along" in 1932, was in with a note of sadness in her voice:

"We've only been married ten years. He has two sons by a former marriage. I feel so lonesome—without him, but then I feel relieved. They'll take good care of him in the hospital."

Gets masters at U. of Virginia

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Mrs. Pauline Henderson Garrett, wife of Dr. M. T. Garrett of this city, received her M.A. degree in speech and drama at commencement exercises of the University of Virginia Thursday.

Mrs. Garrett, only person of her race in the class of 700, holds the B.S. degree from Virginia State College and teaches English and speech at Burley High School here. The Garretts have three sons, Marshall, Paul and Russell.

In Memoriam 1

PAYNE—A tribute of love on Father's Day to our dear husband and father, EUGENE, who passed November 21, 1951:

You're not forgotten, Father dear, Nor ever will you be,
As long as life and memory last, We shall remember thee.

THE PAYNE FAMILY.

ROBINSON—In loving memory of our beloved husband and father, BENJAMIN ROBINSON, who departed this life June 15, 1955:

We miss him when we need a friend,
He whom we always could depend on.
He cheered us when we were down and soothed our pain,
God grant some day we'll meet again.

WIFE AND FAMILY.

SIMMS—In loving memory of my beloved husband, ARTHUR P. SIMMS, who passed away June 14, 1951:

I do not forget you, nor do I intend,
I think of you always, and will till the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to my memory you ever will be.
May your soul rest in peace.

Devoted Wife,
AGNES SIMMS.

SMITH—In loving memory of our beloved father and father-in-law, WILLIAM SMITH on Father's Day.

You are always in our thoughts, No matter where we go,
Always we see hearts
Because we loved you so.

MISS T. ALBERT J. SMITH, Germany
MRS. SARAH SMITH, Fort Dix, New Jersey.

YOUNG—In memory of my dear husband, WILLIAM S. YOUNG, who passed away two years ago today, June 15, 1954:

Two years have passed since that sad day,
When you we loved was called away.
God took him home, it was His will,
Within our hearts he rests still.

Loving Wife,
NORA YOUNG
and Niece,
LILLIAN
