Governor McKeldin To Greet Clean Blockers At Kickoff

Here's how to get registered

You're between the ages of eight and eighteen. School's out and you want to do something useful with your vacation time.

So you decide to enroll your block in the 22nd annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign!

But you have hesitated because you were not sure about how to do it.

• • •

WELL, HERE'S how:

All you have to do is to fill out the application blank to be found elsewhere on this page. Be sure to print your name, address and telephone number clearly.

• • •

ON A SEPARATE sheet of paper list the names of the other children in your block who will help you work this summer. And be sure to add the name of the adult advisor.

Send or bring the application and the names to the AFRO Clean Block office, on the third floor of the AFRO Building at 628 N. Eutaw St., at the corner of Druid Hill Avenue.

If you bring your application in person, Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay or her assistant Mrs. Edith Weaver will give you further instructions about organizing your block for the campaign.

• • •

YOU WILL be given a bright green and white badge, designating you as the captain of your block.

You will also receive an envelope filled with such Clean Block material as rules and regulations, window cards, armbands and membership cards.

Captains, advisors and secretaries will be required to attend weekly meetings each Friday morning at the McCulloh Homes Assembly Room, 1010 McCulloh St.

• • •

DURING THESE meetings, you will be given an opportunity to exchange ideas with other Clean Blockers and you will learn many ways to improve the appearance of your block and your neighborhood.

Experts from the Bureau of Sanitation will be present to help you solve your problems.

But the first thing you must do is fill out the application card, list your workers and adult advisor and mail or bring this to the AFRO Clean Block office.

Winners of Honor Flags urged to mark Flag Week

Winners of Honor Block flags in previous AFRO Clean Block campaigns were urged this week to display them in observance of Flag Week.

The request was made by Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay, who pointed out that loyalty and patriotism are two of the most important attributes of the Clean Block movement.

The flags may either be hung suspended across the former Honor Blocks or attached to the conventional flag pole, if one is available.

Opening rally on next Friday

Remarks by Gov. Theodore McKeldin, color pictures, plus a sparkling program of music and entertainment is in store for more than 3,000 Clean Blockers when they gather Friday morning at the McCulloh Homes Assembly Room for the giant kickoff rally of the 22nd annual drive.

The program gets under way at 10 o'clock.

Maryland's governor, just back from a trip to Germany, is expected to tell his young hearers, how their work of cleaning up and beautifying their neighborhoods compares with that of youngsters in Western Germany.

• • •

THE GOVERNOR'S interest in the AFRO Clean Block campaign dates back to the years when he was Baltimore's mayor. He has never missed an opening or closing of the campaign for the last six years.

Less emphasis will be placed on speaking at the kickoff rally this year, Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay announced.

To do this, she has given not only more time for music and entertainment, but has allotted a place on the program for the showing of color pictures by year.

As in previous years, none of the contributions to the Prize Fund is diverted to paying the expenses of the drive. All of these, including salaries of the director and her assistant are borne by the AFRO.

• • •

EVERY PENNY given by the public is used at the end of the campaign to reward deserving Clean Blockers, selected by an impartial panel of judges after a tour of participating blocks.

Miss Phoebe Allen, assistant director of the Keep Maryland Beautiful Committee.

• • •

THE PICTURES will give Clean Blockers a graphic understanding of the statewide problem of littering and the important role they can play in combatting it.

Several talented Clean Blockers of former years have been invited to display their wares as singers, dancers and instrumentalists during the gala rally jamboree.

The AFRO's music critic, Mrs. Adah K. Jenkins, a familiar figure to Clean Blockers during the last few years, will also be on hand to lead this year's captains and co-captains in the singing of Clean Block songs.

A PLACE IN the program has also been reserved for explaining to new recruits in the Clean Block movement what steps they will need to take to bring their blocks up to top competition during the summer.

Mrs. Edith Weaver, assistant Clean Block director, will be on hand to pass out Captain's flags, window cards, instruction sheets and other material needed to get blocks organized for the summer.

Clean Blockers are urged to be on time so that none will miss any of the fun and excitement in store for them.

THE LAWYERS ADMITTED BY MD. HIGH COURT

Llewellyn Woolford and Charles P. Howard will be admitted to practice before the Maryland Court of Appeals in Annapolis on Thursday at 2 p.m.

WILSON PARK SIGNS—Mrs. Margaret Peay, supervisor of the Wilson Park area, who has been working with the AFRO Clean Block Campaign since it began in 1935, is shown here with her niece, Captain Ann Holmes of the 4400 block St. George Ave., whose mother also served as a Clean Block captain when she was Ann's age.

Prize fund needs $$$

Thousands of letters were sent out from the Clean Block office this week appealing to the public for substantial contributions to the Clean Block Prize Fund.

Thus far, there has been only one donation, a check for $56.25 brought in by Joe Paul, genial East Baltimore merchant, who for the past 12 years has annually been the first contributor to the campaign.

The lack of response to appeals has alarmed Clean Block officials in view of the large number of registrations which are coming into the office, indicating that more than 15,000 children are likely to be competing in the campaign this year.

• • •

BECAUSE OF the increased enrollments, the goal for the Prize Fund has been enlarged to $3,000, a modest enough figure considering the hard work youngsters will be doing all summer to make Baltimore the nation's cleanest and most beautiful city.

An urgent request is being addressed to all previous contributors to the Prize Fund to lend their aid once again this year.

Del Shields gives radio help to Clean Blockers

Del Shields, popular platter spinner for radio station WEBB, has offered the facilities of his program to help get the 22nd annual AFRO Clean Block program under way.

Mr. Shields, in spot announcements throughout the day, is urging youngsters to register for the drive as soon as school is over.

In addition, he is making appeals to the public to contribute to the Prize Fund.

Registrations rise to 50 blocks for Clean Block Campaign

Organizational work in preparation for the official opening of the 22nd annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign continued this week in the newly opened office on the third floor of the AFRO building.

Registrations of blocks climbed to 50 Thursday, setting a new record for "early bird" captains anxious to get a jump over lafecomers in the summer-long competition.

The closing of school today is certain to give an added spurt to registrations, Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay predicted.

• • •

JUDGING FROM the number of blocks which have already qualified, this year's campaign will top the enrollment of more than 10,000 youngsters and adults in last year's drive.

Blocks which completed registration since Tuesday were listed as follows:
