Boyd vs. Savage Bout Pits Master Boxer vs. Puncher

CHICAGO — Wednesday night's television fight here between Bobby Boyd and Milo Savage promises to produce the "dream" match between a master boxer and a fierce puncher.

Boyd is the clever ringman. The Chicagoan is an artist at stabbing and wearing down an opponent. He is 22 years old and seven years the junior of his Salt Lake City, Utah rival.

Savage, a murderous hitter who can take a man out with one blow, is 29 and the more experienced of the two. Here's the way they shape up:

BOBBY BOYD

Combination boxer-puncher. Boyd has a pleasing style. His defensive moves sparkle with color. Bobby's left packs a wallop and his right is a potent knockout weapon. He is capable of riding out fistic storms, even though hit hard.

BIOGRAPHY—

Boyd, 22, is a member of an important Chicago group of fighters, managed by a wealthy sportsman, Bernie Glickman. His stablemates are Luther Rawlings and Johnny Bratton. He holds the Illinois middleweight title.

He made a New York reputation by knocking out Tony Anthony in one round. Bobby is a twin, but his twin brother has no fighting aspirations. Formerly, Boyd was a butcher and a grocery clerk.

Quiet and unassuming, he is one of the hardest workers in the gym. He lost a split decision to Savage last year in New York in a close bout.

MILO SAVAGE

STYLE—

A rattlesnake striker among punchers. He stalks continually, will show you the punch with which he means to score, but he's deadly when he lets go.

BIOGRAPHY—

This 5' 8½" veteran boxed in the Army . . . He is a high school graduate, and studied one year at Iowa University . . . He hopes to get a degree later . . .

Milo fights with only half a thumb on his left hand . . . His brother chopped off the thumb aiming at a chicken's neck which young Milo was holding. He retired from boxing for 2 years and returned in 1954 under the management of Jack McCarthy.

Holy Name Night at Stadium Tues.

The third annual Holy Name Baseball Nite will be held Tuesday at the stadium.

The Orioles will be playing the second place Cleveland Indians, who have supplied the Birds with the most trouble this season.

This year's aim of the Catholic Society is to "pack the stadium." Ticket sales to date indicate that this goal may be realized. Over 25,000 tickets are in circulation and thousands of orders are yet to be filled.

Jimmie Dugan will be back for the pre-game activities which get under way at 7:30 p.m.

The fund raised by this annual night supplies high school scholarships for needy boys, boys who otherwise might be unable to receive a secondary education. More than 50 such scholarships have been awarded in past years. Twenty of the boys graduate next week.

At the Ringside

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON
RAY ROBINSON: A ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME FIGHTER

CHICAGO (ANP) — After an absence of nearly three weeks, the writer is back at the Ringside. Back to work. And like other men who earn their living working, I should perhaps be cursing the unkind gods of poverty for ending my brief respite.

But such an attitude does not prevail at present, mainly because the task which I have set about to accomplish is a delightful if not rewarding one. For now I write about Sugar Ray Robinson, the greatest fist fighter, pound-for-pound that ever laced on a pair of mitts.

Just a fortnight or so ago, Robinson was questioned about his resourcefulness and tenacity in ring wars by again trouncing Carl Bobo Olson.

THIS TIME as a crowd of more than 200,000 fans packed in the gathering twilight of Los Angeles' Wrigley Field, Robinson stopped Bobo for the fourth time in four meetings on a knockout in the fourth round. He struck the pastel-colored Hawaiian with a cruel left hook which left him prostrate at 2:51 of the round.

boxed carefully waiting for the plodding Olson to open up. When he did, Ray countered and it was Up until that time, Roy had all over.

RAY ROBINSON, three-time middleweight king, had protected his title not only against Olson, but also in spite of the barbs and sneers of critics who for months have been picturing him as a decrepit figure totterings from old age.

But even Ray's great comeback and his stunning performances against Olson can't seem to satisfy the skeptics. They are either too proud and callous to admit their error, or they just fail to recognize Robinson for the exceptional fighter that he is, A Once-In-A-Lifetime Fighter.
