Reba Brooks, Jean Batts in week's top weddings

with Lula Jones Garrett

Two of the town's lovelier lassies joined the ranks of the younger married at practically the same hour, here, Saturday.

While Miss Reba Credelle Brooks was exchanging vows with Joseph Brailsford in Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church Jean E. Batts was arriving at Whitestone Baptist Church to become Mrs. Charles R. Owens, Jr.

MADISON AVENUE Presbyterian Church, decorated in white gladioli, snapdragon and iris (which formed the arches and filled the pedestals), with bouquets of bridal roses, lilies and fern as pew markers), was a befitting background for the Brailsford-Brooks nuptials.

The Rev. Reginald Daniels performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrick Leroy Brooks of this city, and Mr. Brailsford the son of Mrs. Henrietta Adams of Washington.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Brooks wore a ballerina-length gown of lace and tulle. The bodice was of lace with the neckline embroidered in sequins. The lace extended into the skirt of tulle, which had three underskirts, two of white and the third of ice blue. All were underpinned with ice blue taffeta. Her fingertip veil was held by a corsnet and she carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Katheryn Dickerson was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown was of yellow, with lace bodice and apron front over double skirts of the yellow tulle over yellow taffeta. Her bouquet was of pink roses and violet sweet peas, centered with an orchid and tied with green satin ribbon.

Miss Minnie Dorsey, maid of honor wore a gown identical to that of Mrs. Dickerson, out in mint green. Her bouquet was of pink roses and yellow sweet peas, centered with an orchid and tied with yellow satin ribbon.

The junior bridesmaid, Miss Pamela Johnson, wore pale blue nylon and lace, with accordian pleated underskirt. Her crown of blue nylon ribbon was trimmed with pink roses. She carried a nosegay of pink roses.

William Brailsford of Washington was best man for his brother. Ushers included Cornelius Brooks, brother of the bride; and Calvin Bosier of Washington.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Brooks was gowned in rose lace over satin, with sequin trimmed neckline. Her hat was of matching dusty rose lace with flower trim and her accessories were in rose. Her corsagg was of pink orchids.

Mrs. Adams selected pale yellow chiffon, with matching lace hat and gloves, a flowered sequined neckline and matching yellow shoes. She also wore orchids.

The wedding reception, at Ifill, was held in the Me-De-So Club. The rooms were decorated with fern, pink carnation and pink gladioli. A flowing lace skirt and pink satin ribbons at each corner decorated the sweets table.

Two fountains provided continuously, flowing punch. This table, too, was decorated with lace skirt, pink bows and pink carnations.

The bridal table held an eight-tier cake which was trimmed with pink roses, green leaves and bridal bells. This table, too, was decorated with pink carnations and ferns.

For her wedding trip to New York City, the bride wore a pale blue silk suit, white hat with blue trim, and matching accessories. After June 8, the couple will be at home in the Bellevue - Manchaster Apartments.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception included:

Mrs. Etolka Carter, Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Marie Peace, Boston, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Robert, Murphy, Stanford, Conn., Mrs. Mamie Riley, New York, Mrs. Estelle Brooks, NYC.,

William Gray, Mutual, Md., James Gray, Philadelphia; Mrs. Rosetta Goodwin, NYC, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mason, St. Leonards; Md.,

Messrs. and Mesdames McKinley Johnson, Calvert County, Md.; Jack Madden, Monkton, Md.; William S. Chafin, Washington; Garnett Perry, Washington; Richard Armstead, Washington;

Mrs. Jose Mejia, Newark, N.J.; Mrs. Frances Dickerson, Rapidan, Va.; Mrs. John Parren, Calvert County, Md., Mrs. Sarah McFadden, Washington; Mrs. Demert Chaves, Washington;

Mrs. Beatrice Queen, Washington, Messrs. and Mesdames Booker Butler and Wilmer Gilman, Washington, Messrs. and Mesdames Booker Butler and Wilmer Gilman, Washington; Mrs. Sadie Crank, Hudson, N.Y.

Miss Batts, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKinley Seward, and Mr. Owens were married by the Rev. W. H. Thompson, at 2:30 p.m.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Seward, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of tulle with lace insets, with tulle gauntlets. Her veil of illusion was attached to a seed pearl coronet, and she carried a cascade of white roses and (being a proper AKA) ivy.

Her attendants were Mrs. Beulah Maxwell in aqua; and Miss Judy Bennett, in yellow. Their gowns were of nylon lace and pieces, and carried bouquets of yellow daisies and blue iris.

Nathaniel Young was best man for Mr. Owens, and ushers were Morris Brooks and Clifton Tatum.

Robert Anderson was organist, and beautiful Whitestone Church never looked lovlier than in its dress of ferns and white gladiolas.

Mr. and Mrs. Seward entertained at a reception in their Ellicott Driveway home for the newlyweds following the wedding.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Seward wore a gown of rose beige lace

LES SYLPHIDES—The club recently met at the home of Mrs. Lorraine L. Eason.

Final plans were made for the closing affair, a cabaret party to be held at the Blue Room of the York Hotel on Saturday.

After the business of the evening was discussed, cocktail and refreshments were served.

Those present were, Mrs. Annis Lawson, president; Mrs. Maryann Watts, secretary; Mrs. Shirley Gilbert; Mrs. Geraldine Shephard, Mrs. Oriene Gregg, Mrs. Thelma Greene, Mrs. Jean Maulsby, Mrs. Clara Jones, Mrs. Dorothy Dunston, and Mrs. Lorraine L. Eason.

The club presented articles of clothing recently to the Males of the aged ward of Lincoln Memorial Hospital. This was one of their annual charitable activities. Much needed clothing was graciously and joyously received by the men.

Clubs

ROMANIA — The social club met with Miss Mary F. Ransom, 624 Gold St., this week.

Prizes at pokena went to Mrs. Sarah Maben, first; Mrs. Carrie Hinton, second; Mrs. Annie Jones, third; and Mrs. Kathleen Henson, booby.

Mrs. Rita Forster, Hubie Maben, Thomas Allen and Edward Oden were guests of the club.

MODERNETTES—Mrs. Betty Jones of 6008 Auburton St. entertained the club, this week. Plans were made for a bus excursion to Hersey, Pa., on June 17.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones will entertain the club at its next meeting in her home, 1143 N. Fulton Ave.

Mrs. Essie M. Sneed is president of the group.

HEART-TO-HEART—The Missionary group met with Mrs. Elizabeth Sykes of 1626 Bruce St., Monday evening.

The club will have an outing at Fort Smallwood on July 22. Mrs. Hattie Sheldon is president; Mrs. Josephine Palmer, business manager; and Mrs. E. Sykes, reporter.

ECLIPSE—The pinochle club met with Mrs. Mary Johnson, 2808 Rookert Drive, Cherry Hill, Wednesday.

Prize winners were Mrs. Clestelle Langley, first; Mrs. Estella McKenney, second; and Mrs. Esther McKenney, third.

ENTRE NOUS — Mrs. Sarah Nichols, of 830 Druie Hill Ave., was hostess to the club at its most recent session. Mrs. Alice Palmer is president.

SISTERHOOD — The Sisterhood Unit No. 1 met last Friday night at 1528 Madison Ave.

The club is having a bus trip to Hagerstown Elks Home on June 10.

Mrs. Edna W. Beckett is president and Mrs. Lucille Armwood, recording secretary.

YOUTH—In coordination with the newly organized "Community Organization for Juvenile Delinquency," in West Baltimore, the youth of the 2100 block of Penrose Avenue have organized a Youth Club.

The Youth Club meets each week and has planned a variety of activities for the members of the neighborhood.

Its most important project has been to raise funds to finance an all-day picnic to Fort Smallwood for the whole block. Their donation of $40.00 in April to Mr. Elwood Johnson, block chairman, has insured the men of the neighborhood to organize in behalf of the Youth Club.

On Saturday, May 12, a special Mothers' Day program was presented by the Youth Club at St. James' Methodist Church, Lexington and Monroe Sts., the Rev. Albert Hammond Sr. is pastor.

Most of the children in the block participated in the program. The group was coached by their regular advisors, Mrs. Estelle Gantt and Mrs. Mildred C. Parker. Mrs. Zetha Gilmor and Mr. Washington Dorsey helped with the music.

The Youth Club is looking forward to greater interest, better cooperation and closer relationship between the youth and parents of the block in its effort to reduce juvenile delinquency in this community.

Miss Ruby C. Jones becomes bride of Fuller Gatison

Miss Ruby C. Jones, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Major Jones, and Fuller Gatison were married recently in the First Baptist Church, Fairfield.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Jones, wore a gown of chantilly lace. She carried a prayer book marked with white sweetheart roses entwined with greens.

Miss Twila Sledge was her maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Eula Black and Thelma Brown.

The maid of honor wore a dress of pink embroidered nylon over pink taffeta. Her tiara was pink with tiny seed pearls. The bridesmaids were similarly dressed in blue and yellow, carried bouquets of roses.

The flower girl, Linca Smith, wore white nylon over silk with a white bandeaux of organdy flowers. She carried a basket of rose petals.

THE BEST MAN was John Floyd and ushers were Jimmie Underdue and Howard Woods.

The Rev. Ernest W. Williams performed the ceremony. A reception followed at the home of the bride's cousin.

Among the out-of-town guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Fountain; Mr. Robert Mosley, and Mr. and Mrs. Fountain of Philadelphia, Pa. Miss Beatrice Ram-

JOHN L. PROCOPE received a warm and fond farewell from the medical staff of Provident Hospital at a testimonial dinner in the Carver Vocational-High School, Sunday evening.

Some 200 guests gathered about the long, rose-banked, candle-lit tables to express in words, song and gifts how reluctant they were to part with him and his family, and to send best wishes for happiness and success along with them in his new post and their new home in Philadelphia.

Mr. Procope, who formerly was administrator at the Provident, has been named to a similar post at Mercy-Douglass in the "Quaker City."

Dr. Bernard Harris Sr. was master of ceremonies, and with a few part jokes here and there, interspersed a flow of praise that told of the hospital's progress during the 10 years of Mr. Procope's administration.

The speakers included Dr. W. Berkley Butler, president of the medical staff, Howard H. Murphy, president of the board of trustees; Dr. Robert L. Jackson, senior member of the medical staff; Miss Jennie Jergerson, director of nursing.

Also Mrs. Odell Payne, president of the Ladies Auxiliary; Ralph B. Murphy, executive director of the Hospital Council; James W. Stephron, commissioner of police, former executive director of the Community Chest; and Dr. Alan M. Chesney, advisor to the board of trustees of the hospital.

Miss Blanche James and Miss Eva Marshall sang solos and Father Cecric J. Mills gave the invocation and benediction.

And then there were presentations.

Dr. I. Bradshaw Higgins made the one to the honoree, a desk set. Mrs. E. Finch Morris received a beautiful cigarette case and lighter, the gift being presented by Dr. Effie Ellis. And to Mrs. Procope went a lovely compact . . . from the hands of Dr. N. Louise Young.

And the Procope ladies were quite an eyeful. Corrine (Mrs. P.) chose an entire ensemble, in pink. Her satin frock was velvet touched about the edges of its cowl collar, which moved to the back and ended with a below-waist streamer. Both her shoes and tiny head-piece were also pink.

His daughter, Jean, of Philadelphia, was in a blue lace sheath that flared below knee. The baby daughter, Johnell, was frilly in white organdie. Daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Procope Jr. wore blue silk, a white hat blue trimmed.

Incidentally, the junior Procopes were late arriving from New York City for the affair because she (a highly successful builder and realtor) had been a testimonial recipient herself that day. The New York chapter of Business and Professional Women had bestowed upon her the Sojourner Truth Award, their highest citation for achievement.

Of course, I may be prejudiced (for, you see, I'm particularly fond of the gals) but I think Providence has the most attractive femme physicians in ten counties. Pert and petit Dr. Ellis was especially fetching, Sunday, in a print frock, fitted through the bodice to enhance her perfect figure and with an extra full skirt, a cute white hat, tiny rhinestones in her ears and a string of rhinestones about her throat. Statuesque and pretty Dr. Young, wore white lace, underpinned with pink and magnificent, almost shoulder length earrings.

Another smart-to-look-at guest was Mrs. Dan Taylor of Philadelphia, who wore black, with embroidery. She and Dr. Taylor, who is medical director at Mercy-Douglass, in Philly, were in the family party.

The testimonial was arranged by a committee of which Dr. Higgins was general chairman, and which included Dr. C. R. Campbell, Mrs. Mabel Fields, Mrs. Mabel Jones, Mrs. Ethel Morsell, Mrs. E. F. Morris, Dr. Ellis and Mrs. Theresa Waters.

Dr. Campbell was chairman of the program committee, on which also were Dr. Gilbert L. Banfield, Dr. I. Harris, and Dr. Emerson C. Walden.

Glen Burnie Echoes

By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE

The Beacon Chapter, No. 10 of the Order of the Eastern Star held its first anniversary service, "Lighting the First Candle," recently at the Masonic Temple.

Officers participating in the service included Mrs. Florence Diggs, worthy matron; John W. Pinkney, worthy patron; Mrs. Evelyn Pinkney, chairman, Mrs. Georgiana Hook presided.

The group has established an enviable reputation in the community for constructive work and is currently engaged in aiding the Glen Burnie Chapter in its building program.

With Deputy Lillian Payne as a very dynamic leader and constant supporter, these ladies truly represent finer womanhood.

The guest speaker on the program was the Rev. Nathaniel Mondie of Galilean Baptist Church. Others on the program Clark, Lillian Nelson, Hattie Nixon, Isabella Jones, Miss Dorothy Williams, Delmar Gross, Obbie Womack and the Rev. Leroy Clark.

THE CHOIR AND quintette of John Wesley Methodist Church and the Galilean Singers provided music. Remarks were offered by MWGM Clarence Wycoff, Mrs. Clara V. Burns, RGM, and Mrs. Florence Diggs, WM.

Officers and members of Beacon Chapter not mentioned above include: Mrs. Minnie L. Payne, AM; Laverne Davis, A-1; Mrs. Deannah Mann, recording secretary; Mrs. Essie Yarboro, treasurer; Mrs. Elmira Cross, conductress; Mrs. Inez Johnson, a conductress; Miss Alsy Mae Nancy Clark, musician; Mrs. Pauline Williams warder; Roy Clark, sentinel; Mrs. Lillian Payne, deputy.

Mesdames Campsie Howard and Anna Matthews of Glen Burnie spent the past week visiting in Washington and also attended the sessions of the Methodist Conference.

Visiting with Mrs. Beatrice Somerville and Walter Harris of Furnace Branch Rd., last week was their brother, Charles Harris of Warrenton, N.C.

Mrs. Maud McDonald of Glen Burnie entertained for her daughter, Mrs. William Harvey, both of Philadelphia, during the past weekend.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles
Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
