Ceremony before family for Miss Ailor, Cornell Van Daye

with Lula Jones Garrett

HILDA AILOR (she's the daughter of Mrs. Daisy Ailor and a member of the faculty of Elementary School No. 148) and Cornell Van Daye, salesman with Weiss Motor Company were married, here, Sunday.

The Rev. Reginald Daniels performed the ceremony. And only members of the family gathered around to witness the event. They included Messrs. and Mesdames Nathaniel Ailor, Edward Ailor, Charles Pitts, Matthew Payne, Jesse Fears; Edward Ailor Jr., Mrs. Joyce Lowman and Bernard Thomas.

The bride was a picture in pale pink silk organza ensemble, her frock, snugly fitted in the bodice and with a very full skirt topped with a coat of the same material; her accessories including a hat of matching color and Vinylite shoes; her corsage was of gardenias.

She was attended by Mrs. Evelyn Morton, who wore blue, with white accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses.

Perry Smith was best man for Mr. Van Daye.

Following the marriage, Mrs. Morton entertained the whole group at a champagne party, which was followed by dinner, at which Mrs. Lowman was hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Daye are at home at 212 Suter Road.

An this Saturday, at 3:30 p.m., Miss Jean Batts, of Douglass High School faculty, will be married to Charles Owens, a civilian instructor at Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

Both are graduates of Morgan State College. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Seward.

The ceremony will be in the White Stone Baptist Church at Bloomingdale and Baker Sts.

POTPOURRI: Never discount that second look. Cute, slow eyed Barbara Ward, who became Mrs. James B. Clark in the past week's prettiest wedding, and her bridegroom were just "two of the bunch" during their Morgan State College days. He went into the service. They didn't meet again in some seven years. But when they had a second look at each other about six months ago. . . that was it!

Incidentally, their wedding gifts were magnificent. Her step father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Brown, gifted her with silver in the new modern pattern. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clark of Steelton, provided exquisite china. His brother sent an elegant electric cooker from Labrador. . . and the other silver, china, crystals and linen form a treasure.

A baker's dozen of his fellow officers came from Fort George Meade for the wedding.

Miss Barbara L. Ward becomes bride of Lt. James B. Clark

Barbara Lucille Ward became the bride of Lt. James Benjamin Clark, in a perfectly beautiful wedding in St. Peter Claver Roman Catholic Church, Saturday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Sidney Brown and Stanley Ward, and is the granddaughter of Catholic Charities, here. Lt. Clark is stationed at Fort George Meade. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clark of Steelton, Pa.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Ward wore a ballerina-length gown of embroidered organdy, with finter-tip veil held by a half hat. She carried white orchids on a prayer book.

She was attended by Mrs. Catherine Richardson, who was gowned in orchid organdy, with matching headdress and tiny veil, and shoes, also in the orchid color. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned nosegay of summer blossoms.

Lt. William Rudd of Norfolk, Va. and Camp Mead, was best man.

Fr. Joseph Tyson officiated at the ceremony. He was assisted by Monsignor David L. Dorsch of Catholic Charities. Eurkert Boardley of Washington was organist. Ushers were Roland and William Clark, brothers of the bridegroom; and Eugene Baker.

A reception for the couple was held in the Morgan State College Christian Center.

For the wedding Mrs. Brown wore a teal blue silk dress, with white hat and gloves and Navy blue bag and shoes. Her corsage was of orchids. Mrs. Clark wore Navy blue gown with pink accessories and a corsage of orchids.

How to Build Up the Glory of A GORGEOUS HEAD OF HAIR
So Soft and Lustrous; Looking Much Richer, Healthier, Longer
Sulfur-8 became so famous so fast because people actually saw how that marvelous sulfur-lanolin formula brought out new hair beauty as it conditioned the scalp. Well, today there's a new Sulfur-8 formula is even better. Now, two additional ingredients have been added to Sulfur-8 to make it even more powerful with scientific medication to combat surface scalp germs and "activate" your scalp to feel more alive and healthy.
Just see how your scalp thrives on Sulfur-8! And then, notice how your hair begins to glow with new soft loveliness, revealing its true full natural length.
ONLY SULFUR-8 has that sensational medicated formula with the special "super-sulfur." It's like a doctor's prescription for the hair and scalp.
Astonishing Wonderful Helpness
You'll like the fine luxury fragrance and softness quality of new improved Sulfur-8. And no matter how short and messly your poor parched hair may now seem, you'll be thrilled to see how soon it looks magnificently longer, smoother and healthier, when you give that famous Sulfur-8 Hair and Scalp Conditioner a real chance to do good work.
