Gets 5 years for baby-sitter attack

A father who was convicted of criminal assault on the nine-year-old baby sitter for his three small children, was sentenced Wednesday, to five years by Criminal Court Judge Joseph Carter.

He is Joseph M. Johnson, 25, 1208 Waldo Court who was denied a new trial Saturday by the Supreme Bench.

He told Judge Carter that he had eaten 10 aspirin tablets and drank a half pint of whiskey and "I don't remember nothing."

However, the child's mother, who lives in the same apartment building as the Johnson family testified, "I heard this screaming. I banged on the door and finally Mr. Johnson came and opened the door."
