AFRO keglers in National pin tourney

ORANGE, N.J.—A seven-man team representing the AFRO-Newspapers arrived here Friday in preparation for its opening round in the 1956 National bowling championships at the Palladium Center, 512 E. Main St.

Headed by its captain, Harvey Robinson, the unit will swing into action in the championship roll, slated to get under way tomorrow (Saturday) night at 10:30 o'clock.

They are also entered in the national singles and doubles competitions, scheduled to commence at 9:30 p.m., on Sunday.

The AFRO team finished third in city competitions in Baltimore last year, and was well placed in National Bowling Congress tournaments throughout 1955.

Comprising the team are Robinson, Owen Lee, Roosevelt Mackey, Joseph Brown, Joseph Hall, Earl Robinson and George Lee, who also serves as general manager.

Ducks thwart Dunbar, 6-1

Douglass High School tallied twice in the first inning and was never headed thereafter in defeating Dunbar, 6-1, in a city scholastic baseball contest at Clifton Park on Wednesday.

Dunbar's no - hit, no - run pitcher of last week, George Collins, was the victim.

Collins was outpitched by Danny Allen, young Duck righthander who contributed to his own victory with two timely hits off his rival mountjman.

Allen held the Poets to five hits and struck out ten men. In addition, he had a triple and a singel.

Collins tossed his no - hitter against Armstrong High of Washington last week, blanking the Generals, 13-0. On Wednesday, he fanned seven, but walked five and was touched for nine safeties.

Water show held at Webb Center

"Life In These United States" a program of synchronized swimming, was presented by the Chick Webb Recreation Center on Wednesday and Thursday.

The first program was conducted for parents, and the second for children in the community.

The program featured a water skit entitled "The Wedding of H2o", "Syncopated Playmates", "Mousey Funtime", "Catch as Catch Can", "Summertime in the Country", "Kill the Umpire", a baseball skit, "Three Coins In Fountain" and Romance Beneath the Stars."

The program was supervised and directed by Miss Helen N. Michael and Wilbert Sheridan.

Greetings were extended to the visitors by L. C. Nixon, center director. Remarks were made by Dr. Ralph Young, chairman, Chick Webb Committee, and Theodore Brown, senior supervisor, Bureau of Recreation.

Big League Roundup

WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK—Brooklyn spanked the Giants, 7-2, in their first meeting of the season, aided no little by the hitting of Gil Hodges and the hitting and baserunning of Jackie Robinson.

Hodges led the Dodger attack with three hits, including a homer. Robinson snapped a plate slump with two safeties, a double and a single. He also electrified the crowd with a steal of home.

Junior Gilliam continued to show his effectiveness as a leadoff man, collecting two hits. Charley Neal also had a pair of bingles and drove in two runs. Ray Campanella had one safety in four at bats.

For the Giants, Willie Mays was blanked in four tries and Hank Thompson sat out the contest.

• • •

PHILADELPHIA — Outfielder Frank Thoman singled home Roberte Clemente with the run that gave Pittsburgh a 6-5 triumph over the Phillies.

Clemente had previously tripled for his only hit of the contest. It was his second run of the day. Curt Roberts walked on his only plate trip after replacing Johnny O'Brien at second base. He stole second shortly thereafter.

• • •

KANSAS CITY — Both Vic Power and pinch-hitter Harry Simpson were blanked by the brilliant pitching of Herb Score in the Athletics' 3-2 loss to Cleveland.

However, Hector Lopez apparently found the young lefthander's offerings to his liking. Lopez connected for three hits, one of them a double. The A's did not get but five blows off Score.

Al Smith, the Indians' 1955 "man of the year," sat out the game.

• • •

ST. LOUIS—Harvey Haddix allowed only two hits in scoring a 6-0 shutout of the Chicago Cubs. The only two blows obtained off the Cardinal ace went to Gene Baker and Ernie Banks. Both were singles.

BOSTON — Jose Valdivielso, back in the lineup after five days on the bench because of weak hitting, failed to connect in three at bats but Washington defeated the Red Sox, 4-1.

The flashy fielding Valdy started a 6th inning double play that nipped a potential Boston rally after the Red Sox had tallied one run and were threatening a 3-1 Nats' lead.

• • •

BALTIMORE—Bob Boyd, inserted into the game late, was up once and safe on an error as the Orioles dropped a 4-2 loss to the New York Yankees. Boyd was hitless.

Dave Pope broke into the Bird lineup as a pinch runner, but didn't score either.

TUESDAY

KANSAS CITY—Vic Power's homer and single and Hector Lopez' triple went for naught as the Athletics lost a 7-4 verdict to Detroit.

Between them, Power and Lopez scored all the Kansas City runs, each getting two. Harry Simpson was shut out in three trips to the plate.

• • •

ST. LOUIS — The Cardinals downed Cincinnati, 5-3, with Vinegar Bend Mizer outpitching Pat Scantlebury to get credit for the win.

Scantlebury was nicked for three runs in the first inning but settled down thereafter to pitch scoreless ball until relieved for a pinch hitter in the 8th.

Tan pinch hitters were .500 for the Redlegs. Bob Thurman singled as a sub swinger in the 9th but George Crowe fanned in a similar role.

MONDAY

PHILADELPHIA — Brooklyn behind rookie Don Drysdale, trounced the Phillies, 6-1, in the only game played on a cold, rainy day throughout the major league area.

Gilliam, Campanella and Neal each contributed one hit to the Dodger cause. Robinson was hitless.

SUNDAY

PITTSBURGH — Don Newcombe scored his first win of the season, beating the Pirates, 4-1, in a six-inning game, cut short by rain.

The Dodgers tallied three times in the opening frame and that was enough for Big Newk, off on what he hopes will be his second 20-game season in a row.

Junior Gilliam singled to open the contest and scored ahead of Pee Wee Reese as Gil Hodges doubled.

Gilliam had one hit and scored two of the Brooklyn runs.

Jackie came out of a hitting slump to collect a triple and single. Campanella and Neal went hitless.

Newcombe allowed only three hits, one of these a double by Roberte Clemente, who later scored the only Bux marker.

• • •

PHILADELPHIA — A 3-run homer by Mays pulled the Giants out of a dark mess and enabled them to split a doubleheader with the Phillies.

Willie's 9th inning blow in the nightcap wiped out a 7-6 deficit and gave New York a 9-7 decision. Philly won the first, 3-1.

Mays had gone hitless in the first game and his circuit was his only safety in the afterpiece. He scored two runs, though, and twice drew bases on balls.

• • •

KANSAS CITY—Vic Power got two of his team's three hits, but they were unavailing as the Athletics bowed, 3-8, to the Chicago White Sox.

Not just one acid test for Arny, but 3

PHILADELPHIA—It is taken pretty much for granted in track circles that Arnold Sowell is something special, but for the assignment that Coach Carl Olson has given him in the middle-distance Penn Relays, Arny will have to prove that he is.

Arny Sowell

The slender Pittsburgh middle - distance star has been named by his mentor to anchor three different Panther relay teams—the distance medley on Friday and the sprint medley and mile on Saturday.

To the observant bystander, this would represent a man-sized task in itself. Anchoring one foursome in an important event in the high-tension Franklin Field extravaganza is big stuff for a college boy. But anchoring three of them would command more than passing attention.

Yet, that is just a small part of the story. Sowell figures to tie up with three of the world's finest runners, at his specialty, in the two-day carnival here today (Friday) and tomorrow (Saturday).

• • •

IN THE distance medley, Pitt is a sure bet to clash head-on with Villanova's Ron Delany. The Irish-born Villge right now is one of the hottest middle-distance runners in the nation, coming as he is off an unbeaten indoor season at the longer distances.

When he gets to the Saturday wrap-up, and the celebrated American championship mile relay, Sowell figures to match strides with the redoubtable Charley Jenkins of Villanova, as well as the best the perennially classic Morgan State and Manhattan College squads have to offer—SAM LACY.
