MRS. HENRIETTA JOHNSON, civic leader of Furnace Branch, has been elected vice president of the county branch, NAACP.

The community mourns the passing of good neighbor, Chester Marshall. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bessie Marshall, and children.

Mrs. Catherine Galther of Queensbrook was the guest last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carr of Severna Park.

UNIQUE — The savings club members were entertained by Mrs. Nancy Bradford of 1102 Myrtle Avenue, this week. The group will go to Coney Island on June 19th. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Eless Robinson, 2006 Docklin St. Mrs. Nancy Respass is president of the club and Mrs Marita Brown, secretary.

Mesdames Greenfield, Adams chairmen in Cancer Drive

Mrs. Jacob H. Greenfeld of 3230 Carlisle Avenue and Mrs. William Adams of 3103 Carlisle Ave., have been named co-chairmen of the Cancer Fund drive of the lower Ashburton area.

The area has as its boundaries Gwynns Falls Parkway, Longwood St., Garrison Blvd. and Powhattan Ave.

BOTH OF THESE women, ardent and zealous workers in many former worthy campaigns, have enlisted the aid of other willing solicitors who are devoting time and energy towards a successful campaign. Mrs. Greenfeld and Mrs. Adams are asking all those who now live within the area mentioned above to do their bit and contribute generously. When the solicitors call upon them, their desire is that Baltimore should know that all residents of this section of the city realize their duty and are fulfilling their obligation to the community.

Bureau of Recreation staff honors Mrs. Folkes at banquet

Members of the staff of the Bureau of Recreation, former co-workers and friends, gather at the YWCA dining hall at a banquet Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. Mae K. Folkes, who recently resigned after 20 years as a staff worker.

Arrangements of spring flowers on the banquet tables added to the beauty of the occasion.

C. C. Jackson Jr. acted as toastmaster. A stunt song "Tree In The Woods," was led by Mrs. Alice Caster. The entire group joined in a stunt, "Paying The Rent," led by Mrs. Alice Parham. N. S. Callowhill, superintendent of the Bureau of Recreation, recalled the fine work that had been done by Mrs. Folkes during the growth of the recreation program. T. E. Brown, senior supervisor, praised the honoree for the many contributions she had made as a staff member.

Mrs. Hattie B. Smith presented Mrs. Folkes the gifts which the staff had selected for her. One gift was a silver tray and the other a silver vegetable dish.

In her response, Mrs. Folkes delighted her audience as she recounted episodes that took place during her experience and years of work. She assured all that her gifts would be treasured and useful and serve as a reminder of the pleasant associations she had enjoyed as a member of the Bureau of Recreation staff.

Frank Folkes, husband of the honoree, also spoke.

The closing part of the program was highlighted by audience participation in a song entitled the "Menu Song." This group singing was led by Mrs. Hazell Duvall.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Madeline Futch and Miss Helen Michaels. The committee on arrangements for the banquet included Mrs. Erma Holland, chairman; L. C. Nixon, and Mrs. A. W. Parham.

GUESTS AND staff members who participated in the banquet were:

Mesdames Kathleen Alston, Alice Caster, Beatrice Collins, Sarah Dodson, Hazel Duvall, Bessie Ford, Madelyn Futch, Virginia Gunn, Mary D. Marrow.

Cooking Is Fun

By FANNIEJOE REID

Since you showed such interest in our cornbread recipe some time back, I've been delving into my recipes to find you another corn meal recipe that I think you will be mighty pleased with. My corn meal biscuits are just as delicious as the corn bread, I think. But you try them and let me know what you think.

For these corn meal biscuits I use one and a half cups of sifted flour, three teaspoons baking powder, a teaspoon of salt, one-half cup corn meal, one-fourth cup shortening, three-fourths cup milk, two eggs and a tablespoon of sugar.

TO MAKE, sift together flour, baking powder, salt, corn meal and sugar. Cut in the shortening until the mixture looks like course meal. Now beat the eggs very light and add them to the milk. Stir the egg-milk mixture into the flour-meal mixture to make a soft dough.

Round the dough up on a lightly floured cloth covered board. Knead lightly. Roll or pat out one-fourth to one-half inch thick, depending upon the size biscuits you like. Or you may cut the biscuits in a shape to please yourself.

Bake 12 to 15 minutes in a hot oven (450 degrees) until golden brown. Serve piping hot with plenty of butter and jelly, honey or syrup.

MY REQUEST RECIPE this week is for a jelly roll. Many cooks think a jelly roll is difficult to make, but they are far from right.

I make the roll in quick time with a cup of flour, a teaspoon of baking powder, a fourth teaspoon of salt, three eggs, a cup of sugar, a half cup of water, a teaspoon each of vanilla, mace, nutmeg and lemon juice.

I START my oven before I begin mixing the cake. Set the temperature at 375 degrees. Grease the bottom and sides of the pan in which the roll is to be baked and then line the pan with brown paper or foil.

Now sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, mace and nutmeg.

Beat the eggs in a small mixing bowl until very thick and lemon colored. Pour the eggs into th. large mixing bowl and gradually beat in the sugar, blending in water and flavoring.

Mix in dry ingredients and beat until the batter is smooth. Now pour into the prepared pan and bake 12 to 15 minutes, or until top springs back when lightly touched with finger.

Loosen edges of cake from pan and immediately turn upside down on a towel that has been sprinkled with confectioner's sugar. Carefully remove paper or foil, trim edges, spread with jelly or filling and roll. When cool it may be cut in slices.

4685 14½—24½ by Anne Adams

Peach shortcake

It's as easy as opening a can of cling peaches to make an elegant shortcake!

"Rich Peach Shortcake" has a mighty attractive personality, and one that makes the men folk sit up and take notice. Juicy, golden cling peach slices and whipped cream go perfectly together between rich biscuit shortcake layers. A drift of whipped cream over the top and a finishing crown of peach slices make this dessert a sight to behold!

Rich Peach Shortcake is made with 2 cups sifted, all-purpose flour, ¼ cup sugar, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ cup shortening, 2 teaspoons grated orange rind, ¾ cup milk, 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine, 1 (No. 2½) can cling peach slices, ½ pint whipping cream, and 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening. Stir in orange rind and milk. Divide dough in halves and pat each in an 8-inch round layer cake pan.

Place one round in greased cake pan and spread with melted butter. Fit second round on top and spread with butter. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes, or until well browned.

SAUSAGE STUFFED BAKED APPLES make a delicious supper main dish or a hearty brunch that the family will love.

Sausage stuffed baked apples

"An apple for the teacher . . ." Everybody knows the old saying, but it is a wise idea to let apples be the teacher, once in a while!

Aside from the deliciousness of the apple as a simple dessert there are many ways in which the cooked apple scores. One of the best is sausage stuffed baked apples.

SAUSAGE STUFFED baked for supper or brunch requires 6 large baking apples; 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 pound sausage links, 2 tablespoons sausage fat and ½ cup hot water.

Wash and core apples, being careful not to cut through the blossom end. Scoop out apple to within ½-inch of the skin. In the meantime, brown sausage on all sides and crumble. (Save 2 tablespoons of the sausage fat). Mix with the scooped-out apple pulp and pile into apples. Place in a 10x5x2-inch baking dish. Pour hot water around apples. Cover with aluminum foil. Bake 20 minutes. Remove cover and baste with the hot water that is in the dish. Mix bread crumbs with sausage fat and sprinkle over apples. Continue to bake, uncovered, until tender, 15 to 20 minutes.

FRESH APPLE and bacon omelet is made with 1 cup coarsely grated raw apples, 3 tablespoon fresh lemon juice, 3 strips bacon, 4 eggs, separated, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper, ¼-cup milk, and fresh parsley for garnish.

Grate apples and mix with lemon juice. Set aside for later use. Fry bacon crisp. Drain on absorbent paper. (Save 1 tablespoon bacon fat). Set aside for later use. Beat egg yolks, salt, black pepper and milk together. Add grated apples and bacon, crumbled.

Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks and carefully fold in the egg yolk mixture. Heat 1 tablespoon bacon fat in a 9-inch skillet, tipping to completely grease the bottom. When fat is hot enough to sizzle a drop of water, lower the heat and pour in the omelet mixture.

Cook over very low heat until well-puffed over the top and golden brown underneath, about 10 minutes. (Test by gently raising omelet with spatula.)

Bake in a preheated moderate (350 degrees F.) oven until surface is dry and omelet is firm, 15 to 20 minutes. Run a spatula around the inside of skillet to loosen omelet.

Make a crease through the center and then carefully fold on crease by slipping spatula under half of the omelet, flipping onto hot platter. Serve hot with broiled ham.

GRATED APPLE SNOW is made with 3 cups grated raw apples, 2 tablespoons sugar, ¼ cup fresh lemon juice, 2 egg whites, ⅛ teaspoon ground nutmeg, ¼ cup sugar, and ¼ teaspoon salt.

Combine the first 5 ingredients and chill. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Gradually beat in the ¼ cup sugar. Continue beating until stiff.

Fold in the grated apple mixture. Serve in sherbet glasses. Garnish with grated unsweetened chocolate.

MARSHMAL-O-FUDGE

so good, with double-rich Pet Milk—so easy, they make it themselves!

"It's the best fudge in the whole wide world, it's so creamy!" We like to have it real often. Why don't you have some, too? We've made it lots of times all by ourselves and it always comes out just right. Pet Milk and our special recipe make it so easy!"

LIKE 10-year-old girls everywhere, the Fultz quads show a big interest in cooking, especially in recipes they can make all by themselves. And naturally, they know there's no milk as good for cooking as double-rich Pet Evaporated Milk!

They've grown healthy, strong, and sturdy on Pet Milk ever since they were born, when their doctor selected it as the only milk for the world's most famous quads. And it's still their only milk! They drink it by the pitcher-full (two glasses each at every meal) . . . pour lots of it on cereal (better than cream, they say) . . . love its rich flavor in all their favorite dishes.

Just one look at these four happy, healthy little girls and it's easy to see why Pet Milk is America's favorite milk for bottle-fed babies . . . and why millions of homemakers, everywhere, are sure that the best milk for their families is Pet Evaporated Milk!
