I couldn't keep her down on the Farm after she heard of Detroit

Ullio Guy, 420 S. Pace Street, said, this week, that he couldn't keep his wife, Mrs. Williemae Guy, down on a farm after she began hearing about Detroit.

Mr. Guy, seeking a divorce in Circuit Court, testified that his wife deserted him in 1934. They were married in 1926, and lived on a Maryland farm.

"I was nice to her. I gave her everything I was able to give her. Our marriage was real nice until she began getting letters from her sister in Detroit. One day, she slipped off. I didn't know she was going.

"I wrote her in Detroit but she wouldn't answer. Then I went to Detroit to try to get her to come back. She said she didn't want to stay on a farm," the husband testified.

He was granted a divorce on grounds of desertion.

A DIVORCE ON grounds of constructive desertion, was given to Mrs. Selma Hines of 1524 W. Mulberry St., who said that her husband, Robert, put her out of the home in which they were living.

It was the lack of a home of their own that brought about the separation, Mrs. Hines told a Master of the court.

"We were living with my in-laws," said she, "and I was having trouble with them. I asked him to get a place for us and our baby, but he refused. He said he would not leave his mother's home.

"I insisted. He told me that if I didn't stop he would put me out. On July 23, 1955 he packed my things and told me if I didn't get out he would throw me out."

ALSO WINNING a divorce was Sabiel M. Wilder of 911 N. Carrollton Ave. and owner of a pool room at 1410½ Pennsylvania Ave., who won his freedom from Mrs. Virginia H. Wilder.

He testified that he and Mrs. Wilder, who lives in Reading, Pa., voluntarily separated in 1944.

They have a 12-year-old son, whose custody remains with the mother, with the father providing support for him. The couple was wed in 1941.

CHARLES BENNETT, 1410 McCulloh St., wof custody of their two children when he divorced Mrs. Delores Bennett this week.

He testified that she deserted him in 1951. They were married in 1948.

* * *

MRS. GRACE E. HONEST of 821 N. Monroe St., testified she dislike of her young son by a former marriage brought about a rift in her marriage to Milton H. Honest.

"He treated my son very poorly. So we discussed the matter, and decided to separate," she told the Master.

* * *

"HE DIDN'T SAY anything. He just walked out, and has never come back."

Thus Mrs. Eulallah Walker of 1545 N. Smallwood St., a practical nurse, described the ending of her marriage to Arlington Walker of Camden, N.J. Married in 1947 they were separated in 1951.

Lawyer's home burglarized

Northwestern Police are seeking the burglars who ransacked the 1800 block Madison Ave. home of Milton B. Allen, attorney, and stole $120 in cash, Wednesday morning.

According to Mr. Allen's aunt, Mrs. Esther Johnson, 1835 Madison Ave., she was in the collar with the Allen's son and heard a noise on the first floor around 9 a.m.

* * *

THINKING IT was Mr. Allen, who had left the house with his wife at 8:30 a.m., Mrs. Johnson did not come upstairs until 9:30 a.m., police were told.

Mrs. Johnson discovered that several drawers in the middle bed room had been pulled out and clothes and envelopes which had been in the drawers were on the bed.

The cash was in the Benjamin Stations of silver dollars, ones, fives and tens, police learned.

'Taking care of the hospital expense'

"Do you realize these people are very seriously hurt?"

Magistrate Harry Silbert asked this question of Mrs. Gertrude Smith, 21, of the 1600 block of N. Monroe St., in Traffic Court Tuesday night on two traffic violations resulting in the injury of a woman and child Sept. 23.

"Yes, sir," answered the diminutive housewife, "I'm taking care of the hospital expenses."

Mrs. Smith was fined $10 and costs for reckless driving and $10 for failure to yield the right-of-way to a pedestrian.

THE INJURED parties are Mrs. Lucy Hoover, 1607 N. Fulton Ave., in court on crutches, and her 8-year-old grandaughter, Phyllis Hoover.

Police "testified the pedestrians were struck at Fulton and Prestman St. when Mrs. Smith attempted to pass a bus.

OTHER CASES disposed of by Magistrate Silbert were:

William E. Cooper, 27, of the 800 block N. Brice St., was fined $10 and costs for reckless driving in a case growing out of an accident at Lake Ave. and Pinehurst Rd. on March 6.

A charge against Ralph Harris, 42-year-old house painter, of the 1900 block of Castle St., of failure to give the right-of-way to a pedestrian was dismissed when the victim refused to prosecute.

Deaf mute urged youth's attention

Because a teenage deaf mute enticed him to have relations with her, Sylvania Conner Jr., 17, 1900 block Herbert St., was acquitted of criminal assault charges in Northwestern Police Court, Tuesday.

Police testified that the 14-year-old girl had encouraged the youth and two juveniles to accompany her to the Douglass High School lawn, last Friday.

The juveniles are now being held pending a hearing in Juvenile Court.

Youth nabbed in school hall gets 20-day term

"He said he had come to the school to see his cousin.

"It's the same old story these kids use when they're caught in the halls where they don't belong . . ."

Howard Hucles, vice-principal of Junior High School No. 181 was testifying in Northwestern against Gerald Pratt, 17, 1800 block Dukeland St., who was convicted of creating disorder in the school, Tuesday.

* * *

ACCORDING TO Mr. Hucles, Pratt entered the school and was walking down the hall with a co-ed. The vice-principal nabbed him and was about to put him out of the building when a cruising patrol came by, it was testified.

Police arrested Pratt as he broke loose from Mr. Hucles and dashed across the school yard.

Magistrate Linwood Koger sentenced the youth to 20 days in jail.
