Maryland club women set 13th session, March 31

The 13th annual conference of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs will be held in the Carver Vocational Technical High School, March 31.

For the first time the conference will have a man as principal speaker at the luncheon session. He will be Dr. John H. Fischer, superintendent of public instruction. Dr. Fischer will talk on the subject "The Role of Human Relations in and for the Total Community Through Club Activities."

The luncheon is scheduled for 1 p.m.

The conference will begin with registration at 9:30 and hold a business session at 10:15.

• • •

WORKSHOPS WILL be held from 11:30 to 12:30. They will include those on "Human Relations — Frustrated Individuals," "Human Relations—With Maladjusted Youth," and "Human Relations—In Employment with Mature Women."

Planning chairmen for the workshops are Mrs. Gwendolyn Lee, Mrs. Dolly Walker and Mrs. Lena K. Lee, respectively.

An auditorium session at 12:15 will hear a recapitulation of the workshop discussions and answers to questions asked. There will be no summary at the luncheon session as heretofore.

All sessions will be open to the public.

Luncheon reservations may be made with Mrs. Cortlandt L. Brown, 256 Robert St. or Miss Marion L. Jones, 507 N. Carrollton Ave.

• • •

MRS. GEORGE H. ROSEDOM is general conference chairman. The committee chairmen include:

Mrs. Arthur J. Payne, program; Mrs. Inez Lonesome, registration; Mrs. Hubert Lane, hospitality; Mrs. Pearl Jackson, exhibits; Mrs. Ethel Day, publicity; Mrs. L. Mark Patterson, public relations;

Mrs. Margaret Johnson, timekeeper; Mrs. Nimrod Dodson, hostess; Mrs. Talmadge Hill, music; and Mrs. Richard McKinney and Miss Lillie A. Ross, official aides.

Mrs. Bruce Alleyne is president of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs.

MR. and MRS. L. B. GAMBY
Wed on his 62nd birthday Sunday

VET AND BRIDE—A 3/c and Mrs. Harveu E. Hairston, were married recently at the Church of God in Christ. The bride is the former Miss Mary Tillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Tillman. Airman Hairston, son of Mrs. Elsie Hairston, is a Douglass grad, former Morgan ROTC student who played sax in the college band. He has just returned from 19 months duty in Africa.

L. B. Gamby, Miss Wise are wed

Littleton B. Gamby and Miss Marian Wise exchanged wedding vows Sunday morning in the parsonage of Douglas Memorial Community Church. The Rev. Marion Bascom officiated.

Mr. Gamby also celebrated his 62nd birthday on Sunday. He is a well known retired real estate dealer. His bride, who is 34, is a district supervisor for a cosmetics firm.

For her wedding Miss Wise wore a blue chiffon organdy, street-length dress, and a gardenia corsage. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Connie Wharton, wore blue nylon with a rose corsage.

Edward Wharton was best man. Also attending the newlyweds were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Nichols.

• • •

FOLLOWING THE ceremony, there was a reception for relatives and friends in the Gamby apartment at 1400 Madison Ave. The newlyweds left on Monday for a honeymoon in New York.

Mr. Gamby is a widower. His first wife, Mrs. Julia Gamby, died last year.

Attending the wedding reception were the following guests: Messrs. and Mesdames Franklyn Williams, George B. Barrick, Philip Clark, Jacobs Matthews, Frank B. Butler of Annapolis, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Gamby;

Also Messrs. and Mesdames James T. Dorsey, Donald W. Garrett, Frank Phillips, James Bibbes, William Carr, Ernest Curtis, Benjamin Woods Jr.;

And, Sgt. and Mrs. Alex McCamey, Airman and Mrs. Benny Wilson; and Mesdames Lillian Hedgemon, Eva Streater, Pauline Henson, Mrs. Lillian Alston of Washington; Lessie U. Rouse;

Misses Zerita Steptesu, Mattie Sowell and Messrs. Charles Byrd and Frank Harrell.

Clubs

APOLLO—Mrs. Mamie Kent of 1600 Vincent Court entertained the whist club, this week.

Prizes went to Mrs. Dora Datcher, Mrs. Beatrice Dabney, and Mrs. Ellen Carpenter.

Mrs. Mamie Dowell received the guest prize.

SANS SOUCI — The pinochle club met in the home of Mrs. Eva Hawkins, 1927 Franklyn St., this week.

Prizes at cards went to Mesdames Tillie Williams and Bertye Whyte and Miss Avis M. Smith.

JOLLY HOSTESSES — Members of this charity and social club of Wilson Park were entertained by Mrs. Mary Gaskins, 4416 St. Georges Ave. Tuesday.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lynelle Harris, 4417 St. Georges Ave., on the 22nd.

WILLING WORKERS — The club, of Leadenhall Baptist Church, met with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts of 338 N. Carey St., recently.

The club celebrated its 21st anniversary with a program on Sunday. The Rev. J. A. Everette, minister of the New Shiloh Baptist Church, Turner Station, was heads the club.

LA SOUERS—The charity club held a business meeting in the home of Mrs. Doris Holmes, this week, to discuss plans for their annual St. Patrick dance.

The next session will be with Mrs. Mildred Jones, 531 Dolphin St.

SIGMA WIVES, holding forth at their annual fashion show on March 18, have a new trick up their sleeves.

They will, instead of showing professional models, feature "fashionable Baltimoreans" at this affair. The latter will be in tiny tots, teen-age, debutante and adult groups . . . including a wedding party.

Mrs. Naomi Camper is this year's president of the Wives, and the show is being arranged by a committee including Mesdames Cora Gibson, Marguerite Wilkins and Geneva Woods.

POTPOURRI: Jack and Jill mothers have cooked up a party for the fathers at the Ethical Society Auditorium, on next Friday night.

The Maryland League of Women's Clubs, all set for the one-day conference on the 31st, will wrap up plans at a coffee hour at the Me-De-So Club on the 19th.

Alpha Kappa Alphas are engrossed in their "Sisterly Yours" parties, this week. The parties are designed to keep alive that close feeling that might otherwise get lost in a chapter so large as Epsilon Omega.

In one of the parties, a group met at the Pennsylvania Station, Wednesday night, then went on to the Film Center, North Ave., to see "Oklahoma."

They included Vivian Cook, Mildred Seaborne, Edith Gordon, Dot's Wilson, Appye Morse, Agnese Brown, Alice Coleman, Gladys Reed, Sarah Sampson, Lula Patterson and Edmonia Townes.
