Carver, Dunbar to play at Easterwood

By HERB MANGRUM

Fresh from a 14-0 loss to Bates of Annapolis, the Dunbar High School eleven will try to renew their winning ways when they clash with Carver at Easterwood Park Friday (today) at 3 p.m.

Carver has not won a victory in the annual encounter since 1948.

With a record of 1-2, the Poets will count on the performance of Melvin Dorsey at right half and among others.

DORSEY IS a junior who some rate as one of the best backs in high school grid circles. He is the faster man on the Dunbar squad.

Pullian, a senior who has earned the title of "Mr. Reliable" for his consistent brand of play, is a sure bet to be in the starting lineup.

Other Dunbar aces scheduled to see action are James Harris and Richard Arter.

* * *

THE EFFECT that the loss of Paul Brown has had on the Carver backfield by now is well known.

Out for the remainder of the season due to a fractured hip, his loss has lessened the scoring threat of the northsiders.

A bit heftier than their opponents, Carver is counting on team work alone to earn them their first victory against Dunbar in eight years.

The coaching staff has refrained from picking any one player to push the team across.

Some of the players say "eleven ready, willing and able men will be responsible for our victory."

Arrest two at blues show

Seven fined in police court

With one spectator wanting to dance on the chairs and another wanting to search everyone in the place, Northwestern District officers made two arrests at the Coliseum Wednesday night as over 1,000 persons listened to the "Top Ten," a rhythm and blues show.

After the show ended, police arrested five other youths whom they said ignored orders to stop loitering on the corners near the auditorium.

Came Thursday morning and all seven defendants appeared in Northwestern Police Court where Magistrate Linwood G. Koger Sr. convicted them and levied fines ranging from $15 to $50.

* * *

FIRST TO APPEAR were William Jeter, 19, 2300 block Stockton St., Edward Diggs, 17, 1700 block N. Carey St.; Thomas Warren, 17, 700 block Allegany Place.

Officers testified that a group of some 25 youths were gathered at the North and Monroe St., after the dance, when they were ordered to move.

Everybody moved except the three that landed in police court charged with disorderly conduct, police said.

* * *

"WE WERE JUST STANDING there and didn't hear anybody tell us to move," said Jeter, and the other two youths nodded their heads in agreement. Jeter and Warren were fined $25 and Diggs, $15.

Gaile A. Wood, 17, a white sailor stationed at Bainbridge was the next in line, and he was charged with two counts of disorderly conduct, one at the Coliseum and one at the Northwestern Station.

"I was standing near the main entrance when the sailor came up and told me somebody had stolen his wallet and he wanted everybody in the place searched" said Lt. Wade Poole.

* * *

"WHEN I TOLD him we couldn't search everybody, he told me he was going to stand at the door and search everybody as they came out."

Lt. Poole said the sailor refused to leave and was finally arrested. "When we got to the station house he made a grab for me and we had to subdue him," said the officer.

The young looking sailor agreed that there had been a discussion about his wallet, but he was rather hazy on exactly what took place.

"I was drinking," he said. The answer from Magistrate Koger was $50 and costs.

* * *

PRESTON MEARS, 18, 700 block Stirling St., and Carl Falcon, 18, 1300 block W. Mulberry St., rounded out the list of defendants. Police said they interrupted the duo as the boys were going at it hammer and tongs at Mount and Presbury Sts.

Both men accused each other of starting the fight and both were fined $25 and costs.

William S. Dabney, 19, 2700 block Presbury St., was the man doing the dancing on the chairs, said Special Officer John W. Scruggs.

* * *

"THE MUSIC WAS playing and he stood up on his chair and started dancing. I told him to stop but he kept right on and so he was arrested," Scruggs said.

"I wasn't doing nothing," said Dabney.

Magistrate Koger fined him $50 on a disorderly conduct charge.

Man gets 14 years for robbing grocer

A 23-year-old veteran who admitted robbing an elderly grocer after hitting him with a monkey wrench, was sentenced to 14 years in the Penitentiary, Tuesday in Criminal Court.

He is George Oliver Jr., 900 block W. Franklin St., who pleaded guilty to the $1.75 robbery of Benjamin Havelock's.

Testimony was that during the robbery of Havelock's store in the 1500 block Prestman St., on Oct. 4, Oliver struck the 63-year-old man three times with a wrench. One wound required 75 stitches.

* * *

JUDGE JOHN T. Tucker also found Oliver guilty of the attempted robbery of Mrs. Sarah Foland at her grocery store in the 1800 block Lorman St., on Sept. 24. An eight-year term was imposed. The sentences are concurrent.

Francis J. Meagher, assistant state's attorney, said that Oliver had a record for burglary and had just recently been released from an Army stockade where he served five years.

The prosecutor said that Oliver received a dishonorable discharge, in September after serving time for leaving his guard post while on overseas duty.

YOUTH, 18 ACQUITTED 28 yr.

A 18-year-old youth was found Oliver guilty of a murder charge in Criminal Court, Tuesday.

Robert D. Torain, 200 block Robb St., had been accused of the fatal stabbing of Monroe Finney, 28, 500 block N. Paca St., at the latter's house on Aug. 12.

Torain said that Finney cut him and he drew his knife in self-defense. Finney died of a stab wound of the chest.

Judge Herman Moser heard the case. Preston A. Pairo Jr., prosecuted.

Supreme Libert to broaden coverage and hiring policy

CHICAGO (ANP)—Newspaper executives, radio personalities and business organization representatives were guests at a press luncheon held by Supreme Liberty Life Insurance Co. last week.

They heard Earl B. Dickerson, the new president of the company in his first public appearance since being elevated to the presidency of the insurance organization.

Dickerson, after paying tribute to the officials who have conducted the affairs of the company so successfully up to this time, including Truman K. Gibson Sr., chairman of the board of directors and J. G. Ish, vice chairman, described his own association with the organization.

"I JOINED Supreme Liberty during its formative years," Dickerson recalled. "I had finished the University of Illinois and the University of Chicago law school when Frank L. Gillespie, founder of Liberty Life, invited me to join the new organization," he continued.

The new executive said he saw no reason why the life insurance company he heads asould not become an active competitor for insurance business among all people. He indicated that Supreme Liber tynot only would go after insurance business among all Americans but that it would not restrict its hiring policies to colored persons alone.

Fire Dept. bias order told in Court

Fire Deputy Chief J. W. Kay has admitted that he issued an order in 1950 restraining transfer of colored officers to white fire companies.

The admission was made during a hearing before District Court Judge Bolitha Laws on a suit filed by Lt. Raphael A. Smith, who charges he was denied promotion to captain because of his race.

* * *

LIEUTENANT Smith, highest ranking colored fireman, has been with the department 23 years. He also named in the complaint the District Commissioners and the U.S. Civil Service Commission.

According to Belford V. Lawson, attorney for the Lieutenant, Lieutenant Smith was prevented from taking the captaincy examination in 1950. He charges the Commissioners and Civil Service Commission had knowledge of the denial, but took no action.

THE HEARING was scheduled, after efforts by the Civil Service commission and the District Commissioners to have the suit dismissed failed. Arguments began Monday, and will conclude Friday (today).

Six fire department officials, including Deputy Chief Kay, Chief Millard H. Sutton, and Lieutenant Smith testified the only step by the Fire Department toward integration thus far has been the assignment of 14 privates to former all white companies.

Lieutenant Smith, assigned to Engine Co. No. 27 at 4201 Minnesota Ave., NE-asks for an injunction to enjoin the Fire Department from enforcing the 1950 order.

STRIKE UP THE BAND—A partial view of the 400 musicians from seven Maryland secondary school bands and the Morgan State College Marching Band, which presented the "Circus of Bands," in the Capital Classic at Washington Saturday at Griffith Stadium. The same combination of bands, under direction of Dr. R. Hayes Strider, will present the musical arrangement at Morgan's homecoming game with A. and T. College at the Hughes stadium in Baltimore Saturday. Here the majorettes stand at attention while the bands play "The Star Spangled Banner," which opened the show.

Two parolees sent to jail

Two men released from the Maryland Penitentiary on parole faced a possible return to that institution on Thursday after they had been convicted of stealing a topcoat and other articles from a patron in a night club.

2100 block Pennsylvania Ave.

6 Robert James, 35, 1.. Lock N. Central Ave., who was reportedly granted probation recently after completing part of a life sentence for murder, and David Collins, 35, 1600 block Monument St., who was sentenced in 1944 to 31 years for robbery, were the two men.

They were accused of taking the coat from a cloak room in the night club. The coat was identified as the property of Samuel Waters, 1700 block Clendenin St.

In addition to the larceny count, James was also charged with assaulting Det. Sgt. Hiram Butler when the officer was questioning him at the Central District.

James was sentenced to nine months in the House of Correction and Collins drew a six-month term.

Probation officers Steward Douglass and William Harris testified as to the men's records.

Nixon tells industrialist's jim crow costs U.S. 30 billion

The cost of discrimination in the United States today has been estimated at $30 billion dollars, according to Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

This statement was made at a press conference held in the Executive Office building, Tuesday, to summarize findings of the Conference on Equal Job Opportunity.

The conference was attended by heads of 6 major industries and the members of the President's Committee on Contracts. The problems discussed in this meeting dealt specifically with the employment of colored persons, said the Vice President.

Perhaps this was because the policy of discrimination is aimed primarily at this group, especially in Southern areas.

* * *

HE POINTED out that none of the industrialists attending this meeting lived in the South, but many of them have plants there.

Relating their experience in operating southern plants without discrimination, some of the business men told how they found it necessary to make a personal visit to the communities before the plants were put into operation.

They held conferences with community leaders stating their policy of non-discrimination.

If the community were willing to cooperate in carrying it out, the plant could be established, if not there can be no plant.

* * *

IN EACH instance, according to the industrialists, the community accepted the policy. Plants are now working successfully on an integrated basis in Louisiana, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Virginia, and Mississippi.

The 6 congresses in attendance represented $45,500,000,000 total annual production, and about 15 per-cent of all manufactory employment in the United States.

It was agreed in the conference that a non discrimination policy in employment is necessary not only because it is the right thing to do (although that is reason enough), but also because it he'ps all Americans, stated Mr. Nixon.

HE SPOKE of the high cost of discrimination by the failure to utilize all untapped skills and the low of purchasing power of many citizens.

We must tap all skills available in the American population, continued the Vice President, and we must have a buying marked for goods produced.

The primary problem of discrimination today is not in hiring, it was learned, but in promotions after hiring.

The promotion problem is to provide adequate supervision training for the personnel within the industry itself. This is due to the big gaps in educational background of many employees.

* * *

THE GROUP concluded from the discussions presented, that fears which many companies had of putting a non discriminatory policy in effect, have been unjustified.

They also agreed that the policy to be effective, must come from the very top. Unless it comes from the top, said the Vice President it might not filter down the line with some of the people who must carry it out.

This problem must be met squarely and firmly and must be put into effect with good planning and education. More can be accomplished this way, thinks Mr. Nixon, than by compulsion.

He believes that a firm policy of non-discrimination in plants working under Government contracts will voluntarily expand into other industries which have no federal contracts.

A successful program of integration in industry he feels, will lay the ground work for successful integration in schools.

Youth gets 5 years in bicycle murder

"Far too many instances of lack of self control on the part of youth have led to killings. Punishment must follow as warning and deterrent others."

With these words Judge Herman M. Moser, of Criminal Court, sentenced Clarence Moore, 1, 1300 block W. Baltimore St., to five years in the reformatory for the manslaughter of Hugh Vasquez, 6, 100 block Allegan Ave.

The incident occurred last August when Moore, white, threw an object, said to repair bicycles at Vasquez' house. The latter attempted to take the bike away from Moore.

* * *

REFERRING TO Moore's psychiatric report, Judge Moser said that the youth was an "impulsive individual" but that "he seems to experience real guilt feelings about the offense in which he is involved."

However, the jurist pointed out that to place him (Moore) on probation at this time would be subjecting to a large part of the community. There have been too many acts of violence by young and immature youths.

Citing the crime, Judge Moser said, "... but for a accident of fate, (the boys) might never have met. The meeting resulted in death for one and possibly a lifetime of sorrow for the other."

* * *

Why IS obvious there was no plan to kill. (The act) was motivated by the youth's instinct to protect his bicycle.

"Normally a dispute (like this) would end in boyish fisticuffs, the worst result being a black eye or bloody nose.

"The tragedy is that the defendant had an object in his hand ... and in order to stop the deceased, hit him with it."

Miffed bandits flee after searching man and finding nothing

Two obviously disappointed bandits are being sought by Northwestern District police in connection with the attempted robbery of Edward L. Jackson, 500 block N. Eutaw St., late Tuesday night.

Mr. Jackson told police he was about to enter his home when a man walked up and asked "what have you got on you?" Another man then came up and drew a knife.

The first man took Jackson's wallet from his pocket and then threw it away when he found it empty. He then took the watch from Jackson's wrist and after examining, also threw it away. The bandits then fled, empty handed.
