STROLLING the AVENUE

Along the upper reaches of the Avenue, business was better than usual last week as the teachers poured into town for their annual convention. They were a gay group with plenty of the green stuff that makes the registers ring a merry tune.

A healthy share of the gross was rung up at RICTOR'S RED FOX LOUNGE where the teachers found all they could hope for in the way of entertainment with Ethel Ennis and Monty Poulson on the piano and bass, respectively.

The emergence of Miss Ennis as a singer of note is one of the most pleasant stories of the year. It couldn't have happened to a nicer person and when she takes the bows she always gives credit to Monty who helped her develop her style with a song.

* * *

ETHEL IS waiting for a confirmation of a record date, and we hope that the platter when it is released, will help her in her career.

Among the faces at the Red Fox on Sunday was that of Oliver Frazier who was celebrating his birthday. With him were Louis Pinkney, Thelma Alston and Frances Whaley.

The Morgan State homecoming game is also expected to bring extra attention to the AVENUE, and a full line of top artists are on hand to make sure that the football fans will find a lot to do after the game is done.

THE COMEDY CLUB is offering the songs of Delores Brown, a graceful young lady who was discovered by Duke Ellington several years ago when she was filling a date at New York's Apollo Theatre. Duke heard her and took the budding singer on the road with his band.

Later there was a stint with Erskine Hawkins and then it was out on her own with a string of mighty successful club and theatre dates. This engagement at the COMEDY CLUB is her first at the popular spot and there is every indication that the warm voiced thrush will be in for and extended stay.

Lovely to look at and delightful to hear, the young lady loves her work and shows it by providing a wonderful show. She's a native of Brooklyn, N.Y. and of the singing business she has this to say:

"You never get tired as long as people like you."

To that we add a hearty amen and pass along the advice that the young lady sells a song right out of the top drawer.

AT THE CORNER of Baltimore and Greene Sts. there's a friendly club known as CHICK's, which is rapidly becoming a favorite stopping off place of pleasure seekers. The music is entrusted to Herman Hill and his Jolly Jax, the group that is one of the most talented and versatile in the music making business.

The book of the band runs the gamut from the mambo to rock and roll, all of it done with a discipline that is at times nothing short of amazing.

With this group filling the walls with music, CHICK'S makes a perfect spot to spend a few pleasant moments. And there is a jam session on Sunday afternoon that really rocks, rocks, rocks.

* * *

ONE OF THE trade magazines is featuring a story this month that tells of the trial and tribulations of Count Basie, which should be encouraging to all young musicians who are struggling for that one break.

When Basie first hit the big time, he had to borrow arrangements from the late Jimmie Lunceford, and most of the music fans of that day considered Basie too unpolished to ever amount to anything but a fill-in-band.

But with the aid of a few diehards who thought Basie could make it, the Count stuck by his guns and finally with a couple of records, several New York appearances, and spots on the radio, he finally had it made.

Funny thing about it though, is that early in the game he cut a number of sides, including "One O'Clock Jump" for which he was paid a flat sum.

As a result, he never drew royalties, even though the records sold in the millions. Now the Count is back on top with jazz critics agreeing that this is the most exciting band of the day.

CLUB AMBASSADOR has the Seven Tilters turning on the entertainment at Fayette and Washington Sts., and a rollicking brand of entertainment it is, with fun for all. On Tuesday night the club has resumed its popular clothesline feature, in which the lucky guests received the oddest kind of gifts.

The charming Miss Etloy Edchels is on hand behind the bar where the drinks are always served right.

Some of the finest food in town is being served at the ALHAMBRA, 1520 Pennsylvania Ave. The steaks are the kind that can be cut with a fork and the ALHAMBRA's tradition of serving nothing but the best.

Next time you're in the mood for some wonderful food, we recommend the ALHAMBRA where drinks are also served just so right.

Yesterday (Thursday) was opening day for the new stage show at the ROYAL THEATRE with Roy Hamilton, the voice that thrilled millions, headlining the bill. In his recent appearances, Roy has shown that he is overcoming the nervousness that attended his jump into the big time.

Now he is a much more polished artist and a real pleasure to hear. On the bill with Roy are Eddie Heywood, George Kirby, Bunny Briggs and Florence Wright.

One of the friendliest places in town is MICKEY'S BAR at 1736 Poplar Grove St., where the welcome mat is always out.

HEADLINING THE activities at the LAS VEGAS is the Cal Tjader group which leans heavily on the Afro-Cuban style of modern music with some highly listenable effects. Next artist set for the club is Errol Garner who will open on the eighth.

Johnny Sparrow and His Bows and Arrows are back at the CLUB CASINO after too long an absence. Johnny, who has grown into something of a Baltimore institution, is providing the patrons with the bouncing music he does so well.

At the CLOVER CLUB its Alfonso Brown and the Tune Toppers; CLUB ORLEANS has the Stan Moore trio; JONES COCKTAIL LOUNGE is moving with its fall festival; Jerome Washington is making the music at the BERMUDA BAR, 1801 E. North Ave.

There's fun to be had at the SAVOY, 1600 E. Monument St., where the Five Crazy Cats are at hand, and there is pleasure at the EDMONDSON CAFE, 604 Poplar Grove St. and Jerry's BAR AND GRILL, 2016 Edmonson Ave. That's it . . . Have fun.

THE RAVE AT COMEDY CLUB

DELORES BROWN, former star of Duke Ellington's Orchestra and recently with the "Joe Louis Show," is currently appearing at the popular COMEDY CLUB in Baltimore. Limited engagement. (adv.)

Bureau of Music sets Dec. concert

The Bureau of Music has announced that it will present on Friday, Dec. 9, the annual Winter Concert by the Baltimore City Orchestra and Chorus.

This concert will be held in the auditorium of the Douglass High School, starting at 8:30 p.m. and is free to the public.

Harrison M. Dodd, the conductor of the Baltimore City Orchestra and Chorus, is now rehearsing these two groups for the concert and within a few weeks the Bureau of Music will announce the name of the soloist to be presented that evening.

There's a Lucky Photo in this and every edition of the AFRO with a head encircled. If it's you it's worth $5 to you. Look for it.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.* Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Clean Blokers set for Saturday reports

Emmett Till drive for NAACP memberships gain momentum

AFRO Clean Blockers, who have been ringing doorbells in their neighborhoods in search for NAACP memberships, will make their second report Saturday.

The drive, organized by AFRO Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay, has been named the Emmett Till Block Campaign as a memorial to the 14-year-old Chicago boy who was kidnaped and lynched in Mississippi.

Prizes are to be awarded the Clean Blocker who report the largest number of NAACP memberships during the current drive, the Baltimore branch has disclosed.

The report meetings Saturday will be at two churches.

* * *

YOUNGSTERS in the northwest and South Baltimore areas are scheduled to meet in the Sunday School room of the Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts., at 10 o'clock a.m.

East Baltimore Clean Blockers, who have been working hard button-holing their neighbors to become NAACP members, are slated to meet at 12 o'clock noon at the Knox Presbyterian Church, Broadway and Gay Sts.

Clean Block Director Mackay will talk and receive reports from the young Clean Blockers.

Over 500 Elks attend La Plata (Md.) meeting

LA PLATA, Md. — More than 500 members and officials from surrounding counties and the District of Columbia gathered here Sunday afternoon to celebrate the 15th anniversary of the W. A. C. Hughes Lodge of Elks.

The meeting was held in the huge tobacco warehouse of this southern Maryland town.

Special events in the program included a parade through the town with three bands representing Morning Star and Columbia Lodges of D.C. and a guest band from St. Cyprian's School in Washington.

Members of marching clubs, public appearance groups and other fraternal units also marched. A special guest unit in the parade was a contingent representing the Knights of St. John of the District.

THE FOLLOWING officials and guest speakers appeared on the program

Dr. Bernard Harris, Baltimore, president of the Tri-State Elk Association comprising Maryland, Delaware and the District;

The Rev. Charles Williams, pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church, La Plata;

Mrs. Mary H. James, Bladensburg, Md., past president of the Women's Tri-State Association;

Mrs. Ophelia Ransome, of Pomonkey, Md., District Deputy for Southern Maryland.

Also on the program were Mrs. Virginia Bratcher, daughter ruler, Abbie M. Johnson Temple No. 718, Newberg, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. William Minor, Arlington, Va.; Spearman Butler, Exalted Ruler of W. A. C. Hughes Lodge; M. Wells, chairman of the arrangements committee, La Plata;

Charles Robinson, Andrew Gwathney, chief Antler; Herbert Jones, Grand Organizer; Onton S. Lloyd, Chief District Deputy; Harry Hueston, A. A. Blanchard, and George B. Murphy Jr., special deputy, all of Washington, D.C.

Ike supports job chance conference

DENVER (NNPA)—The text of President Eisenhower's letter to Vice President Richard M. Nixon, chairman of the President's Government Contracts Committee, expressing "very best wishes" to the conference on equal job opportunity, held in Washington Tuesday, follows:

"Dear Dick:

"Please convey to the participants in the conference on equal job opportunity on October twenty-fifth my very best wishes.

"I am keenly interested in the benefits the nation will draw from this exchange of experience and ideas—and I will be anxious to have you report on it.

"We must find ways of assuring to every American that in his search for employment he will be judged on the basis of his character and his ability and not on the basis of his race, his religious faith, or the land from which he or his forebears came to America.

"With the help of the men who will be at the conference, I am certain we will make significant progress.

Husband heads back to prison

Leon Norris, 37, 2000 block N. Monroe St. hardly had time to reach Baltimore before he was headed back for another sojourn in the House of Correction, this time for six months.

It was Wednesday morning when Norris was released from prison after serving two months on a non-support charge, brought by his wife, Mrs. Virginia Norris, 1500 block W. Lanvale St.

A couple of hours later, police said Norris was knocking at his wife's front door and when he gained admittance, there ensued a fight during which Mrs. Norris was cut about her face and arms.

Not much later, Norris was back in the hands of the law on Thursday afternoon he heard Magistrate Linwood G. Koger find him guilty of assault and sent him back to the place he just left.

About all this, Norris had this to say:

"I was thinking when I was down there (at the House of Correction) and I guess I got a little mad."
